Just two years after the addition of a new press box and luxury suites, Baylor's Floyd Casey Stadium is undergoing an expansion of its team areas. A new, state-of-the-art locker room is nearly triple its previous size and has become one of the largest in the nation. Baylor's weight and training rooms have also been expanded to provide the Bears with one of the finest football complexes in all of college football.

Media Opportunities and Services

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head Coach Kevin Steele, Assistant Head Coach Scott Smith, Defensive Coordinator Brick Haley, Offensive Coordinator Greg Meyer and selected Baylor players will meet with the media on Tuesday preceding a game in the Galloway Suite in the endzone of Floyd Casey Stadium. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with players or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m. Monday preceding the press luncheon.

Besides the weekly press luncheon, Steele will also participate in the Big 12 Conference coaches teleconference each Monday at 11:00 a.m. (CT) beginning Aug. 20. Contact the Big 12 office or Baylor Athletic Media Relations to obtain the phone number.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor players and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Monday through Wednesday.

Player interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office at least one day in advance. If a telephone interview is desired, the player will be provided with the number and will telephone the interviewer at a time that does not interfere with the student-athlete's academic schedule.

BAYLOR ON THE WEB

Stats and news releases on Baylor Football and all 17 Bear athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week on Baylor's official athletic website (GoBaylorBears.com).

Gameday Media Facilities and Services

DAVE CAMPBELL MEDIA CENTER

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Press meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs, media guides and statistics will be provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also will be provided. Complete sets of all information will be available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

TELEPHONES/FAX MACHINES

Several "0-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working area. On game day, Baylor communications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

Baylor will provide a FAX machine for complimentary use on a first-come, first-served basis. Should you need assistance in sending, please contact a media relations staff member.

Press Credentials

Working press and photographer credentials for Baylor's home games with Arkansas State, New Mexico, Nebraska, Texas Tech, Texas and Oklahoma State will be handled by Baylor Assistant AD for Communications Scott Stricklin.

All credential requests should be made in writing by Sports Editors or Sports Directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Scott Stricklin, Assistant AD/Communications, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX, 76711 (254) 710-1369 FAX.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium, or at press will call in the elevator lobby of Floyd Casey Stadium.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Baylor locker room is located below the North endzone. The visiting locker room is located beneath the east stands.

Baylor coach Kevin Steele and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

WEBSITES

Fan-based websites, containing at least one or more of the following: chat rooms, message boards, recruiting information, scouting reports and links to news sites, as well as other fan-based features shall not be issued credentials. Local and national organizations which maintain a news-based website in connection with its regular newspaper or magazine, as well as radio or television broadcast shall be issued credentials on a game-by-game basis. Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such will not be permitted.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF PRESS CREDENTIALS

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working press is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

Radio/TV Information

Two of the great names in Baylor Football history, Walter Abercrombie and Ricky Thompson, will again join the "Voice of the Bears" John Morris on the Baylor Football radio broadcasts in 2001.

Former All-Southwest Conference running back Walter Abercrombie returns for his second season as color analyst in the booth. Abercrombie, an eight-year NFL veteran and member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame, is Baylor's all-time leading rusher. He has served under Grant Teaff as the Director of Education and Special Projects for the American Football Coaches Association since 1995.

A two-sport letter-winner who is also a member of Baylor's Athletic Hall of Fame, Ricky Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and the Bears leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson, who returns for his second season providing sideline color and analysis, is currently Executive Vice-President and Director of the First National Bank of Central Texas.

Now in his 15th year broadcasting Baylor Football, John Morris serves as the play-by-play "Voice of the Bears" for football, as well as men's basketball, and baseball. The 42-year old Morris also hosts the daily "Baylor SportsBeat" on flagship station KRZI 1660AM and co-hosts "Inside Baylor Sports" TV show. This is Morris' seventh year as the signature voice of Baylor Athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon.

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 15th year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award winning Director of Engineering for the Broadcast Division of the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas.

Bob Baker returns for his second season as engineer of the football broadcasts. He also handles engineering duties for Baylor men's basketball and works as Texas State Facilities Manager for Little League Baseball headquartered in Waco.

Baylor Football affiliates include flagship stations KRZI-1660AM and KLRK-92.9FM in Waco and 50,000 watt WBAP News/Talk 820 in Dallas/Ft. Worth. Every play of Baylor Football 2001 is available world-wide on the internet through Yahoo!Broadcast.com and the Baylor web site at www.GoBaylorBears.com.

Inside Baylor Sports

"Inside Baylor Sports", the award winning weekly TV show that covers all aspects of Baylor Athletics, returns for its 3rd season during the 2001-2002 academic year.

Producers Michael Butler and Ryan Hendricks provide viewers an inside look at Baylor Athletics with thorough highlights, in depth interviews, and imaginative features on all seventeen sports presented in a fast-paced, entertaining style. Co-hosts John Morris and Lori Scott-Fogleman guide viewers through the best coverage of Baylor Athletics on Television.

"Inside Baylor Sports" airs Sundays, September 2, 2001 through June 2, 2002, 10:30pm-11:00pm, on KCEN-TV in Central Texas. It also airs weekly throughout the Southwest on Fox Sports Net Southwest at a time and day to be determined.

Chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas through the efforts of Baptist pioneers, Baylor University is the oldest institution of higher learning in the state and the largest Baptist university in the world.

While remaining true to its heritage, Baylor has grown to more than 13,700 students, who come from all 50 states and some 85 countries. Its nationally recognized academic divisions offer 162 baccalaureate degree programs, 73 master's degree programs and 18 doctoral degree programs.

Baylor's 432-acre campus is located on the banks of the Brazos River in Waco, Texas, a metropolitan area of 208,000 people.

MISSION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community. Baylor's vision in carrying out its mission is to become the foremost university in the world committed to excellence in Christian higher education, where faithful scholars and a caring staff prepare students for leadership and service in the 21st century.

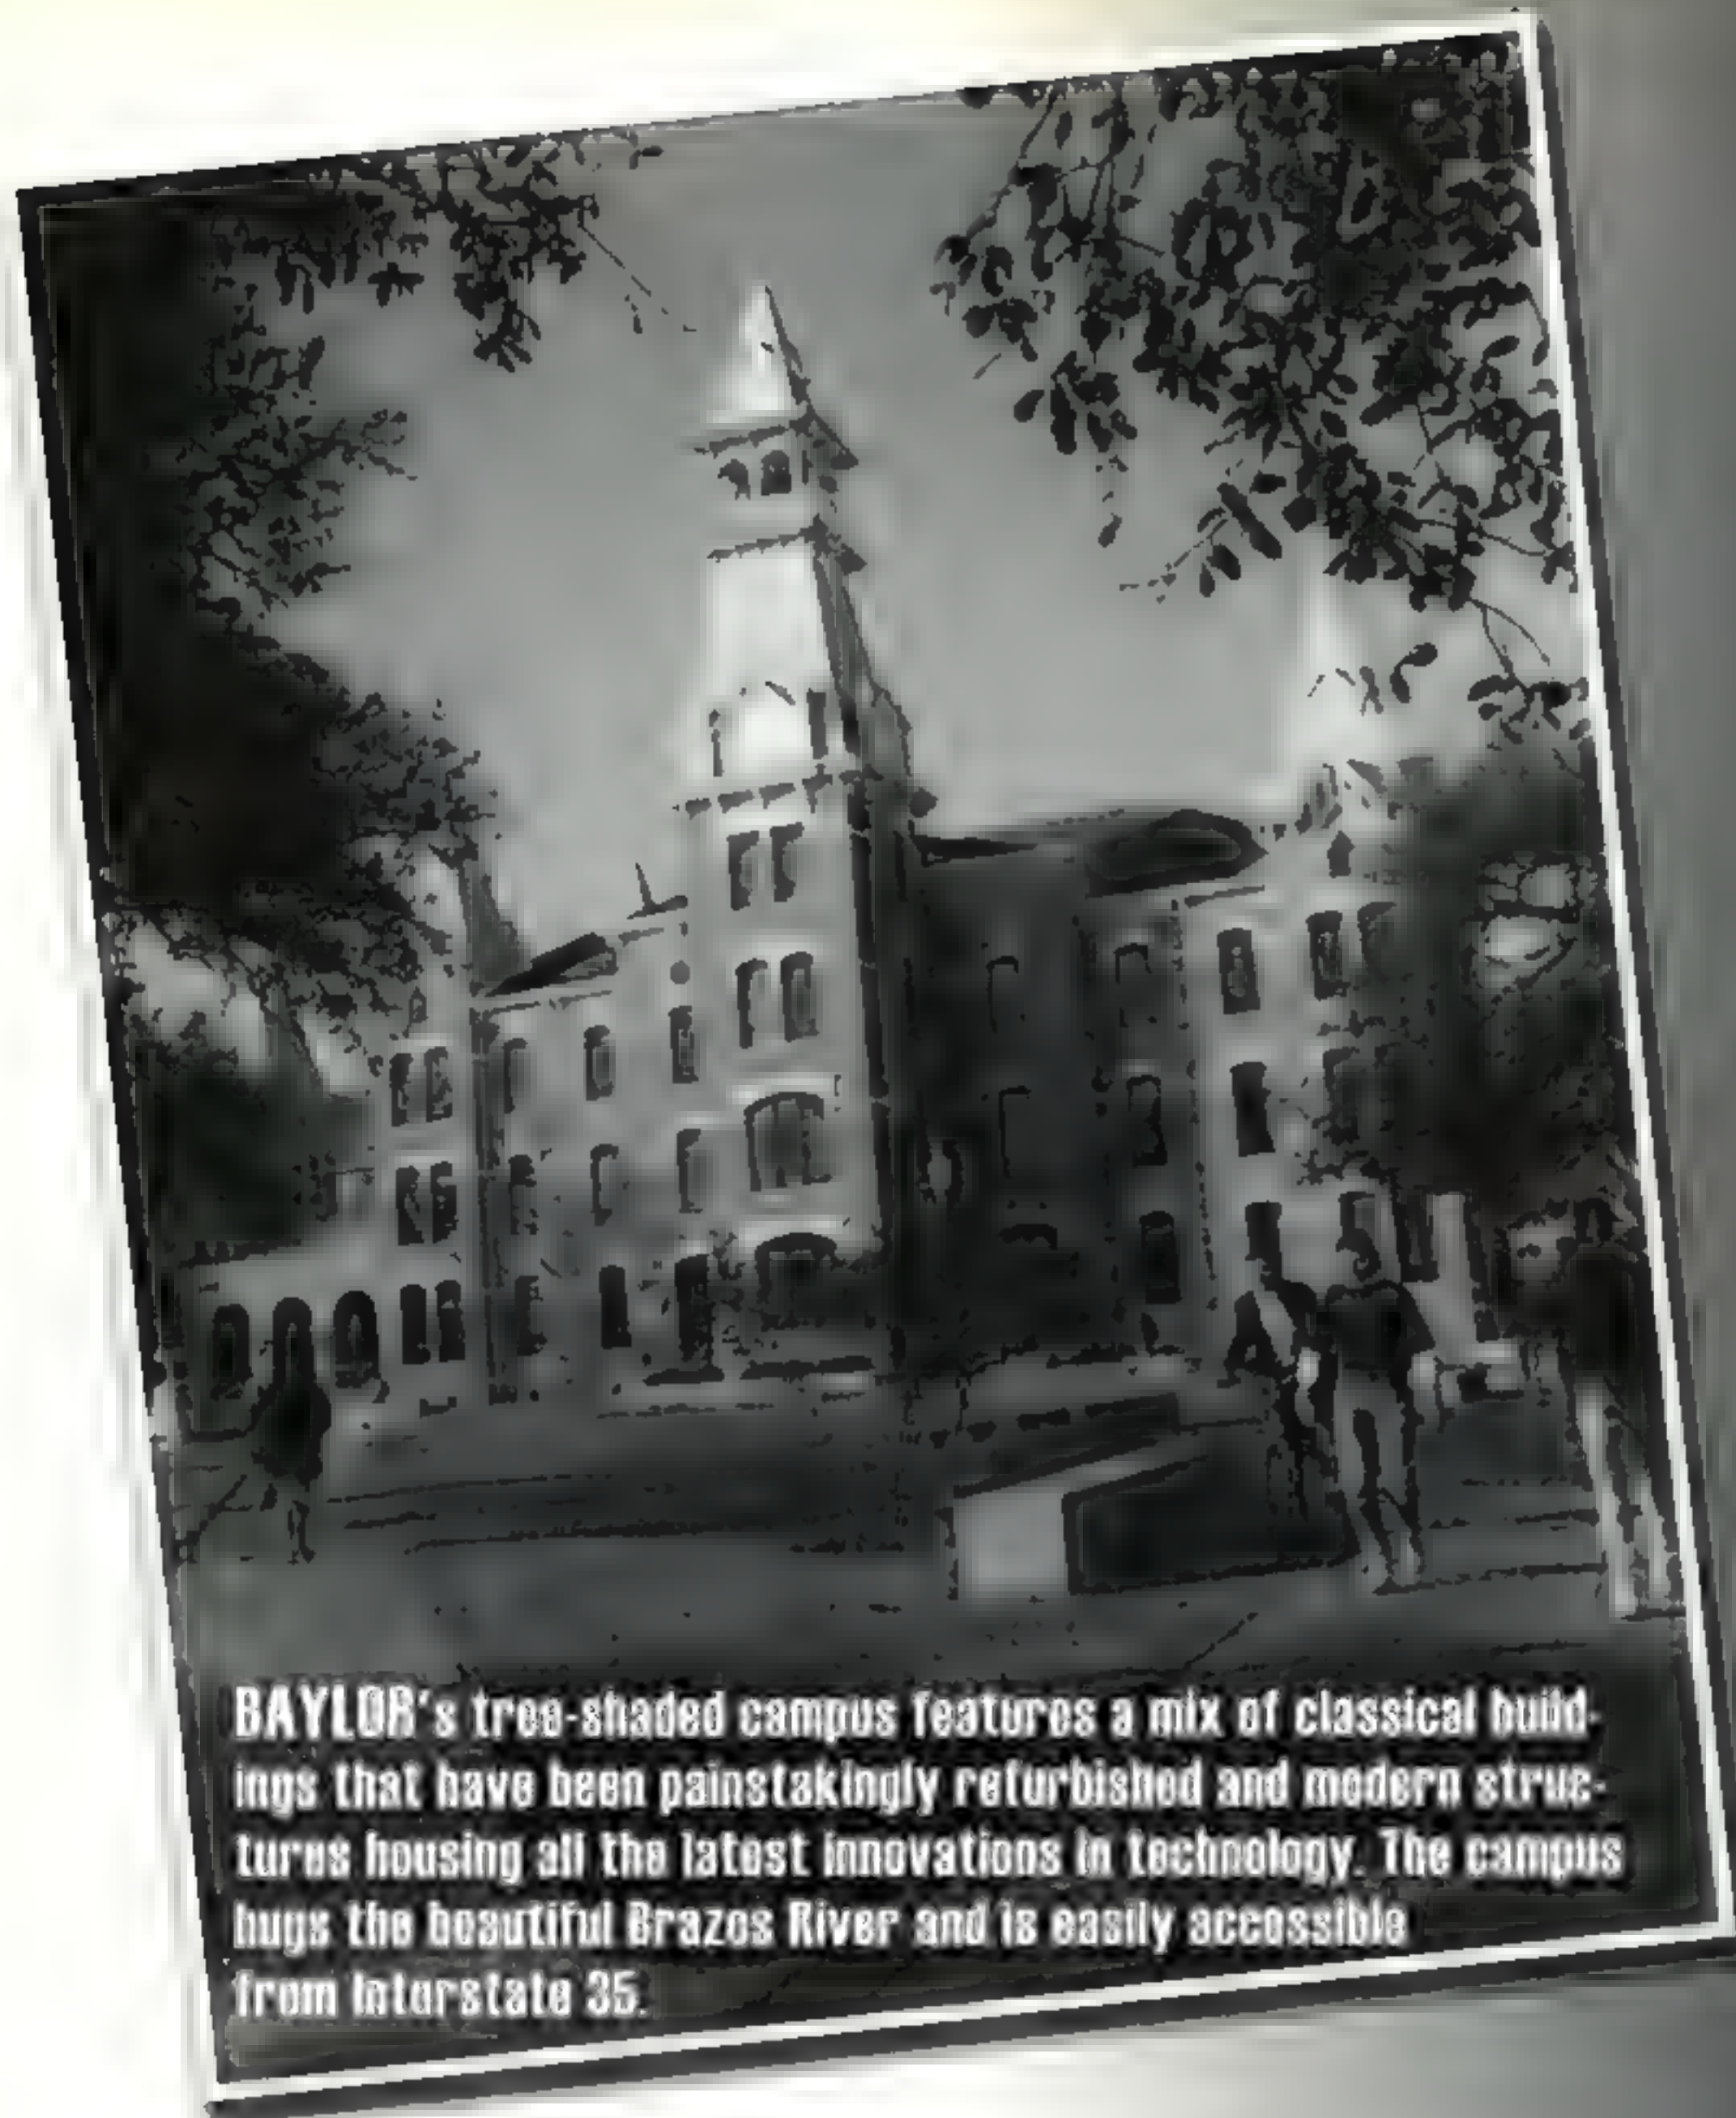

More than 155 years ago, Baylor University's Baptist founders sought to establish an institution of higher learning dedicated to Christian principles, superior academics and a shared sense of community. Today the University's motto — Pro Ecclesia, Pro Texana (for church, for state) — remains the foundation of its mission.

BAYLOR graduates are among the most successful produced by any university in Texas.

Texas governors, prominent businessmen, Olympic gold medalists, sports executives and scores of doctors, lawyers, teachers and artists can call BAYLOR their alma mater.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

BAYLOR's tree-shaded campus features a mix of classical buildings that have been painstakingly refurbished and modern structures housing all the latest innovations in technology. The campus hugs the beautiful Brazos River and is easily accessible from Interstate 35.

ACADEMICS

Baylor consists of nine academic units. Baccalaureate programs are offered through the College of Arts and Sciences, Hankamer School of Business, Louise Herrington School of Nursing and the Schools of Education, Engineering and Computer Science and Music. At the graduate and professional levels, Baylor houses the Graduate School, Law School and George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

The College of Arts and Sciences offers a comprehensive range of programs for Baylor students through its 26 academic departments. Students have the opportunity to pursue a variety of degrees through the College. Most students take courses within the College as part of their core curriculum requirements for degrees from other schools at Baylor.

Students in the College routinely qualify for prestigious academic awards. During the past year, Baylor undergraduate Brittany Sandvall was awarded a Goldwater Scholarship; Baylor graduate Cinnamon Gilbreath was chosen as a 2001 Marshall Scholar; and undergraduate Ben Hazelwood received a National Security Education Program Scholarship. Students in recent years also have earned three Fulbright Awards, in addition to Howard Hughes Predoctoral and National Science Foundation Fellowships.

Since 1923, Baylor's Hankamer School of Business has prepared its graduates to succeed in the highly competitive climate of the world economy. The School's undergraduate curriculum, which leads to the bachelor of business administration degree, encompasses the liberal arts and sciences, a professional business core and 19 major fields of study. Hankamer also offers a graduate business program with 10 fields of study, including executive education programs and new specializations in e-commerce and customer relationship management.

U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's undergraduate business programs 57th in its 2001 Best College Rankings, while ranking the undergraduate entrepreneurship program fourth in the nation. The Princeton Review includes Hankamer's MBA program in its "Top 80 Business Schools in America." During the 2000-2001 school year, Baylor accounting graduates registered the highest success rate among their peers at other Texas schools on the CPA examination, while Hankamer students won both the Top Sales Award and Top Team Award at the 2001 National Collegiate Sales Competition. In addition, MBA students took third place at the 2001 George Washington/KPMG national case competition in Washington, D.C.

Baylor's School of Education, accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), offers six degrees with more than 60 specializations. According to State Board for Educator Certification data, Baylor students and graduates earn greater than a 95 percent passing rate on state examinations for teachers, counselors and administrators. The School's network of professional development schools and Center for Educational Technology places it as a leader in the use of technology for improving teaching and learning. The partnership between Baylor University and Hillcrest Professional Development School (PDS) in Waco Independent School District is one of 20 sites in the United States to participate in the development of national PDS standards.

In 2001, School of Education Dean Robert Yinger was elected to the board of directors of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE), a national association of colleges and universities with programs that prepare professional educators.

Faculty at Baylor's School of Engineering and Computer Science excel in teaching and mentoring students in these increasingly prominent professions. Dr. Kenneth Van Treuren, associate professor of engineering, has received the national Ralph E. Teeter Educational Award for teaching excellence. In its 2001 guide to "America's Best Colleges," U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's engineering program 21st in the nation among those focused on the needs of undergraduates. For the fifth consecutive year, 100 percent of Baylor's engineering students who have taken the Fundamentals of Engineering examination administered by the Texas State Board of Registration for Engineers have passed the exam. Baylor computer science graduates command top compensation and acclaim from diverse employers. The School's bioinformatics major — a relatively new specialization that combines molecular biology and computer science — is one of the first of its kind in the world. The recent creation of a Baylor laboratory housing the database from the human genome project — made possible by a $500,000 Keck Foundation grant — is giving bioinformatics students unparalleled laboratory and research experiences.

Baylor's School of Music offers students a thorough background of music training and high-quality performance experience in its curriculum. Performing groups in the School of Music include the Baylor Symphony, Golden Wave Marching Band and numerous choirs and instrumental ensembles. These groups have performed at prestigious conventions, including the American Choral Directors Association, the American Bandmasters Association and the College Band Directors National Association. The School of Music presents more than 300 programs each year by students, faculty and guest artists. Students of the School have achieved national recognition, including fellowships to the Blossom Music Festival, Aspen Music Festival and Tanglewood Festival.

The Louise Herrington School of Nursing offers upper division (junior and senior) baccalaureate and master's programs on the Dallas campus at the Baylor University Medical Center. Undergraduate nursing students pursue the bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) degree and prepare for the registered nurse (RN) licensure. The School also offers the master of science in nursing (MSN) degree in three areas: nursing administration and management, family nurse practitioner (FNP) and neonatal nurse practitioner (NNP), as well as a joint BSN/MSN program for RNs. U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's master's programs as 59th in the nation in its "Best Graduate Schools for 2002" listing. Nearly 100 percent of Baylor nursing graduates who seek employment upon graduation find a position within one month and most are employed upon graduation.

Many of the programs in Baylor's Graduate School consistently receive high national rankings, including entrepreneurship, music, religion, speech-language pathology, physical therapy, health services administration and nursing. The doctoral clinical psychology program at Baylor, the oldest and longest accredited university PsyD program in the country, has a national reputation for producing outstanding practicing clinical psychologists. Doctoral programs added during the past year include the PhD in philosophy, which will admit students beginning in fall 2003, and the doctor of science in physical therapy, offered through Baylor's program at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio. Two master's degree programs are offered at the U.S. Army Academy of Health Sciences in San Antonio for federal personnel and specially targeted non-federal applicants.

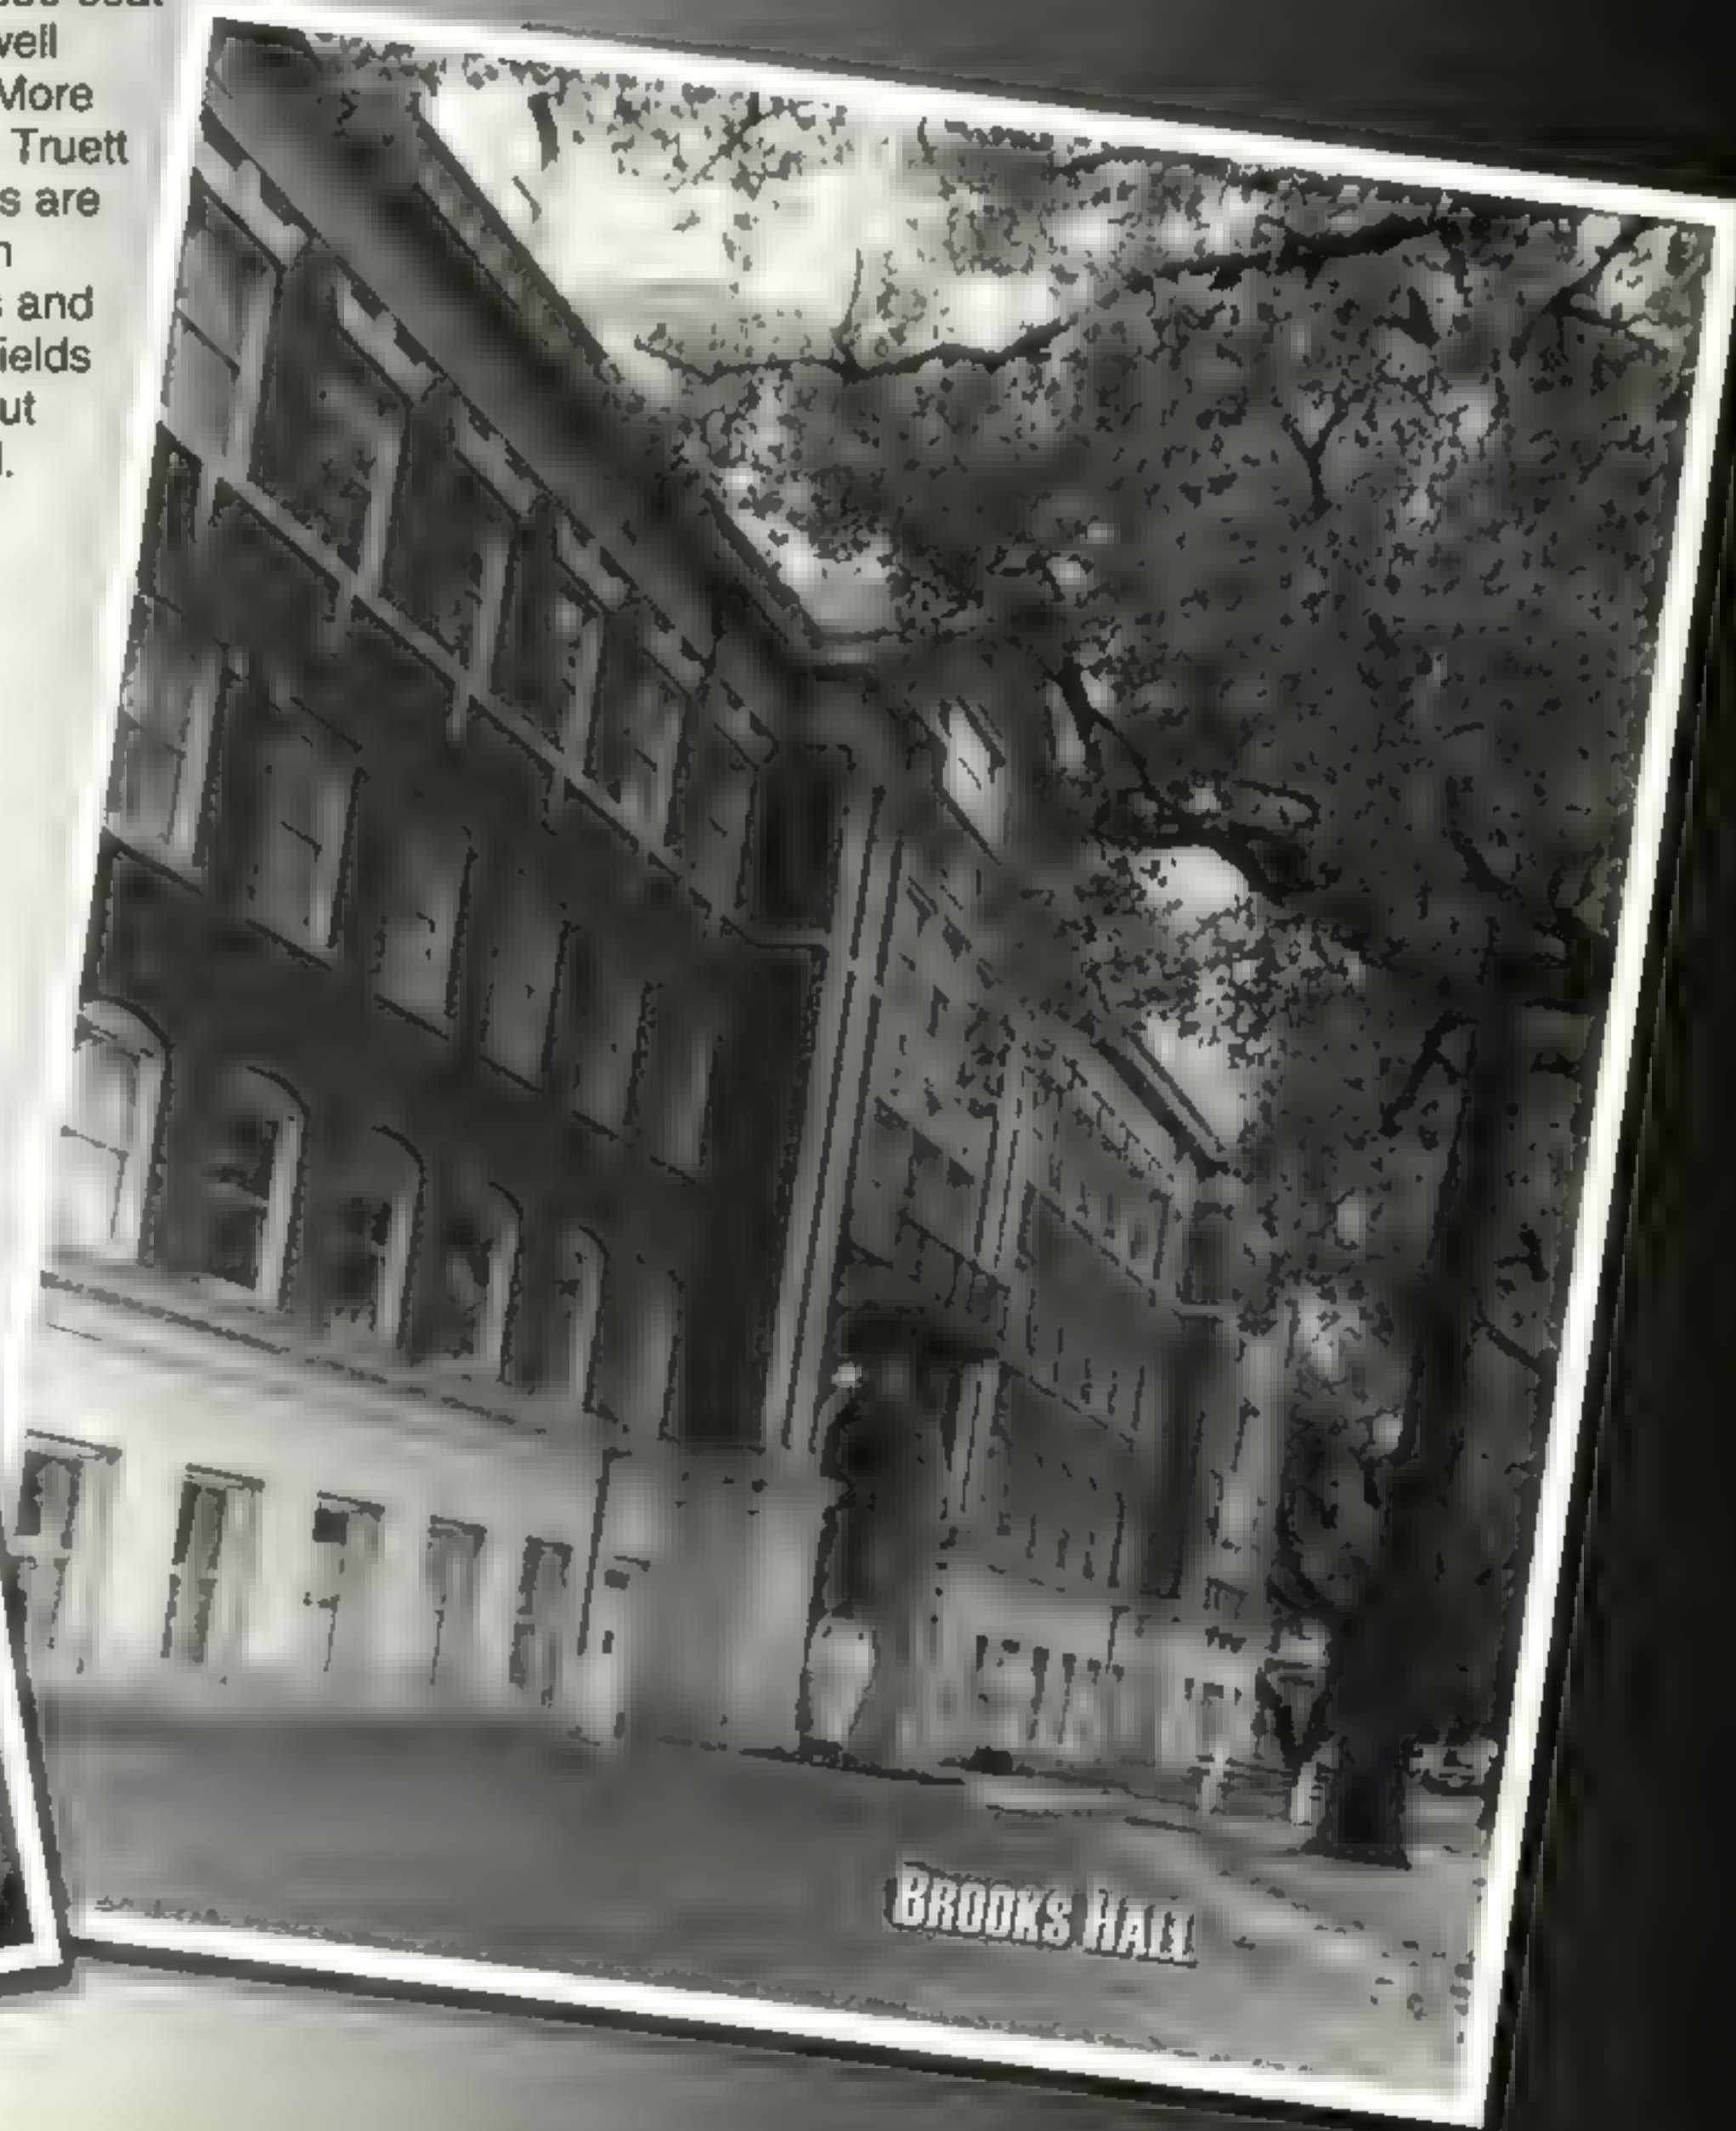

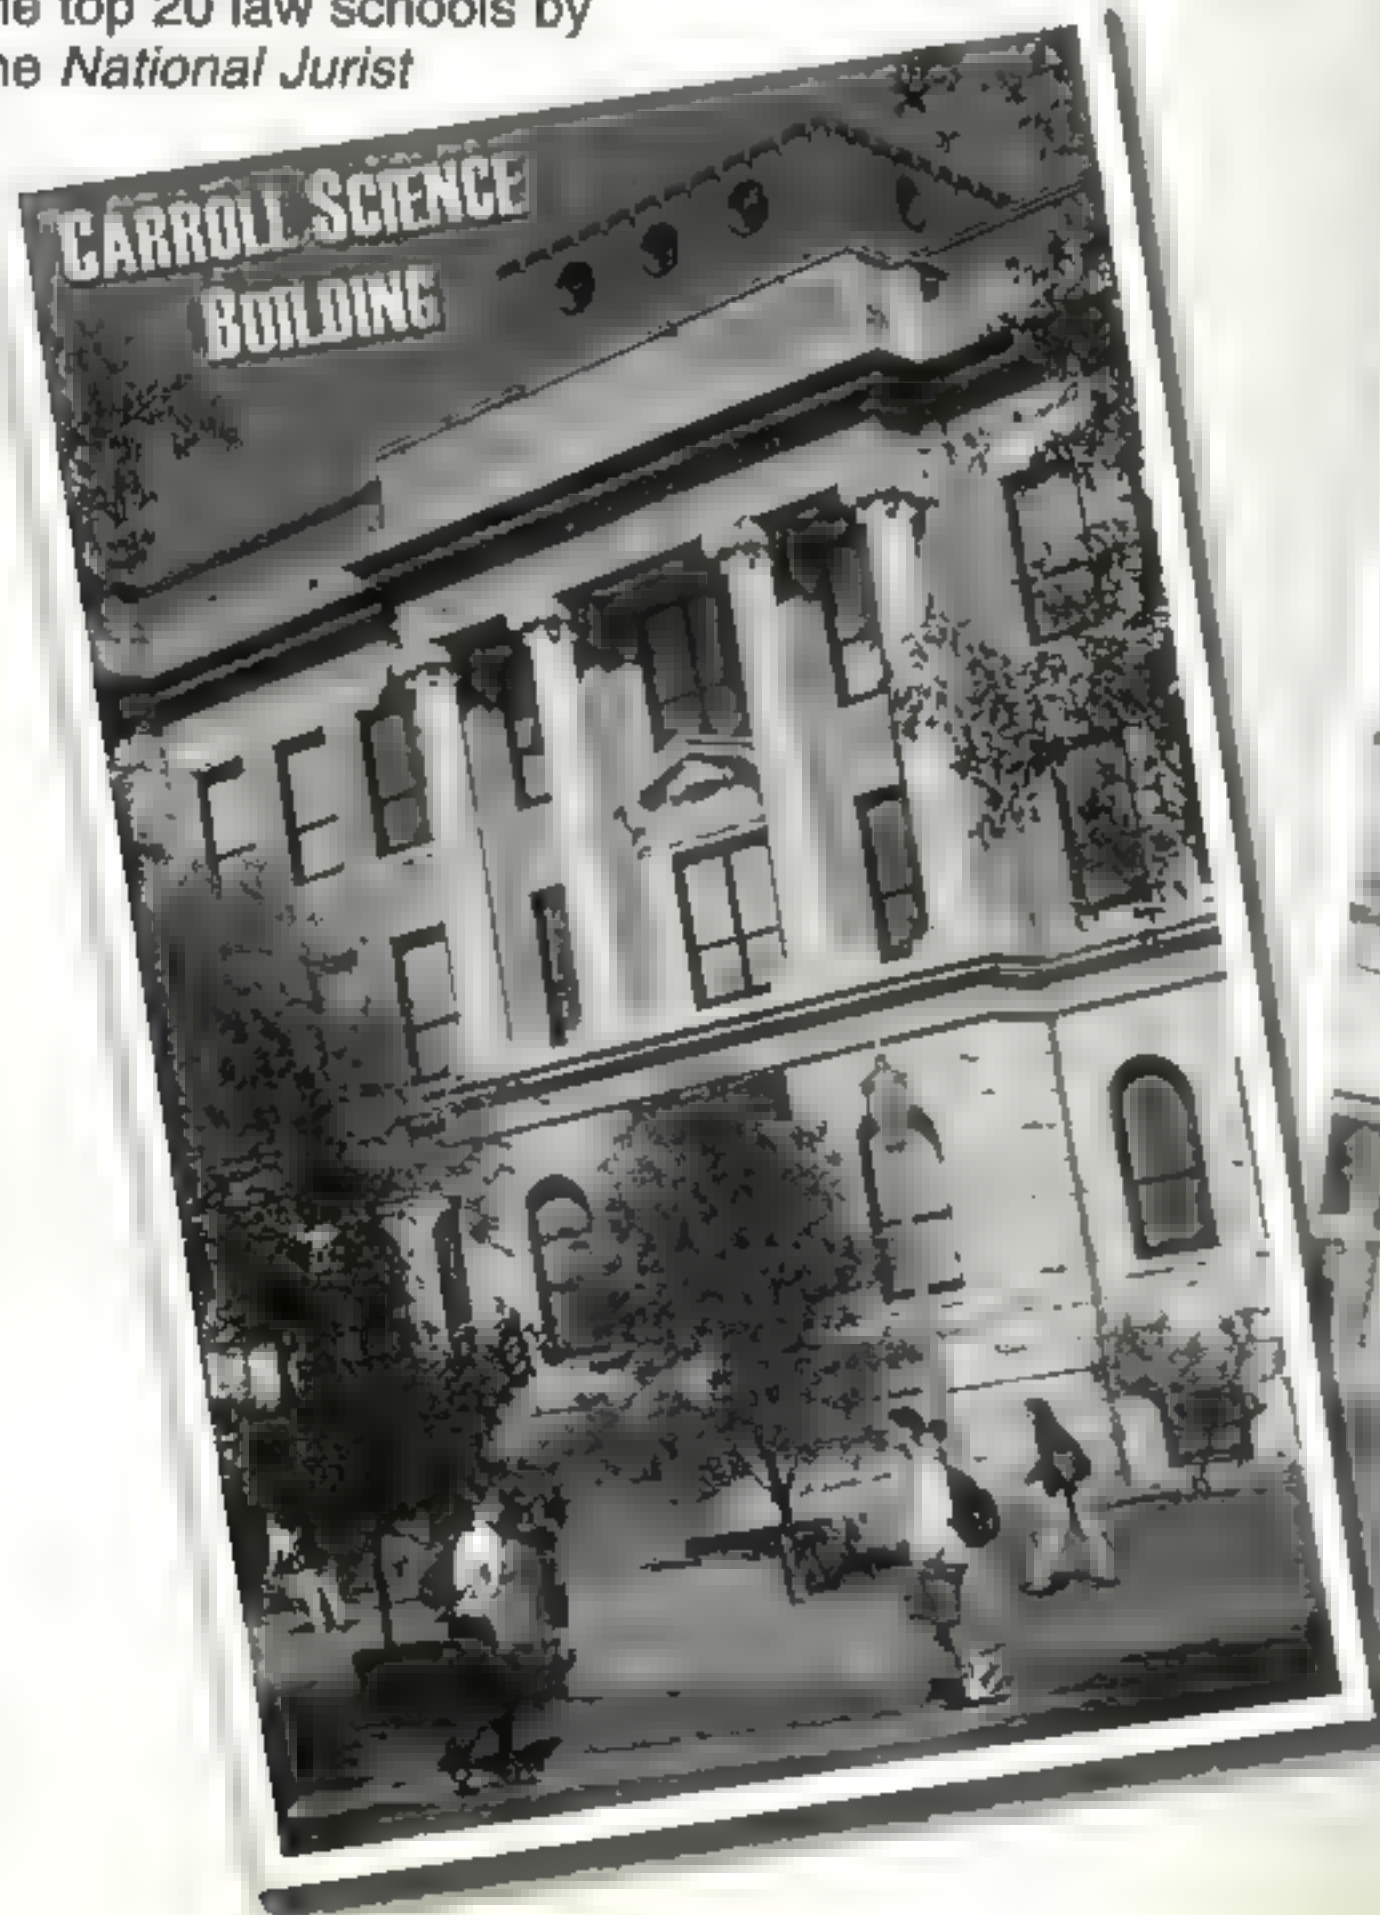

Baylor Law School draws its students from across the nation and entering credential levels for students are in the top 15th to 20th percentile. In its 2002 guide evaluating the 174 accredited U.S. law schools, U.S. News & World Report rated Baylor Law School among the top 85 law schools. Baylor has been ranked among the top 20 law schools by the National Jurist and among the 10 best teaching law schools by the Princeton Review. Baylor Law School also has an unparalleled record of success on the Texas Bar Exam and an enviable placement rate. About 85 percent of the approximately 400 students at the Law School come from undergraduate study at more than 129 colleges and universities other than Baylor. In August 2001, the Law School moved into the new $30 million Sheila and Walter Umphrey Law Center on University Parks Drive.

One of the nation's fastest growing theological schools, George W. Truett Theological Seminary has been approved as a candidate for accredited membership in the Association of Theological Schools. Since welcoming its first class in fall 1994 with one Master of Divinity program, Truett Seminary now offers five MDiv concentrations; an MDiv/Master of Social Work; an MDiv/Master of Music; and a Doctor of Ministry. Truett has joined with the College of Arts and Sciences' School of Social Work as a co-founder of the Baylor Center for Family and Community Ministries with the goal of strengthening the capacity of families and communities to nurture faith through the ministry of congregations. Construction will be completed in early 2002 on an $18 million Seminary complex, which will feature classrooms, a student life suite, a prayer room, community spaces, a Great Hall, the Robert B. Sloan Jr. Teaching Chapel and the 550-seat Paul Powell Chapel. More than 270 Truett graduates are serving in churches and mission fields throughout the world.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- At Baylor, 96 percent of all classes are taught by full-time professors.
- The student-to-faculty ratio at Baylor is 18-to-1.
- The number of National Merit Scholars enrolled at Baylor places the University in the top one percent among higher education institutions in America.
- Baylor students have study abroad opportunities through 47 programs in 24 countries, including Russia, China, Spain, Australia and Great Britain.
- Baylor has been recognized by the Kaplan/Newsweek College Catalog 2001 as a top choice among schools that guidance counselors would attend if they could repeat their college years.

WACO HISTORY

Waco is named after the Huaco Indians, the first inhabitants of the area surrounding a natural spring on the Brazos River. The tribe lived in beehive-shaped huts and had hundreds of acres of land planted with corn, beans and other vegetables.

In 1837 the Texas Rangers arrived intending to build Fort Fisher at the Waco village, but the expedition was short-lived and plans for the fort were cancelled. A trading post was established near Waco Village in 1844, and a year later a Scot named Neil McLennan established a frontier settlement in the area. In 1849, George Erath laid out the first streets of Waco and lots were sold for $5 each. The City of Waco was incorporated on Aug. 29, 1856, and serves as the county seat of McLennan County.

In 1870 the 475-foot Suspension Bridge opened across the Brazos River, providing easier access for numerous travelers as well as cattle herds being driven along the Chisholm Trail. The Waco and Northwestern Railroad reached Waco in 1871 and the city was soon a hub of commerce for Central Texas.

BAYLOR

THE BEAR NICKNAME AND MASCOT

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and coed Doyle Thraikill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylordom."

Although Baylor adopted the bear as its mascot in 1914, it wasn't until years later that live versions began making their appearance on campus.

The first live mascot — a bear named Ted — was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Waco's Camp MacArthur during World War I. Ted made his debut at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the 107th Engineers unit was ordered to move out of Waco, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department.

Since the introduction of that first live mascot in 1917, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become a beloved tradition. A number of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College. Baylor student Bill Boyd bought the bear from a Waco zoo which went broke during the Depression. Boyd then approached Baylor's president, former Texas Gov. Pat M. Neff, and offered to take care of Joe College in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the enterprising student's offer, and the tradition of live bear mascots as full time campus residents has continued since.

Baylor's current North American black bear mascots are "Chance," named in honor of President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Joy," named in honor of Reynolds' wife. Both mascots are housed in the Steve Hudson Memorial Bear Plaza on Baylor's campus. The honor of training and caring for the bears goes to the Baylor Chamber of Commerce, a campus service organization.

"SIC 'EM BEARS" AND THE "BEAR CLAW"

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal — made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw — and the "Sic 'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

In addition to being used during the yell, the "Bear Claw" is held up during the performance of Baylor's school song, "That Good Old Baylor Line." Football players traditionally hold up their helmets during the playing of the school song.

"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

*That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:

THE BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

THE GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-Southern Methodist University football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas.

During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in post season contests including the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Jeff Grogan, marches approximately 260 members.

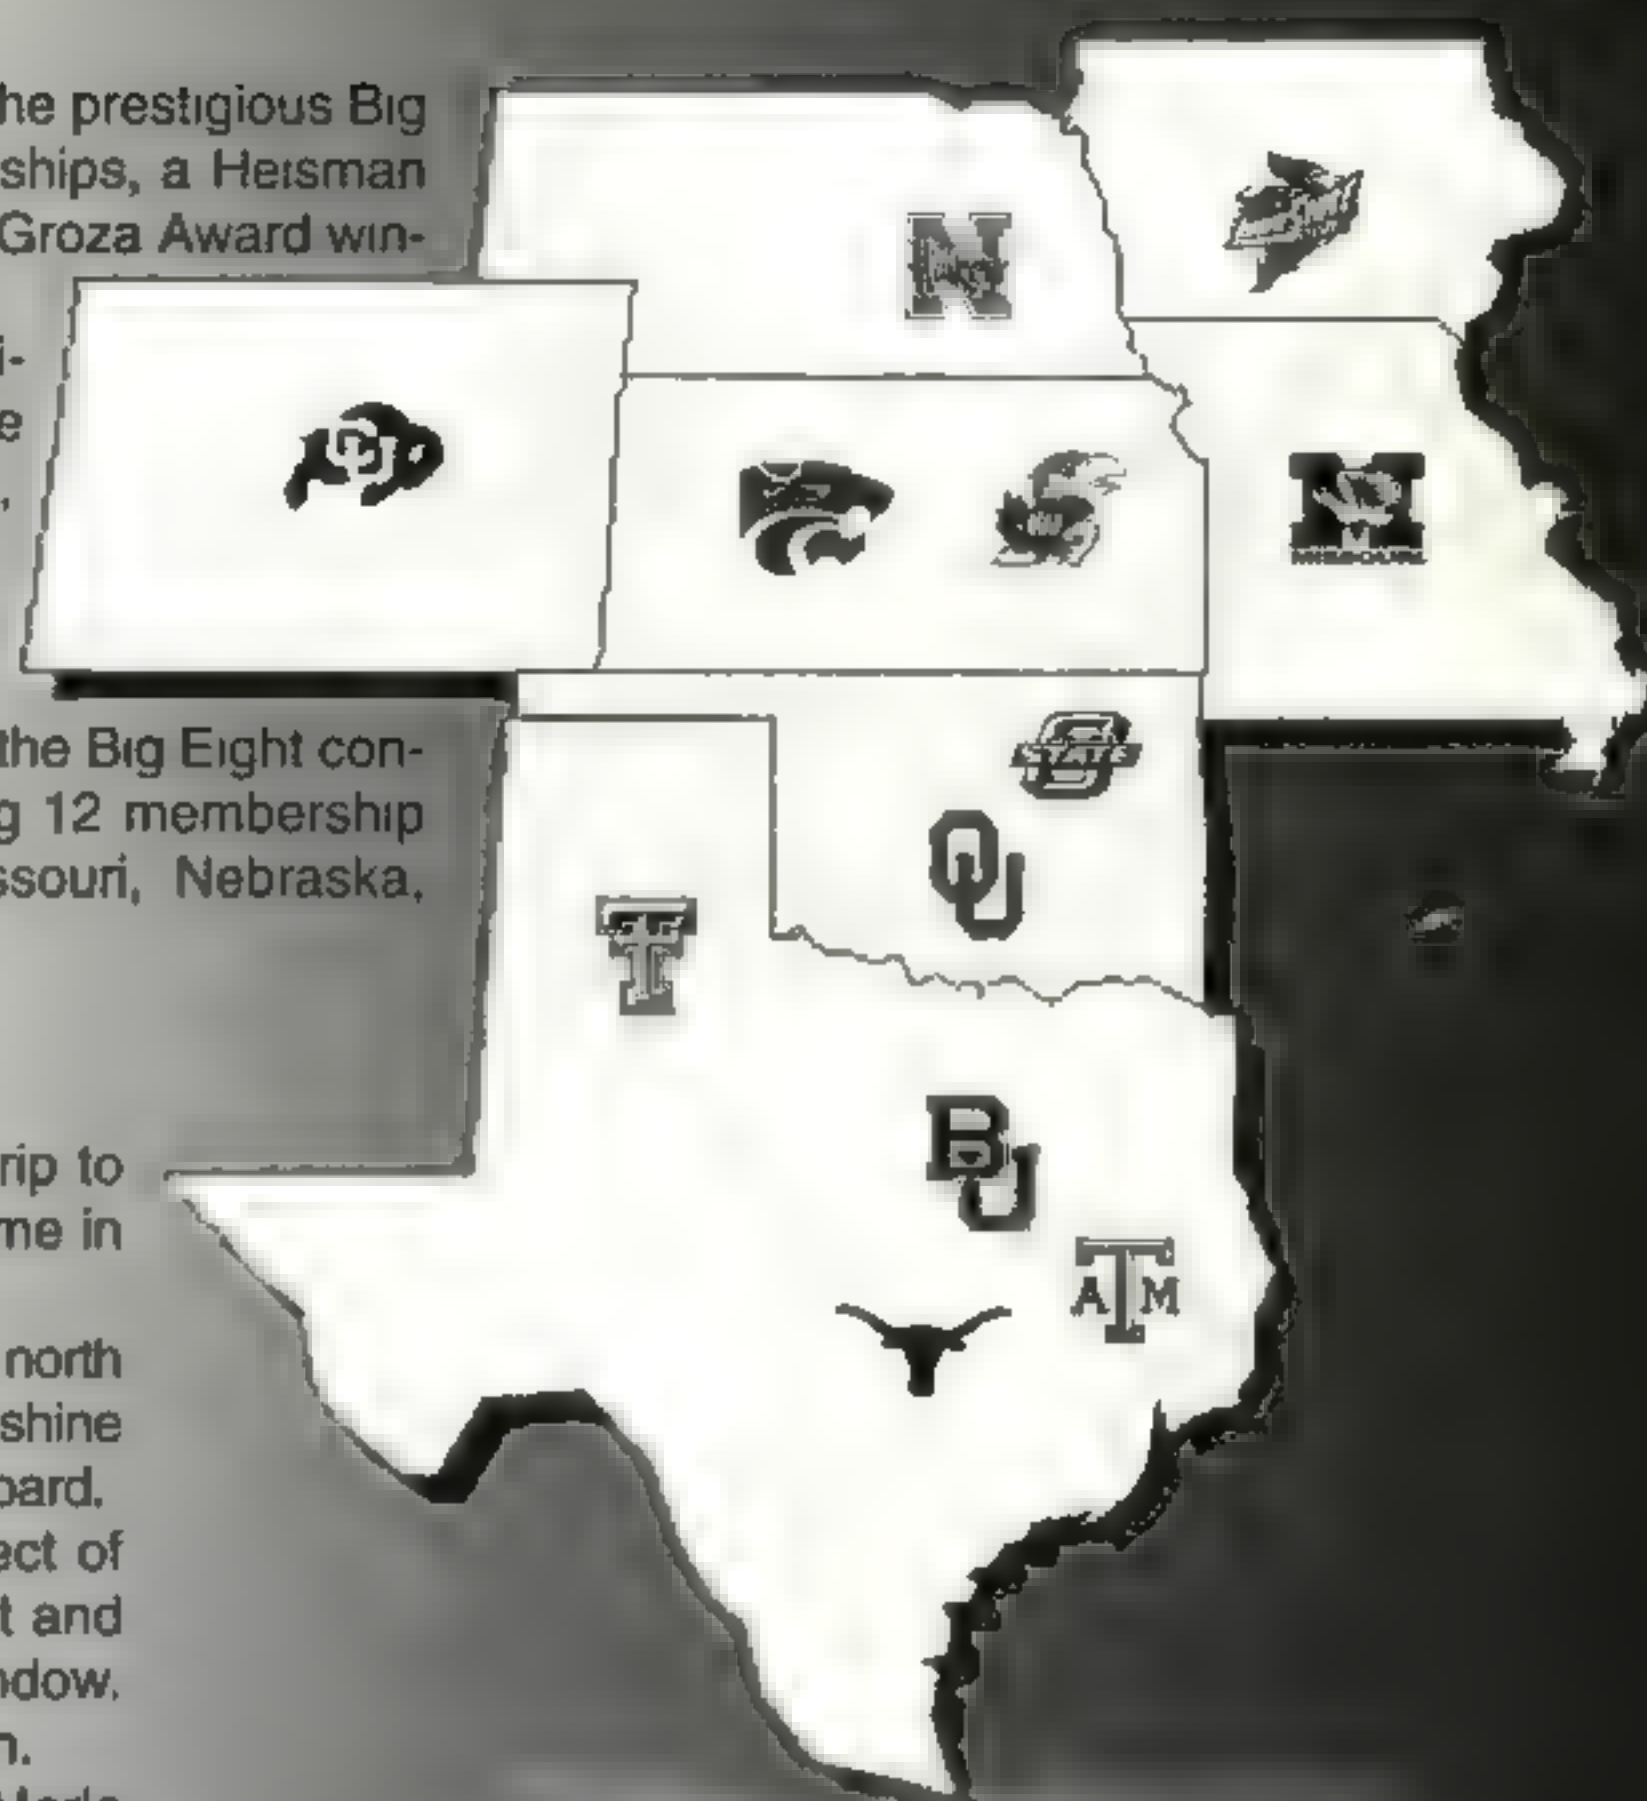

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Each week Baylor faces some of the nation's toughest competition in the prestigious Big 12 Conference, a league which has produced three national championships, a Heisman Trophy winner, Butkus Award winner, Johnny Unitas Award winner, Lou Groza Award winner and a Doak Walker Award winner in just the last five years.

Through history, Big 12 teams have won 16 national football championships and 160 total NCAA championships in all sports combined. The conference has accounted for 10 Heismans, 15 Outlands, 7 Lombardis, 5 Doak Walkers, 7 Walter Camps, 5 Davey O'Briens, 5 Butkus, 5 Maxwells, 4 Thorpes, 1 Lou Groza and 1 Mosi Tatupu Awards.

Current Big 12 members have appeared in 251 bowl games.

The Big 12 was formed on Feb. 25, 1994 when the eight members of the Big Eight conference joined four former members of the Southwest Conference. Big 12 membership includes: Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech.

THE IMMORTAL TEN

On Jan. 22, 1927, the Baylor basketball team boarded a bus for a trip to Austin play a game against the University of Texas. It was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship.

As the bus navigated a level-grade railroad crossing in Round Rock — just north of Austin — an Illinois and Great Northern Railroad train known as the "Sunshine Special" slammed into the side of the bus and killed 10 of the 21 people aboard.

One of the bus occupants — James Clyde "Abe" Kelley, captain-elect of Baylor's 1927 football team — saw the train seconds before the impact and managed to push his best friend, Weir Washam, out of the back window. Washam escaped unhurt, while the heroic Kelley was killed in the crash.

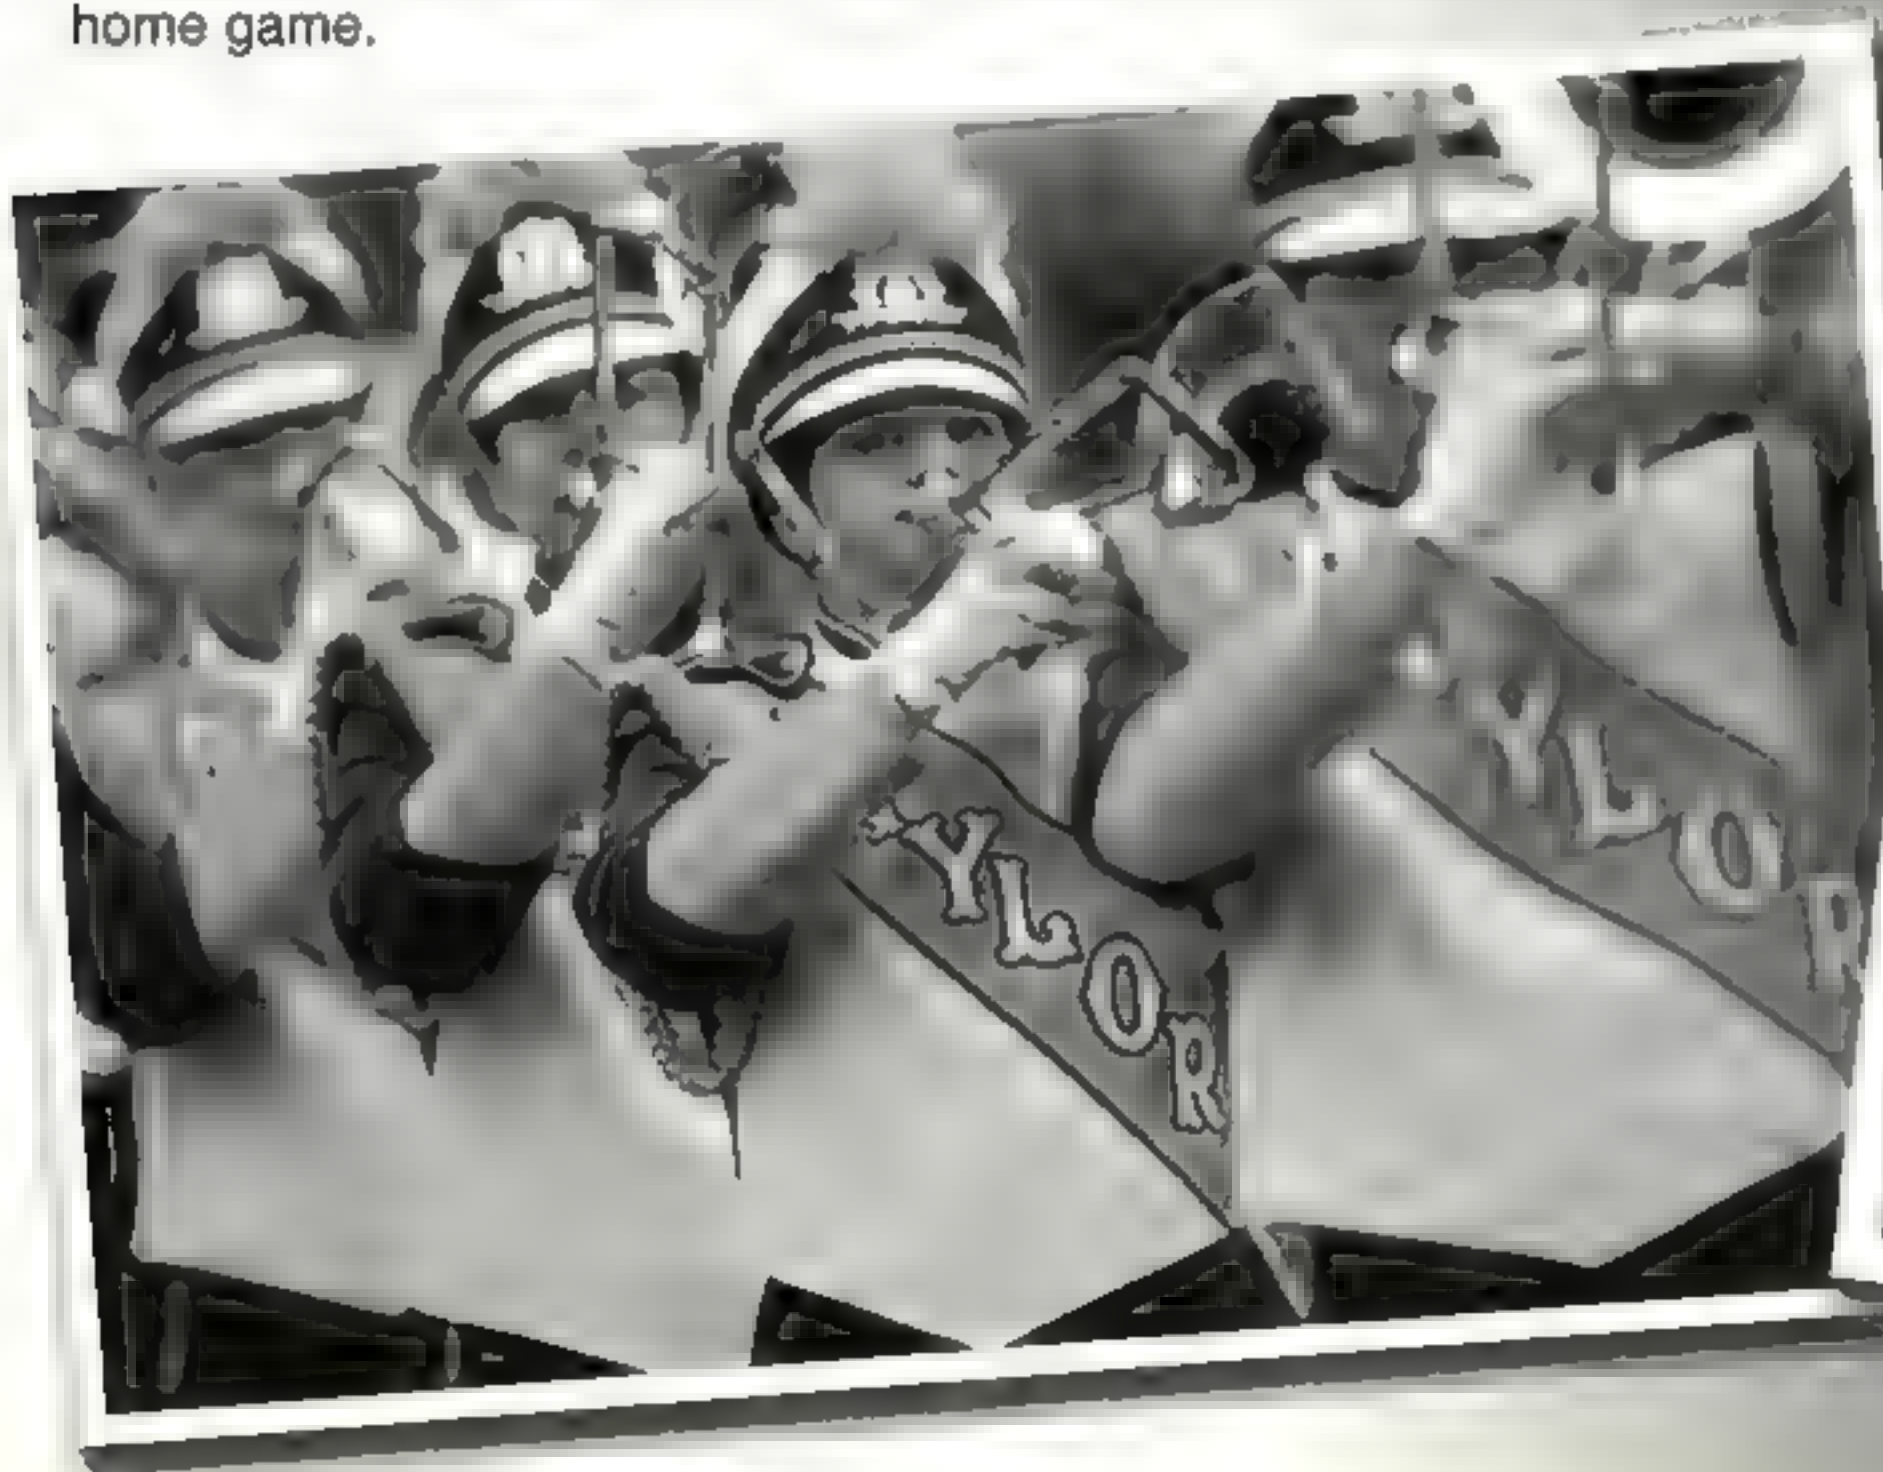

Others who died in the crash included Jack Castellaw, Sam Dillow, Merle Dudley, Ivey Foster Jr., Robert Hailey, Robert Hannah Jr., Willis Murray, James Walker and William Penn Winchester. These men have come to be known as Baylor's "Immortal Ten."

As a result of the tragedy, the first railroad crossing overpass in Texas was constructed at the Round Rock site.

Baylor remembers the story of the Immortal Ten each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. Baylor students and alumni are raising funds to have a statue honoring the Immortal Ten erected on campus.

BEAR BELL

The Bear Bell has become a symbol of pride and spirit for the University and accompanies the football team to every home game. It is owned and operated by Sigma Chi fraternity. The bell, which made its first appearance in 1972 during Baylor's game against the University of Georgia, cracked in 1973 but was replaced in 1975 with a 350-pound bell that rang at the Cotton Bowl when the Bears played Penn State. Caretakers of the bell choose a child sitting in the end zone to ring the bell during the fourth quarter of each home game.

XIII

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Through the Southwestern Bell B.U.I.L.D. program (Bears United in Life Development) Baylor athletes are involved in a variety of community service projects. Players visit hospitalized children in the Kidsville area at Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, hold H-E-B Kids 'n' Coaches Clinics for the Boys and Girls Clubs, read to elementary school students in the Bears 'n' Books program, and help mentor at-risk teenagers through the Waco Tribune-Herald Mentorship Program.

BAYLOR'S CHRISTIAN ATMOSPHERE

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty — a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor Youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men — Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane — won the award for their service in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and was one of the survivors of the bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students in 1927. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania, in 1943.

GRANT TEAFF

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl — Teaff's last game as a head coach — he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games. He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 all-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school; he was also fourth-ranked for SWC wins, third-ranked for SWC games coached, second-ranked for SWC seasons coached, sixth-ranked for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked for career wins among active coaches and 20th-ranked for winning percentage among active coaches.

He coached 12 postseason all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. The other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure at Baylor. He coached against giants such as Paul "Bear" Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Majors and Hayden Fry.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And Teaff is the organization's driving force.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 22-year stint as the head coach of the Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

In 2001, Teaff became the seventh former player or coach from Baylor to be selected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

DUAL-SPORT ATHLETES

Is he a football player who competes in track, or is he a track athlete who plays football? That's an often-asked question at Baylor because the Bear football and track programs have a long history of cooperation.

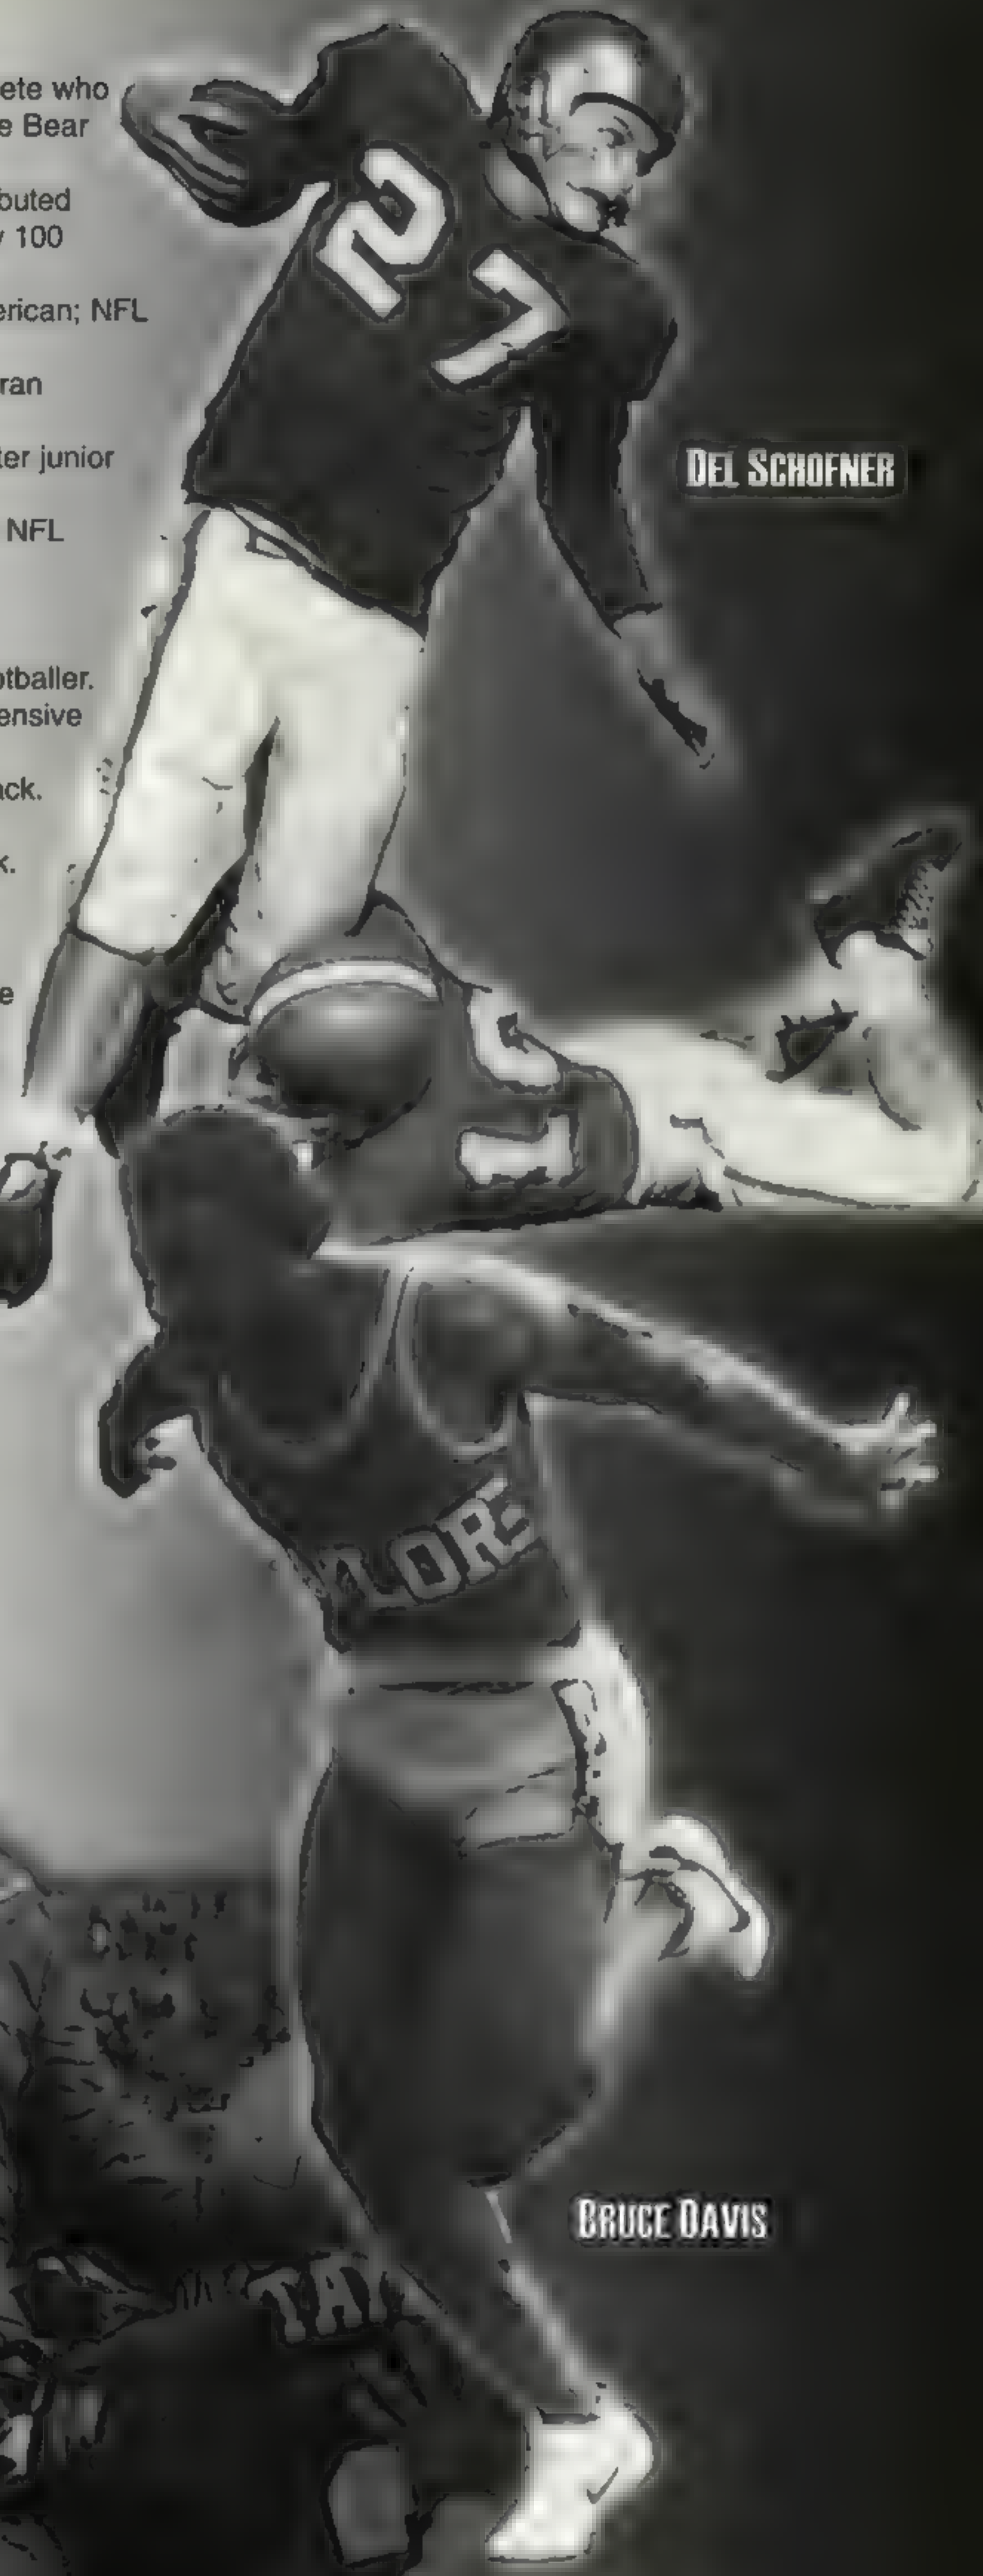

Throughout the years, men competing for both programs have contributed greatly to Baylor's nationally prominent track program. The list of nearly 100 former Bear greats who have competed in both sports includes:

- Reyna Thompson — high hurdle conference champion and all-American; NFL All-Pro football player.
- Johnny Thomas — eight-time track all-American; 12-year NFL veteran defensive back.
- Bruce Davis — conference 100-meter champion and indoor 60-meter junior world record holder; NFL wide receiver.
- Ricky Thompson — conference champion long jumper; seven-year NFL veteran.
- Gerald McNeil — all-America sprinter; NFL All-Pro kick returner.
- John Simpson — all-America sprinter; Liberty Bowl MVP receiver.
- Del Shofner — member of world-record relay team; NFL All-Pro footballer.
- Marvin Lewis — all-America shot putter (3rd in NCAA); starting defensive back.
- Mike Robins — conference champion hurdler; starting defensive back.
- Darnell Chase — eight-time all-American; football receiver.
- Davy Duncan — all-America hurdler (2nd in NCAA); defensive back.

MIKE SINGLETARY

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late '70s and early '80s. His Baylor statistics are still astounding: He holds records for most tackles in a career with 662 (second place is 370), most tackles in a season with 232 (the next closest is 144) and most tackles in a game with 33. Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 31 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. After Singletary made 30 tackles against Alabama, Coach Bear Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for Singletary to wear.

Singletary earned all-Southwest Conference honors four years. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference newcomer of the year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference defensive player of the year. Twice he won the Davey O'Brien Award as the best football player in the Southwest United States. He was named all-America three years and unanimous all-America two years. He was named to Baylor's all-decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s. He was Baylor's defensive player of the decade in the '80s and was named to Baylor's All-Half Century Football Team.

In 1990 he was inducted into the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame, in 1994 he was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame. In 1995 Singletary was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95. In 1996, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL defensive rookie of the year, and was honored as an All-Pro an amazing 10 times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Singletary graduated from Baylor in four years with a degree in business administration.

BAYLOR DEFENSIVE BACKS, A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Highlighted by 1986 Jim Thorpe winner Thomas Everett, Baylor athletes have attracted NFL teams seeking help in the defensive backfield.

COMMUNICATION LEGENDS

DAVE CAMPBELL

Texas Journalism Icon

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the prototype of regional sports publications across the nation. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.

Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

However, retirement did not last long. Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider Report, a publication of the Baylor Bear Foundation devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past president of the FWAA, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given the Baylor University Distinguished Alumnus Award. Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club.

Campbell has served as Southwest Sectional Director of the Heisman Trophy selection. He is a member of the Honors selection committee of the National Football Hall of Fame, and he also serves on the executive board and as the chairman of the selection committee for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. Campbell is a member of the board of directors for the Texas High School Football and Texas Football Hall of Fame, as well.

In August 1999, Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Escobedo, longtime friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 51 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

FRANK FALLON

"Voice of the Bears"

Best known as the "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Frank Fallon's face and voice are synonymous with Baylor Athletics.

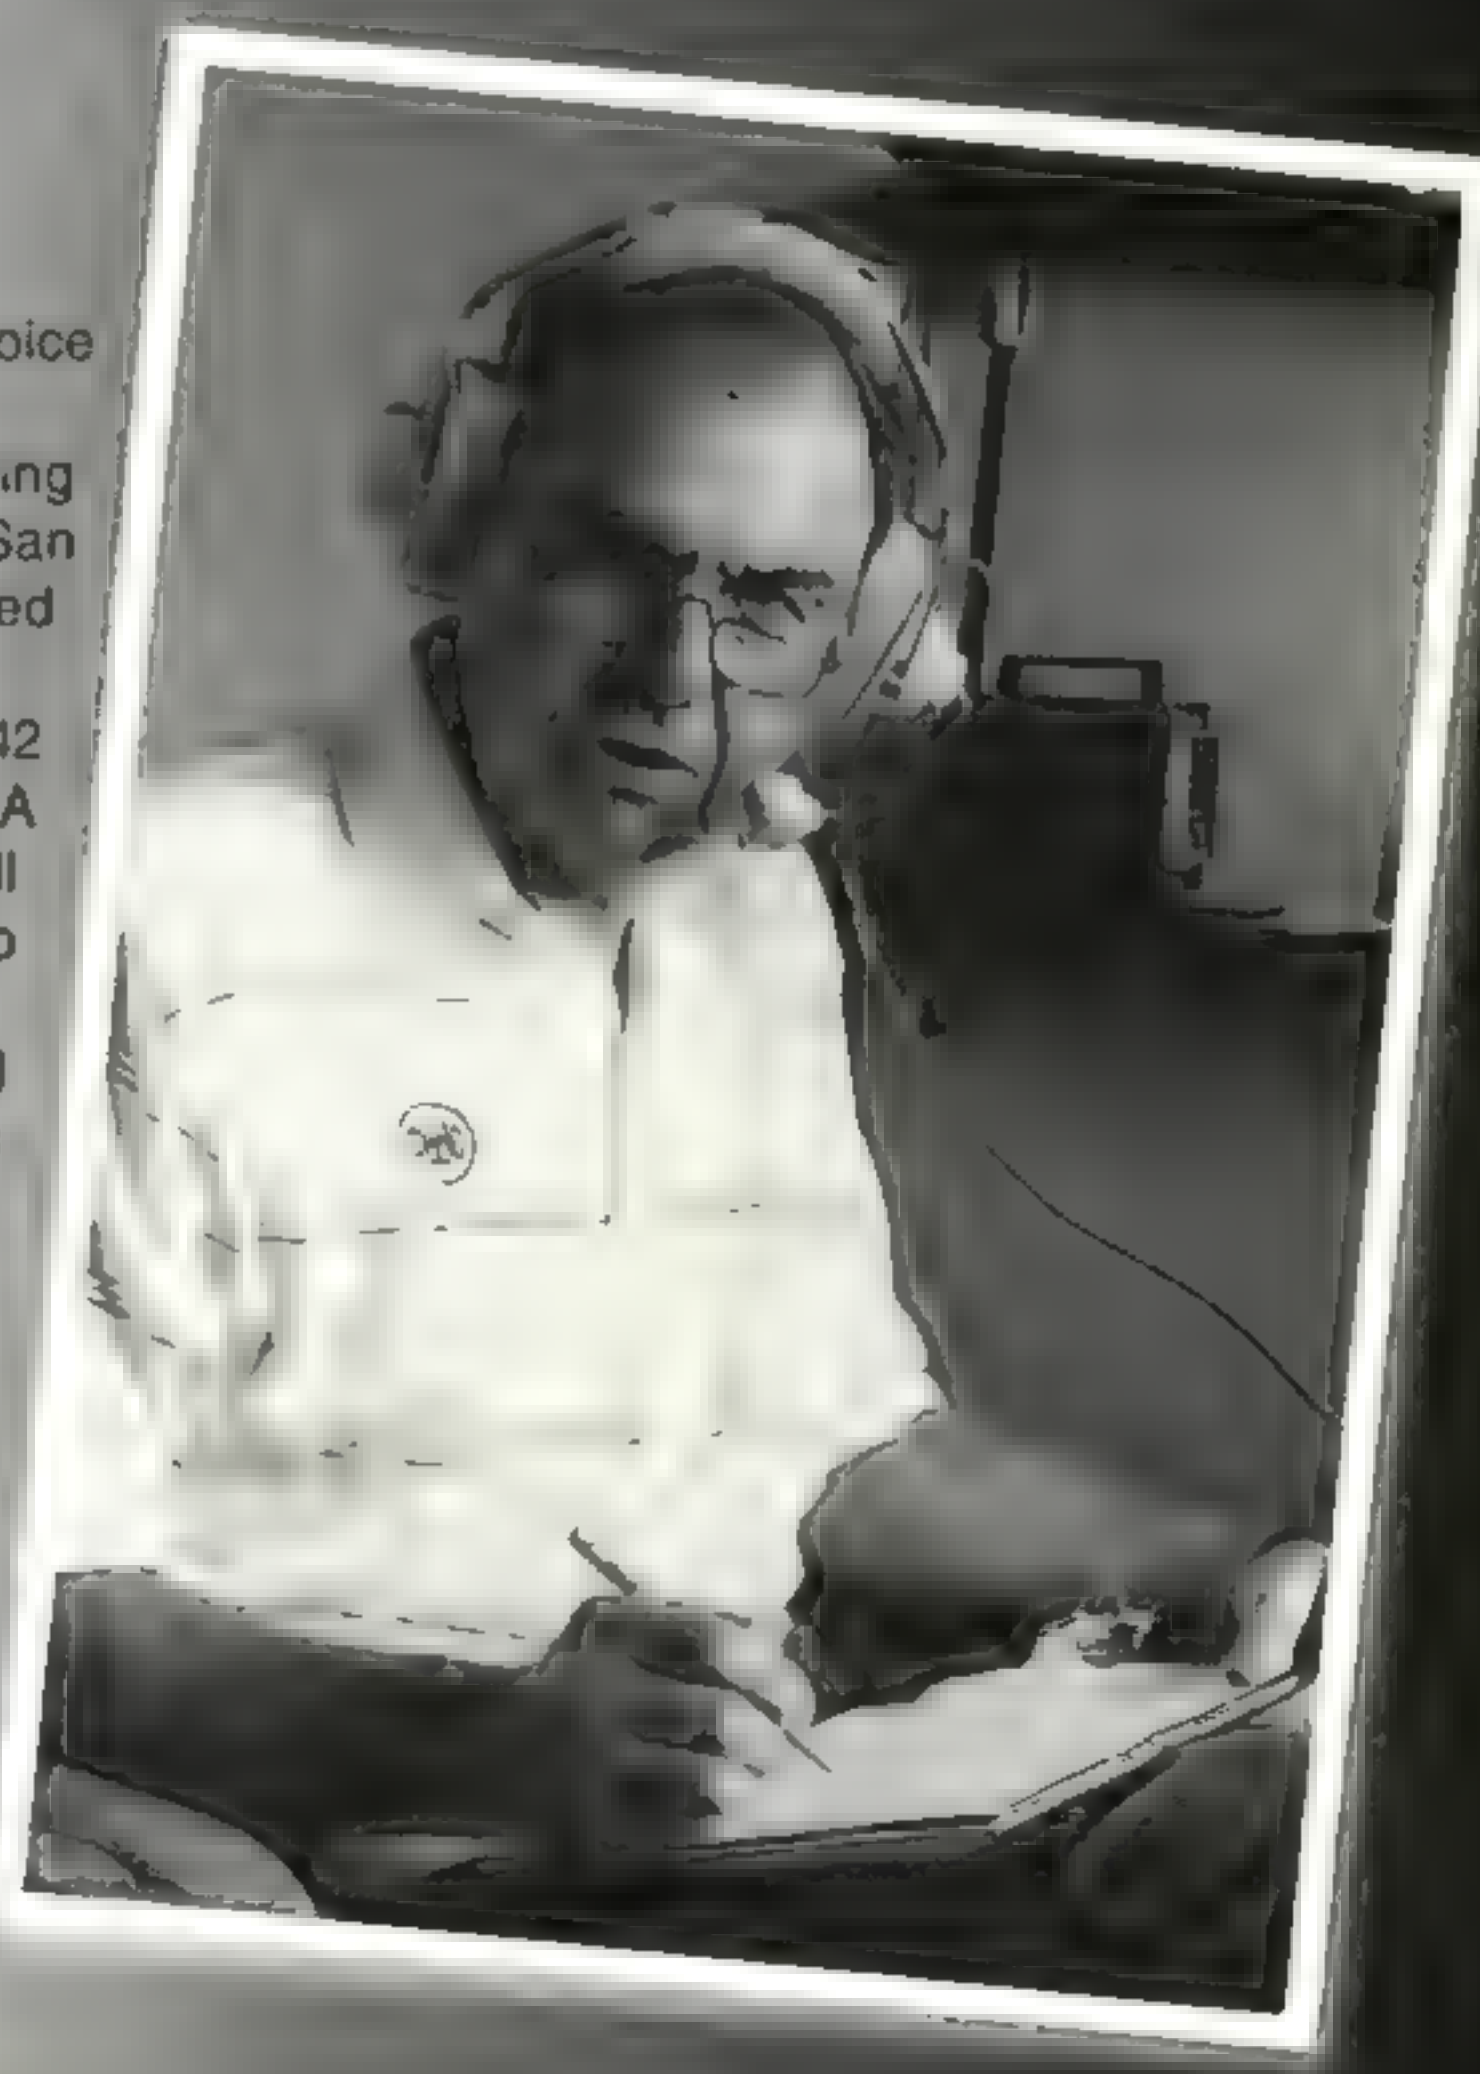

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. Fallon began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18. Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, he joined Waco's KWTX and had a 28-year association with the station.

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," and television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN. He was the general manager of KWTX radio station in Waco and coordinator of broadcast activities for Baylor from 1983-1994.

Currently a broadcast journalism professor at Baylor, Fallon has received many prestigious awards during his career. He has been honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times. Fallon is a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He has also been voted top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sportswriters Association.

In honor of Fallon, Waco's Chamber of Commerce annually sponsors the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award.

Fallon has been married for 50 years and has four children: Steve, Mark, Mike, and Kyle. He is a member of the Waco Lions Club and served in the Korean War.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS

The numbers tell a dramatic story of success for Baylor athletics. In the last five years, the Bears have seen their position in the Sears Directors' Cup standings improve from 125th in 1997 to consistent finishes near the top 50. Additionally, Baylor was ranked fifth in the 2000-01 Big 12 All-Sports Award.

In the last few years, Baylor athletic teams have made great strides toward achieving excellence. During the 2000-2001 school year, Baylor won Big 12 conference championships in men's golf, the fourth different sport to win a league title in the last three seasons. Of Baylor's 17 teams, nine saw NCAA postseason action, while men's basketball participated in the NIT. Baylor's NCAA appearances were highlighted by the men's track and field team's third-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, the women's basketball team's first-ever appearance in the NCAA and the women's tennis team advancing to the round of 16 for the first time.

GARY BAXTER was selected by the Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the NFL Draft.

High-flying TERRY BLACK helped the Bears soar with two wins over Top 10 teams and an NIT appearance.

STEVIE NICHOLAS earned Big 12 Conference and AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year honors.

Individually, Baylor had 16 different student-athletes representing six different sports earn all-America honors in 2000-2001. Baylor student-athletes once again excelled in the classroom in 2000-2001. Three Baylor student-athletes were named Academic all-American, including first-team recognition for softball's Naomi Fitzgerald.

In spite of the recent successes enjoyed by Baylor athletics, athletic director Tom Stanton is dedicated to the development of successful athletic programs and excellent student-athletes. Within the last three years, he has hired a group of coaches committed to furthering the success of Baylor athletics, including football coach Kevin Steele, men's basketball coach Dave Bliss, Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Kim Mulkey-Robertson and softball coach Glenn Moore.

Additionally, Baylor is committed to building first-class athletics facilities. Joining the Baylor Ballpark and Getteman Stadium as part of the Julie and Jim Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex is the new Baylor Tennis Center. Connecting those three venues, along with the Betty Lou Mays Soccer Complex, together is the Dutch Schroeder Plaza, a beautiful esplanade running through the center of the Turner Riverfront Complex. On-going and future capital projects include the completion of Bear Ridge Golf Course and the Bill and Roberta Bailey Baylor Golf Center, a new locker and meeting facility at the Hart-Patterson Track and Field Complex and construction of a new football locker and weight rooms.

All-American SHEILA LAMBERT guided Baylor to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

FOOTBALL

Under the direction of second-year head coach Kevin Steele — one of the nation's most-respected young coaches — Baylor continues to rebuild its proud football program.

Despite a rash of injuries to an already young squad in 2000, Steele continued to improve the Bears' abilities through recruiting while molding Baylor into a disciplined, energetic squad playing against one of the toughest schedules in America. Of Baylor's 11 opponents during the 2000 season, seven went on to participate in postseason bowls. Those seven return to the Bears' schedule in 2001.

VOLLEYBALL

With a 16-15 overall record, the Bears posted consecutive winning seasons for just the third time in school history. Baylor also tallied eight victories in the rugged Big 12 Conference, the second-highest conference win total in school history.

Individually, the season belonged to outside hitter Stevie Nicholas. The Fullerton, Calif., native was named first-team all-Big 12 after breaking or tying 21 school records and four conference records. At season's end, she was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year and AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year. Nicholas finished seventh nationally and first the Big 12 with a school-record 5.68 kills per game.

Junior setter Dana Chuha finished the year with a school-record 15.03 assists per game to lead the nation in assists for the second straight season. Chuha, who edged Disney Bronnenberg of Kansas State by two hundredths of a point for the title, becomes the first person to lead the NCAA in assists twice, let alone in consecutive seasons.

SOCCER

The Baylor soccer team ran off an eight-game undefeated streak and finished the season 10-6-3, 6-2-2 in the Big 12 in 2000. The team had strong senior leadership, led by goalkeeper Dawn Greathouse and forward Molly Cameron, but 10 freshmen also saw playing time during the year. Greathouse earned first-team all-Big 12 honors for the second time in her career, while Cameron was joined by sophomore defender Tamara Crawley on the all-Big 12 third team.

Leading the freshmen was defender Melissa Humke, who was named to the Big 12 all-newcomer team. Emily Fukuchi finished second on the team in scoring with six goals and was one of five freshmen to play in all 17 games (Humke, Fukuchi, Cookie Day, Erin Freeman and Ryan Lee). The combination of youth and maturity jelled in the second half of the season, winning a season-high four games in a row and going undefeated through the month of October.

CROSS COUNTRY

For the fourth consecutive season, Baylor was represented at the NCAA Cross Country Championships, this time by junior Kara Newton. After earning all-conference honors with a fifth-place finish at the 2000 Big 12 Championships, the Amarillo, Texas, native placed 63rd at the NCAAs. Newton finished sixth at the South Central Regional to earn a spot in the national championship race.

Baylor's men's team finished third at the NCAA South Central Regional, narrowly missing a berth in the NCAA Championships. The women's team, meanwhile, finished fourth at the regional.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Dave Bliss' rebuilding project at Baylor took another giant step forward during the 2000-2001 season, his second as head coach of the Bears. Baylor, projected to finish 11th in the Big 12 by the league's coaches and media, put together a 19-12 record and finished eighth in the conference with a 6-10 mark.

The season was highlighted by a 12-0 start, two wins over top-10 ranked opponents, a run to the Big 12 Tournament semifinals and the school's first postseason appearance in 11 seasons. Baylor fans will fondly remember departed seniors Terry Black and DeMarcus Minor, who led the Bears to a convincing 85-77 victory over then-No. 6 Kansas in the school's first-ever appearance on ESPN's Big Monday, and a shocking 62-49 upset of No. 7 Iowa State in the Big 12 Tournament in Kansas City.

Black was honored as a consensus first-team all-Big 12 selection, as well as being named the nation's 'Best Dunker' by The Sporting News. Minor was named to the all-Big 12 second team and selected to the 2001 Big 12 all-Tournament team.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

In her first season as head coach of the Lady Bears, Kim Mulkey-Robertson took a team that was 7-20 the previous season and guided them to a 21-9 record, a first-ever national ranking and the program's first NCAA Tournament berth.

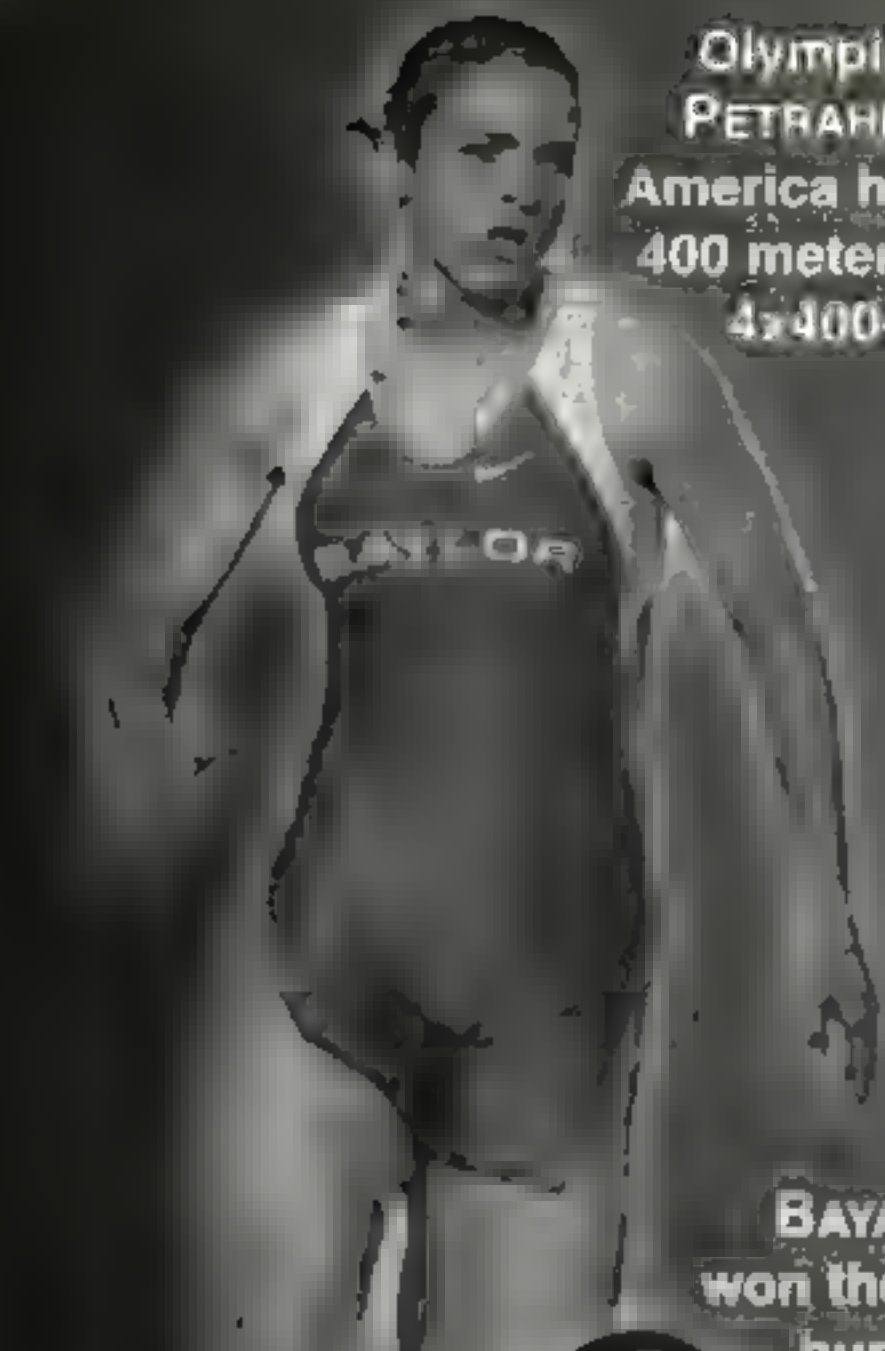

Under the guidance of Mulkey-Robertson and her staff, the Lady Bears streaked off to a school-record 13 straight victories to begin the season. This fast start saw the Lady Bears, for the first time since the NCAA began sponsoring women's basketball, break into the national rankings checking in at No. 23 in the AP Poll. In all, they reached as high as No. 20 in the polls during the season.

Olympian BARBARA PETRAHN earned all-America honors in the 400 meters and in the 4x400-meter relay.

BAYANO KAMANI won the 400-meter hurdles for the second time in three seasons.

All-American KELLY SHOPPACH was honored as the nation's best catcher, winning the Johnny Bench award.

Two players, Sheila Lambert and Danielle Crockrom, emerged as the Lady Bears' court leaders. The two combined to form the best scoring duo in the nation, with Lambert ranking No. 8 and Crockrom No. 14 nationally. Lambert was named consensus Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, first-team All-Big 12, one of 10 finalists for top point guard of the year honors and was named to several All-American squads.

Crockrom led the Big 12 in rebounding and finished the season as the third leading scorer in the Big 12. She also earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and was named to several All-American teams.

TRACK AND FIELD

On the strength of the 11th 4x400-meter relay national title in school history, Baylor's men's track and field team capped the outdoor season with a third-place finish at the NCAA Championships in Eugene, Ore. It marked the third time that the Bears had finished third at the national championships, the second-best finish of any team sport in Baylor history.

Bayano Kamani claimed his second national title in the 400-meter hurdles to become the first four-time outdoor national champion in school history. Kamani joined Zsolt Szeglet, Floyd Thompson and Brandon Coutts on the winning 4x400-meter relay team.

Baylor's women's team tied for 21st at the outdoor championships, marking the fourth consecutive season in which the Bears have finished in the top 25. During the indoor season, Kamani placed third in the 400 meters and the 4x400-meter relay team was second as the Baylor men tied for 14th at the NCAA Championships.

"Quarter-Mile U." continued to dominate the conference in the 400 meters. The Baylor men took the top four spots in the event at the Big 12 indoor meet, and then claimed the top three spots at the outdoor meet. On the women's side, Barbara Petrahn won the Big 12 outdoor title in the 400 meters.

BASEBALL

With excellent pitching for most of the season and all-America catcher Kelly Shoppach behind the plate, the Baylor baseball team raced to a 37-24 record and received a fourth consecutive NCAA regional tournament bid in 2001. The Bears, who remained in the top 25 of the national rankings for much of the season, won seven-of-nine Big 12 conference series and finished fourth in the league with a 17-10 record.

In the NCAA Houston regional, Baylor mounted one of the biggest comebacks in school history, scoring 11 runs in the last two innings to erase a 9-0 deficit and post a crucial 11-10 victory over Rice.

Shoppach emerged as one of the premier catchers in all of college baseball and was named the Big 12 Player of the Year by a vote of the league's coaches. The first-team all-American was also awarded the Johnny Bench Award. Centerfielder Chris Durbin and pitcher Steven White were also named to the all-Big 12 team, while senior pitcher Josh Scott capped off his Baylor career with the school record for games started with 50.

SOFTBALL

Glenn Moore, in his first season guiding the Baylor softball team, immediately vaulted the program to national prominence. Behind the team's school-record 11-game winning streak, Baylor spent seven weeks ranked in the top 25, checking as high as No. 19.

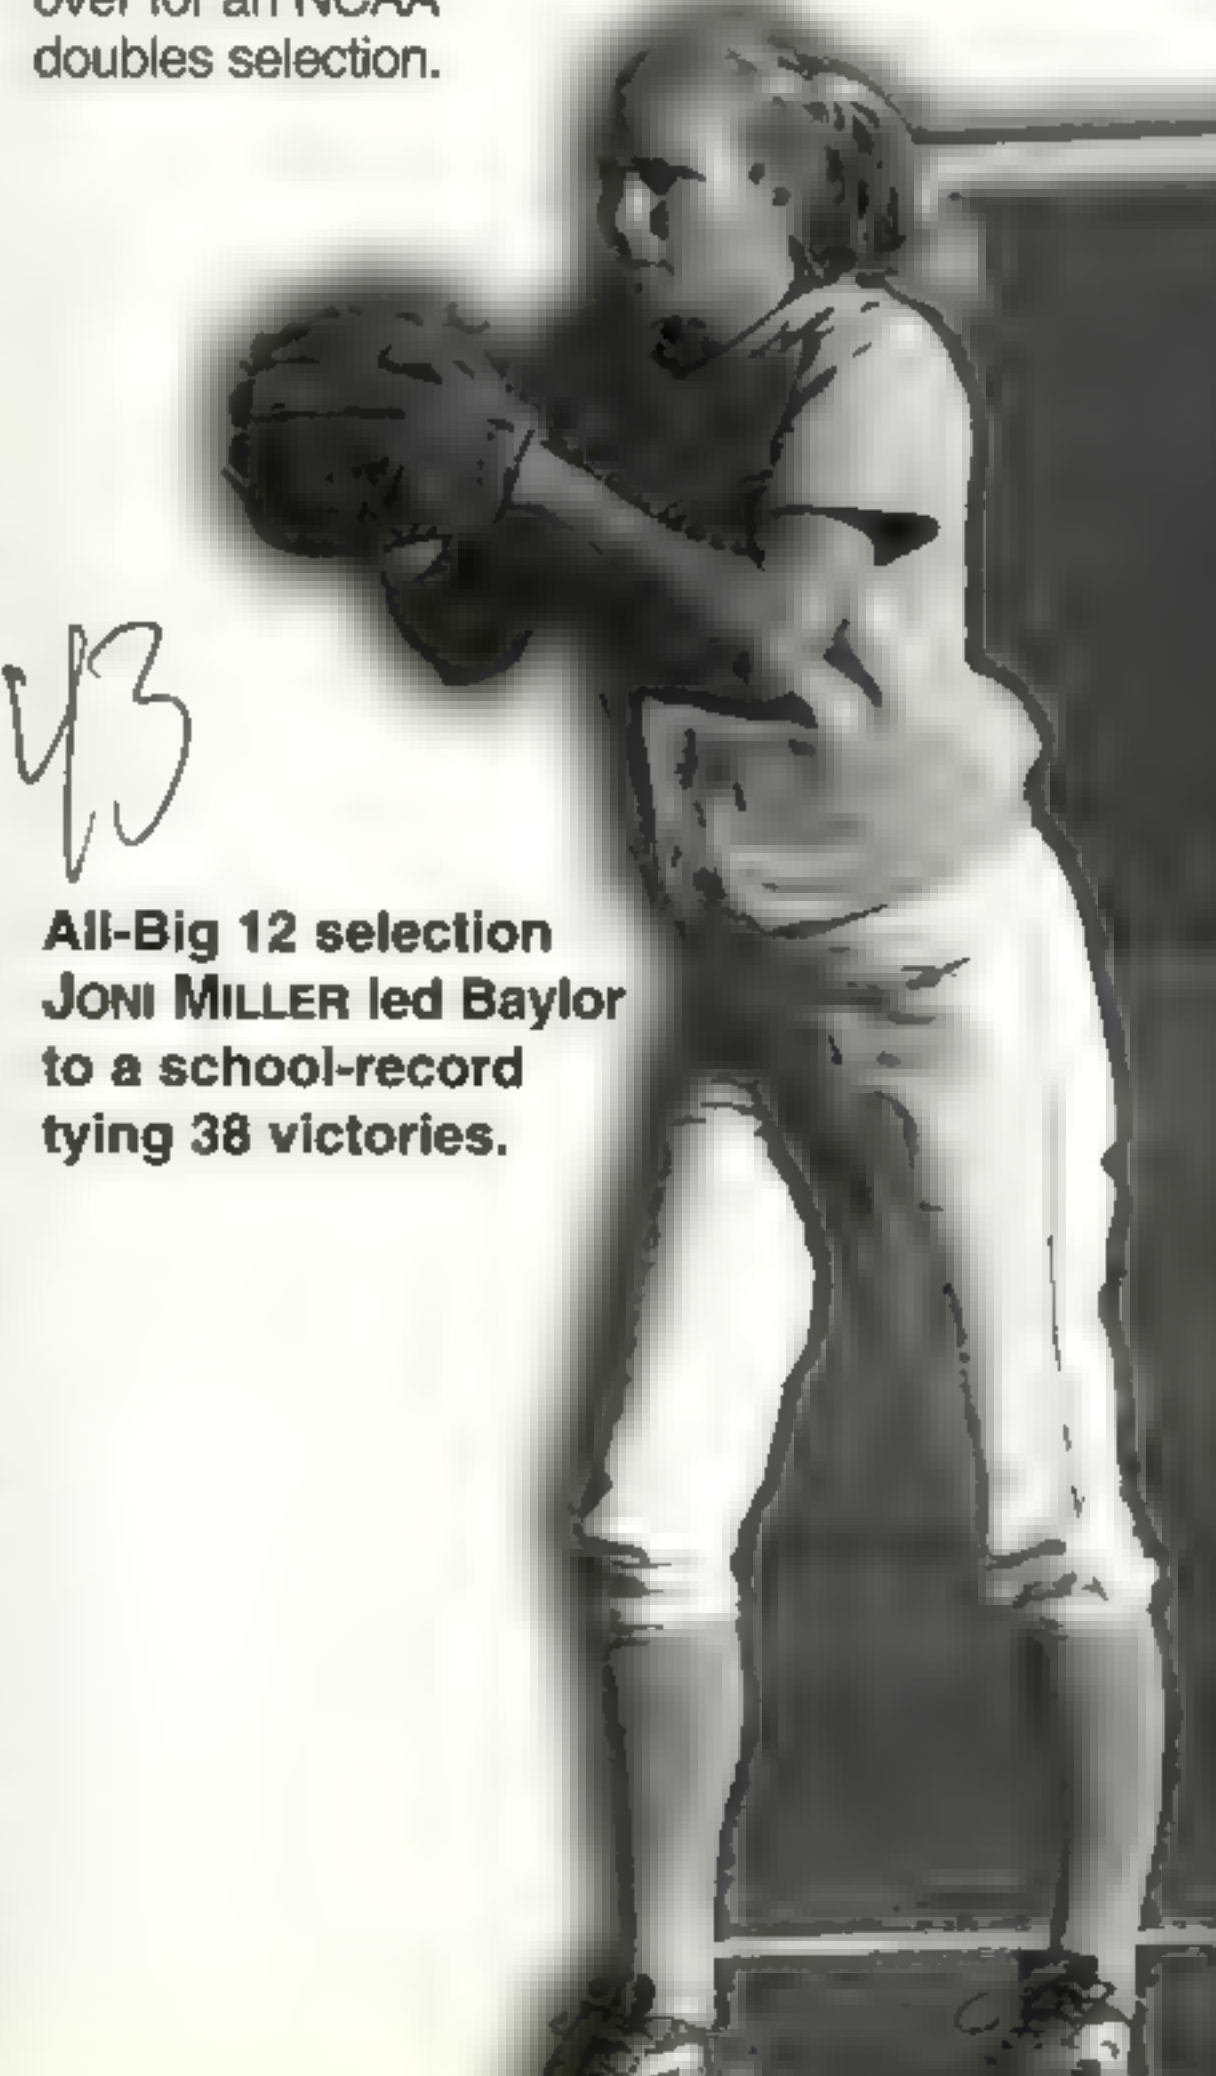

The Lady Bears, behind the pitching of sophomore right hander Joni Miller and the hitting of Ryan Stukel, Naomi Fitzgerald and Stacey Hundley, tied the program's record for most victories with a 38-22 season mark. In addition, Baylor posted its highest conference finish ever, ending the season in sixth place.

Sophomore second baseman Stacey Hundley earned first-team All-Big 12 honors while Miller, Fitzgerald and Stukel were named to the second team. Hundley and Fitzgerald, a senior center fielder, received first-team All-Midwest Region honors while Miller and Stukel, a junior catcher, were named to the second team. Fitzgerald ultimately got her second straight first-team Academic all-America selection and Stukel hauled in second-team kudos.

MEN'S TENNIS

After losing four of six starters from their Big 12 Championship team of 2000, the 2001 edition of the Baylor men's tennis team struggled to mix youth and seniority while looking for stability in the lineup.

The Bears finished second in the Big 12 and earned a final national ranking 30th after losing in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Baylor's top doubles team of Reiner Neurohr and Mark Williams finished the season ranked 27th in the country, but the duo was passed over for an NCAA doubles selection.

All-Big 12 selection JONI MILLER led Baylor to a school-record tying 38 victories.

Senior Mark Williams set school records for career singles and career doubles wins, and was also honored by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association as the Region VI Arthur Ashe Award winner and as the region's nominee for the national Rafael Osuna Award. Both awards honor the player who best represents sportsmanship and leadership. Reiner Neurohr was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year, giving Baylor back-to-back rookies of the year (Zoltan Papp won the award in 2000).

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Head coach Dave Luedtke's 14th season at the helm of the Bears was a season of firsts and records for the Baylor women. The team earned the highest ranking in program history earlier this season at No. 13, a rank the team held for three weeks. The Bears earned a No. 15 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the first time the team has received a top-16 seed. Topping it all off, the team ended the season ranked 18th in the nation, the squad's highest final ranking in history.

The university debuted the new Baylor Tennis Center in late April by hosting the Big 12 Tennis Championships for the first time. The women followed that by hosting an NCAA regional championship two weeks later -- the first time the program had played host. The Bears took advantage of playing at home to sweep through the first two round and earn the team's first-ever trip to the NCAA round of 16.

Junior Katja Kovac broke the school record for career singles wins and finished her third season at Baylor with 99 victories. Kovac and Jahnavi Parekh each earned selections to the NCAA Singles Championships; as a pair, the two were selected for the NCAA doubles tournament. The duo progressed to the semifinals of the tournament before losing to the No. 2-ranked team in the country. Along the way, they each earned all-America status; Parekh's honor was the second of her career, making her the first two-time all-American in Baylor women's tennis history.

MEN'S GOLF

Fifth-year head coach Tim Hobby has molded the Baylor men's golf program into one of the nation's finest, and the Bears' performance in the 2000-2001 season is a perfect example. The Bears compiled eight top-five finishes in the regular season before turning the heads of all golf fans by winning the Big 12 title. Baylor won the 2001 Big 12 Championship in Hutchison, Kan., by an impressive 10 strokes.

Additionally, senior Worth Williams earned the individual title at the Big 12 Championship by an eight-stroke margin. Williams and fellow senior Jimmy Walker were named to the 2001 All-Big 12 team, and Coach Hobby was named the 2001 Big 12 Coach of the Year.

The Bears, who have made four-straight NCAA Regional appearances under Hobby, posted top-five team finishes in nine of 13 tournaments in the 2000-2001 season, including titles at the Missouri Invitational, the Udamon Southwest Classic and the Big 12 Championships. Additionally, 13 top-10 finishes were recorded by Bear student-athletes, including three individual medallist honors.

WOMEN'S GOLF

After two consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, Baylor is well on its way to earning its place among the nation's elite women's golf programs.

Under the guidance of 2000 Big 12 Coach of the Year Sylvia Ferdon, the Bears placed among the top eight in 11 of 12 tournaments this season, including seven top-five team finishes. Baylor won the team title at the Michigan Fall Invitational in September. Individually, Bear student-athletes have earned 11 top-10 finishes in 2000-2001.

Sophomore Melanie Hagewood, who finished with a team-low 77.0 stroke average, was named to the all-Big 12 second team. Hagewood was also honored for her academic excellence, earning 2001 Verizon Academic All-District VI and receiving the LPGA Foundation's 2001 Dinah Shore Trophy Award for her outstanding achievements in academics, leadership, community service and golf.

JIMMY WALKER and the Bears won the 2001 Big 12 Men's Golf Championship.

TARA BAYEMAN helped Baylor finish in the top eight at 11 of 12 tournaments.

Along with doubles partner Jahnavi Parekh, KATJA KOVAC reached the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament.

REINER NEUROHR became the second straight Bear to be selected Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

FLOYD CASEY

Beautiful Floyd Casey Stadium is home to the Baylor Bears football team. The stadium is continually upgraded to give Baylor a facility necessary to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

Stadium renovations have been constant recently at Floyd Casey. The latest work done at the 51-year-old structure is newly renovated team areas, including expanded locker, weight and training facilities. The new locker room is over 8,000 square feet in size and contain 130 pro-style wood lockers. Three large skylights provide natural lighting in the spacious middle of the room. The new team areas were completed in time for the 2001 season.

Construction crews have been busy on other parts of the stadium as well. The Grant Teaff Plaza, which will greet visitors to the stadium's west side and is named in honor of Baylor's 2001 College Football Hall of Fame inductee, was also installed in summer 2001. In 1999, a state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure was constructed on the West side. In 1998, the a new playing surface was installed. SportGrass, the world's finest natural grass, was added. In 1995 the entire façade was sandblasted and painted. In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

Located in the stadium's north endzone, the Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Center now houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio, and meeting room facilities.

The state-of-the-art facility was opened in 1991. Other renovation projects continue as the stadium enters its 51st year of service to Baylor. After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey. The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 50,000-seat stadium was September 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was November 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. The largest crowd to see at home was the 1995 A&M game when 51,218 fans jammed the stadium to watch the Aggies top the Bears 24-9.

Many improvements and additions have been made to the stadium over the years.

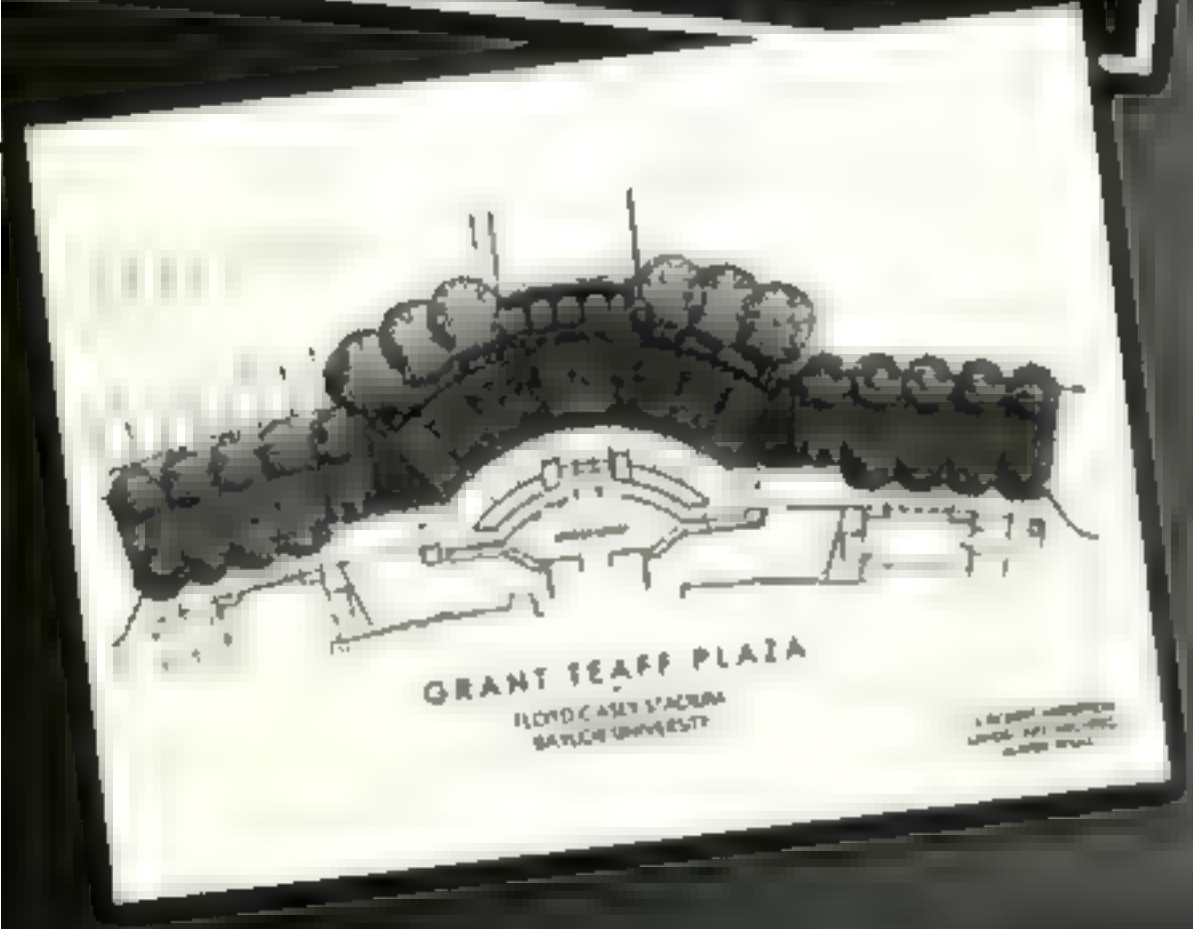

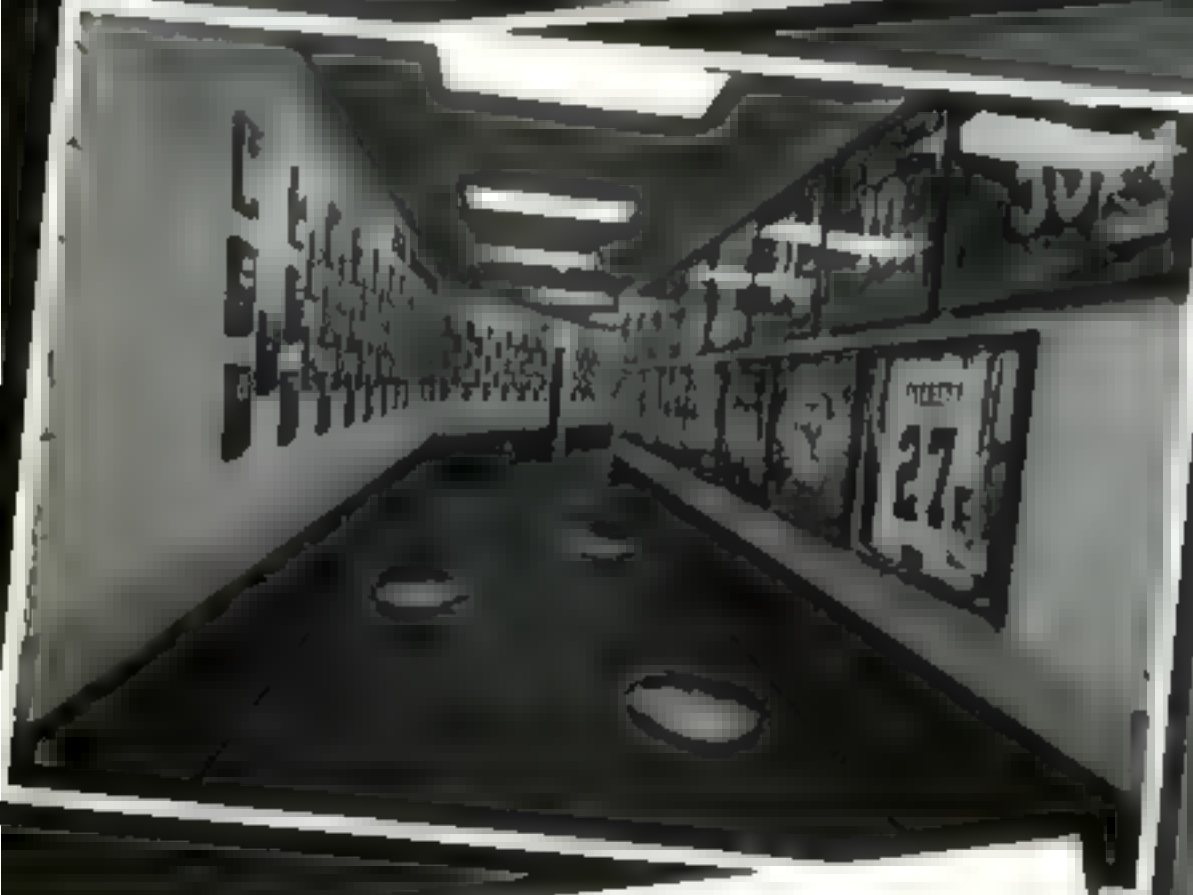

From 1972 to 1997, the Bears played on an AstroTurf surface at Floyd Stadium. During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received a facelift in 1995.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher was finished in 1981. Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility. An unknown number of games were played at the old Cotton Palace during this period.

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home. Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where BU played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

Through 98 years Baylor has compiled a record of 302-183-28 at its various home playing fields.

BAYLOR

Baylor Ballpark

Opened: Feb. 26, 1989

Capacity: 4,100

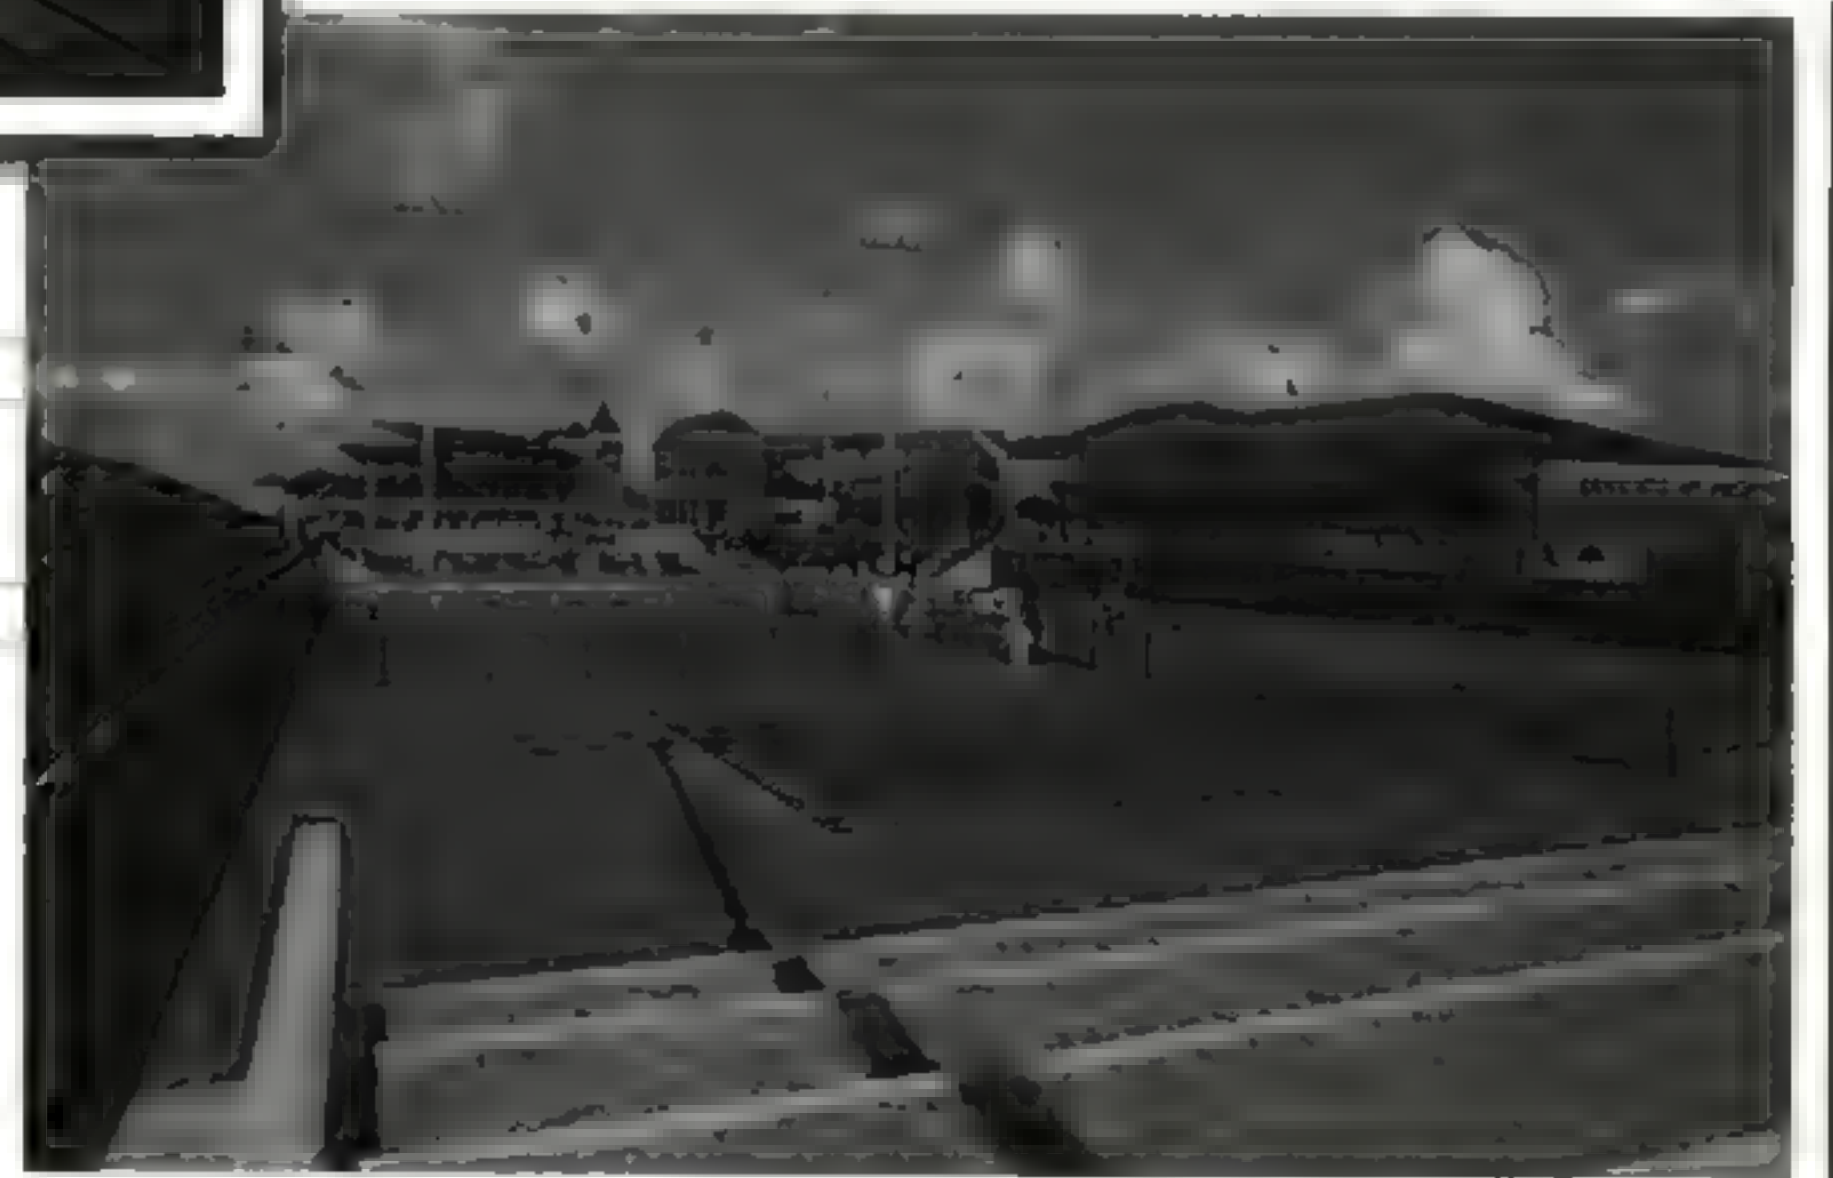

After much anticipation, the Baylor Ballpark was completed for the 2000 season and is one of the nation's finest collegiate baseball facilities. Baylor Ballpark is a beautiful facility constructed of red brick and exposed green steel beams, which complement the attractive architecture already found on the Baylor campus. The stadium was designed to ensure outstanding sightlines and comfort for fans, as well as meet the needs of the country's finest college baseball players.

Baylor Tennis Center

Opened: April 24, 2001

Capacity: 1,200

One of the finest collegiate tennis facilities in the nation, the 1,200-seat Baylor Tennis Center opened just in time for Baylor to host the 2001 Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis Championships. The main part of the facility features six outdoor courts with grandstand seating plus three indoor courts. Also completed in the spring of 2001 was an adjacent clubhouse, which houses locker rooms, meeting rooms and coaches offices for tennis and softball.

Hart-Patterson Track & Field Complex

Opened: Spring 1960

Capacity: 5,000

After $1 million worth of renovations done to the facility, making it one of the nation's finest collegiate track and field complexes, Baylor's Hart-Patterson Track Complex hosted the inaugural Big 12 Conference Outdoor Championships in 1997. Named for two legendary Baylor track coaches, Jack Patterson and Clyde Hart, it has hosted six conference championship meets, including the 1999 Big 12 Championships. The facility is annually the site of the Dr Pepper Invitational and the Michael Johnson Classic, two of the premiere outdoor collegiate meets in the Southwest.

Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field

Opened: Sept. 3, 1999

Capacity: 3,000

The 2001 season will mark the third year for the Baylor soccer team at the newly renamed Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field. The former Baylor Soccer Stadium was retitled during the 2000 season in honor of the late Betty Lou Mays of Amarillo, Texas. Mrs. Mays was the wife of Tom Mays, a 1945 graduate of Baylor; the two were longtime supporters of Baylor athletics.

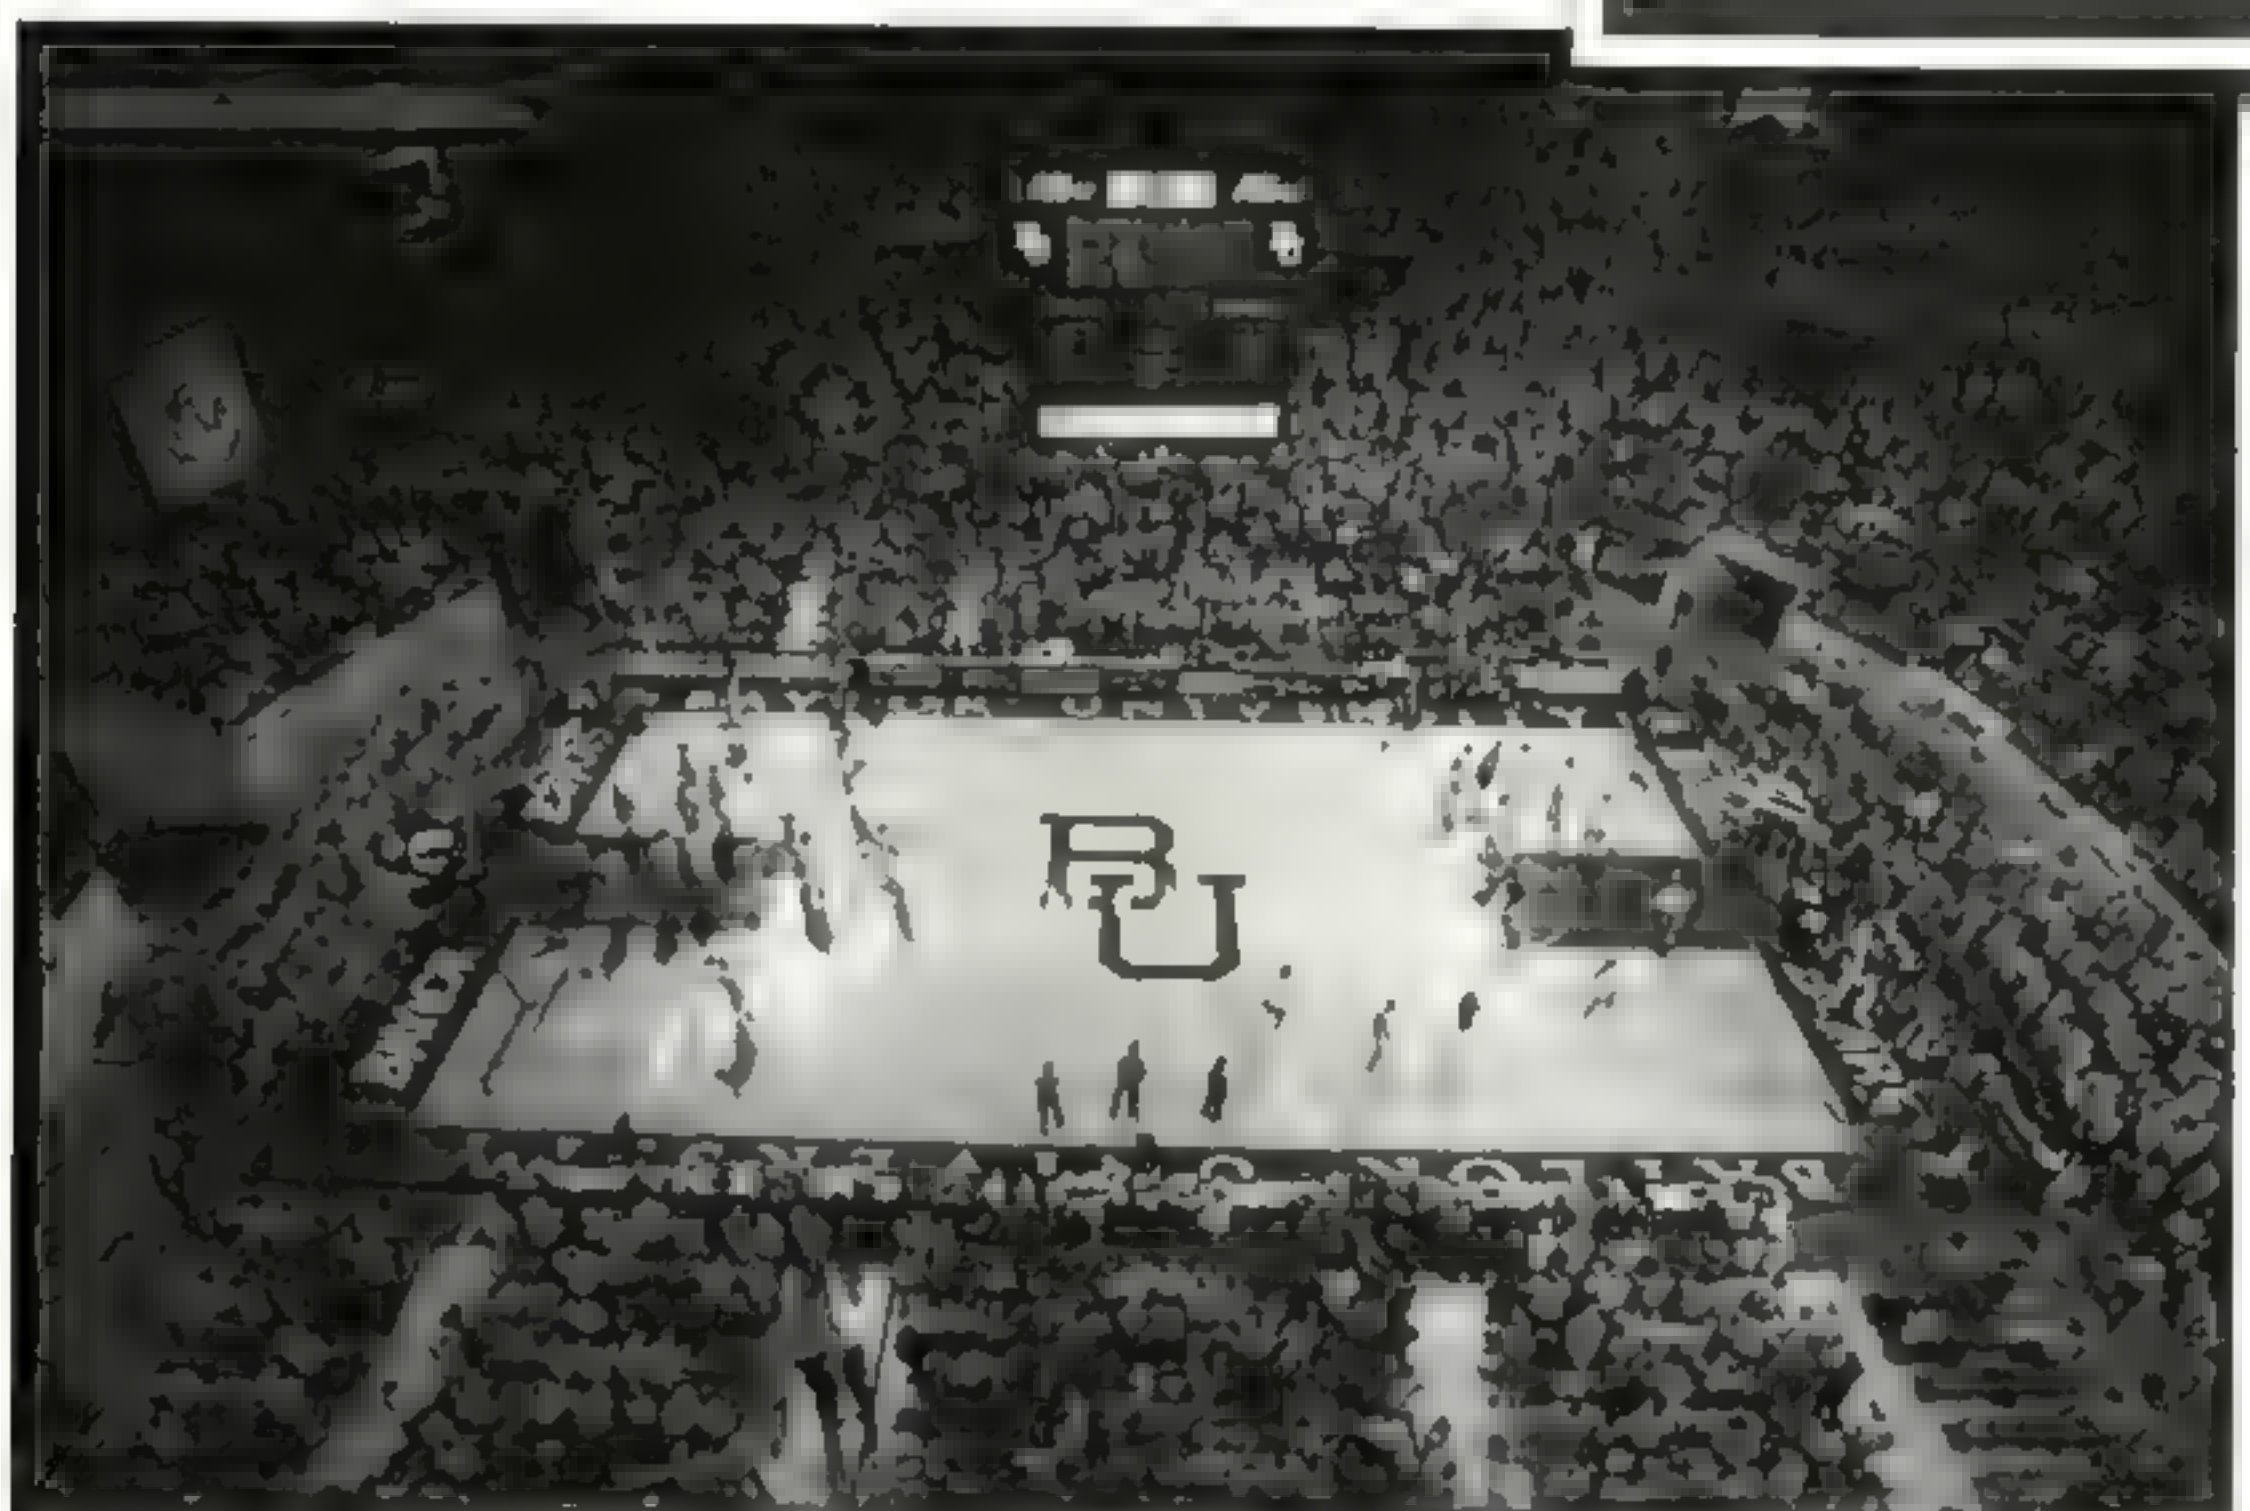

FACILITIES

Gettnerman Stadium

Opened: May 1, 1988

Capacity: 1,230

One of the finest and newest softball stadiums in the nation, Gettnerman Stadium recognizes the largest single donation ever to Baylor women's athletics. Named for former Waco mayor Ted Gettnerman and his wife Sue, the stadium features 430 chairback seats and 800 bleacher seats, most of which are covered. It also boasts a state-of-the-art press box with two radio booths, a control room, a VIP booth with theatre seating, a television booth, a two-level press room and two restrooms. Coaches offices and spacious locker rooms are located in the adjacent tennis clubhouse.

Ferrell Center

Opened: Nov. 28, 1988

Capacity: 10,284 (basketball), 6,000 (volleyball)

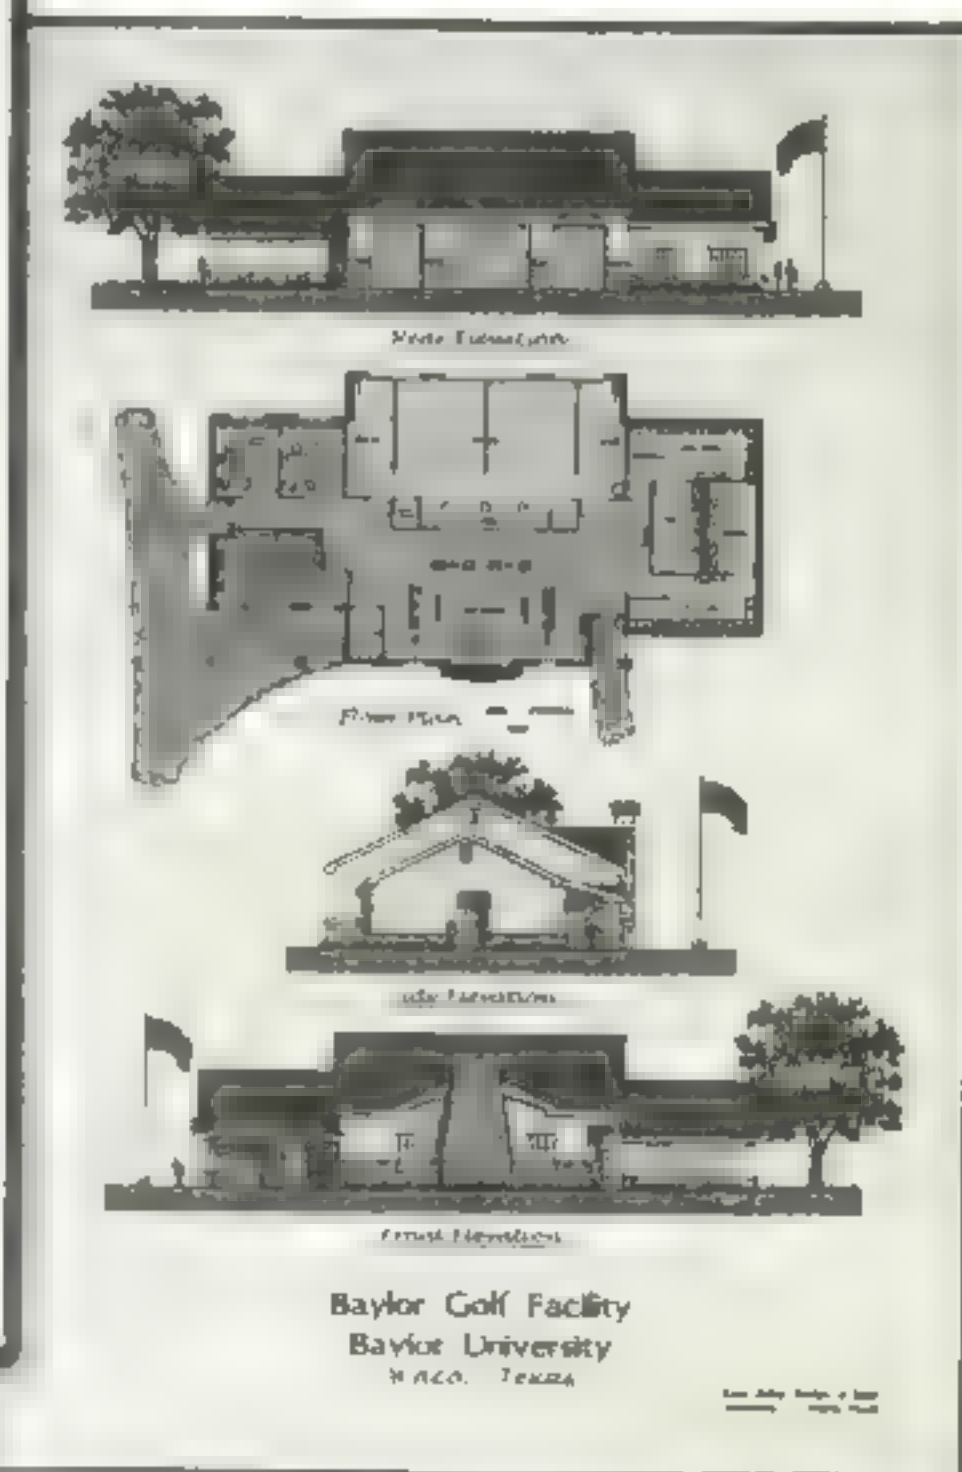

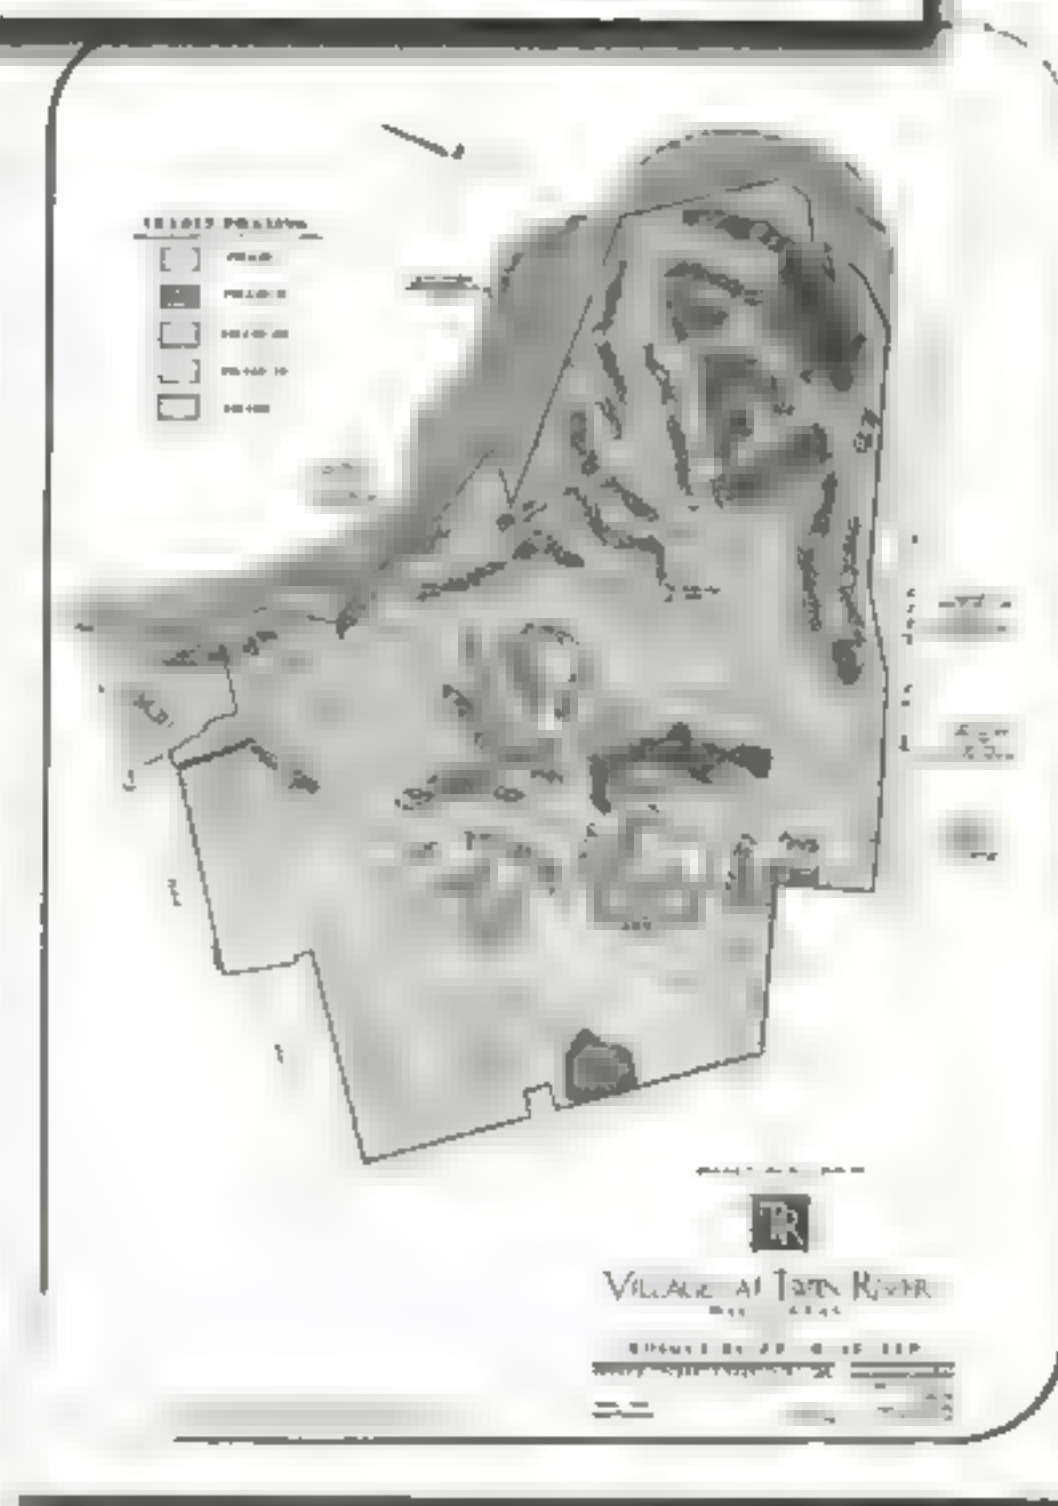

Home to Baylor's basketball and volleyball teams, the Ferrell Center seats 10,284 for basketball and 6,000 for volleyball. A major portion of the funding for the facility, which houses the Meyer Sr. court, was provided by the estate of the late Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Ferrell of Houston, Texas, in memory of their son Charles Monroe Ferrell, who died in 1967 while attending Baylor. Major renovations have been staged over the past few years, including refurbished locker rooms, new coaches offices, an upgraded weight training facility and a re-finished playing surface. The picture to the left shows the scene of Baylor fans that invaded the court following the Bears' Feb. 12, 2001 85-77 upset victory over then-No. 6 Kansas.

Bear Ridge Golf Course

Bill & Roberta Bailey Baylor Golf Center

Scheduled to Open: October 2001

Groundbreaking took place in early January on an 18-hole public golf course that the Baylor men's and women's golf teams will call home. Bear Ridge will be built on 205 acres near the intersection of Highway 84 and Speegleville Road in southwest Waco. A central feature to the course will be a clubhouse built specifically for the Baylor teams with locker rooms for each team, space for team meetings and coaches offices. One highlight of the facility will be an indoor practice area with state-of-the-art video equipment, which will be available for coaches and players together to analyze the players' swings. The course is part of the new Villages at Twin Rivers, a 255-acre planned unit development of Bosque River Chase Ltd. The course was designed by Jim Hardy and Peter Jacobsen of Jacobsen Hardy Golf Course Design (JHGCD).

The Department of Academic Development Services for Student-Athletes has overall responsibility for the ACADEMIC WELFARE of both scholarship (255) and non-scholarship (121) student-athletes, plus support students (75), such as managers, trainers, strength, video, etc.

During the academic year 2000-2001, 325 Baylor student-athletes were named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. A total of 71 were named to the Academic all-Big 12 teams; 10 were football players; five were selected as Verizon Academic all-Americans. For the year, 40 percent of all student-athletes had a 3.0 grade point average or higher, with 30 student-athletes having 4.0 grade point average.

In 2000, Baylor led the Big 12 Conference in graduation rate for student-athletes, male student-athletes, and football student-athletes. The 74 percent graduation rate for all student-athletes was seven percent higher than the all Baylor student graduation rate of 67 percent. Since the fall of 1996, 232 student-athletes have graduated, which includes 83 football players. In the December 2000 and May 2001 commencement ceremonies, 48 have graduated.

GRADUATION IS THE ULTIMATE MEASURE OF SUCCESS OF ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT SERVICES FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES.

The Department of Academic Development Services for Student-Athletes:

Monitors:

- Academic progress
- Class attendance
- Class scheduling
- NCAA rules to insure academic eligibility each semester

Has responsibility for:

- Study hall attendance
- Tutors
- Academic counseling
- A computer lab with 24 computers
- Issue of textbooks to scholarship student-athletes

AFCA HONORS

Baylor's football program consistently ranks among the nation's best for its football graduation rate. In 2000, for the fourth time in five years, the American Football Coaches Association recognized Baylor for graduating more than 70 percent of its football players. Baylor was one of only 30 schools honored in 2001 and one of only three schools from the Big 12.

Operates the Neill Morris Learning Center 71 hours per week specifically for student-athletes to study, get tutor assistance, and work on their assignments in the computer lab.

Conducts the NCAA sponsored Challenging Athletic Minds for Personal Success (CHAMPS)/Life Skills program, which assist student-athletes in adjusting to college and subsequently to life after sports.

153 BAYLOR STUDENT-ATHLETES SELECTED

A total of 153 Baylor student-athletes were selected to the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll during the spring 2001 semester. Of these, 17 achieved perfect 4.0 grade point averages in the spring. Acknowledging all student-athletes, the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll is an inclusive honor for all varsity sports sponsored by the membership of the league. The Honor Roll is recorded and released each semester and recognized those student-athletes who registered a 3.0 or better grade point average the previous semester. Below is a listing of all non-football Baylor student-athletes on the honor roll. The football players so honored are listed above to the right. Football players that also run track are listed in both areas.

Entering his third year as Baylor's football coach, Kevin Steele takes a look around and sees progress.

"We're very pleased with the type of young men we have in the program. Their work ethic and ability to compete at this level is what we are hoping for.

"This football team can and will step up and be a very competitive, successful program in the Big 12. We have been chipping away at the building process and we're at a point where this group of guys will make a huge step in the right direction."

In addition to the work being done on the field, quite a bit of work has gone on off the field during the off-season. A new team area, featuring expanded locker, weight and training rooms, are ready for the 2001 season.

"Some things have taken place in the physical plant that are very positive. Our weight room has been expanded and remodeled and is a very impressive facility. Our new state-of-the-art training room with the whirlpool system and rehab center is likewise impressive. Of course, the new locker room is over 8,000 square feet and has a pro-style feel to it. It's an open-air concept with natural lighting. The overall facility is second-to-none."

OFFENSE

"Things never stay the same: you either get better or get worse. We're at the point offensively where we need to improve vastly. We certainly have the capabilities to do that, but we have to make sure that we're putting our players in a position to do what they do well and keep them away from things they don't do so well. Playing on our strengths will be the key to our offense in 2001. This offense has to be a playmaker's offense.

I'm not real big on wholesale changes. But you can create things with formations and offensive sets that will give you an advantage even if the actual plays don't change."

QUARTERBACKS

A combination of inexperience and injury disrupted the Baylor quarterback position last season. After leading the Bears to a 20-7 win over North Texas in the season opener, junior college transfer Greg Cicero (6-4, 213, Jr.) broke his collarbone in the first quarter of the second game and was lost for the season. Four quarterbacks filled in during last year, including three different starters.

Cicero was back at full speed in the spring and enters the fall as the Bears' leader under center. His primary backup will be Josh Zachry (6-3, 183, So.), a former walk-on who played well while starting the final two contests of 2000.

"Josh finished the season as our starter and was very productive. He put up good numbers and showed a toughness and an accuracy in his throwing that makes us feel very comfortable about him," Steele said.

Redshirt freshman Aaron Karas (6-2, 195, RFr.) ranks third on the depth chart, while Kerry Dixon (6-1, 190, So.) and Guy Tomcheck (6-4, 227, So.), both of whom started games in 2000, round out the position.

"Aaron had a very productive spring and has a lot of talent, but he's still young."

RUNNING BACKS

At tailback, Chedrick Ricks (5-8, 200, Jr.) and Jonathan Golden (6-0, 208, So.) split time during the spring, with the Ricks having a slight edge on the depth chart.

"We've been pleased with the growth and maturity of both Golden and Ricks. They have found their niche in this offense and should be very productive. Both are very talented, very tough and very talented individuals."

Fullback appears set with Melvin Barnett (6-0, 243, Sr.) as the starter.

"Melvin is coming off his best spring practice since we've been here. He's dropped weight and just seems to be so focused on being the best he can be," Steele said.

Backing up at fullback is converted tight end Jonathan Evans (6-1, 250, RFr.), who showed good blocking skills during the spring.

WIDE RECEIVERS

"We feel very good about our receiving corps. Our depth at the position is as good as it's been since we've been here, and it's quality depth."

Leading receiver Reggie Newhouse (6-1, 197, Jr.) became the first Bear in 17 years to catch 40 passes in a season last year and will be the go-to guy again in 2001.

"I'd like to see Reggie catch about 75 to 80 passes this year. He has the ability, is a great leader and is a playmaker."

Backing up Newhouse at split end is Robert Quiroga (6-2, 185, So.), who missed the spring while running the 400-meters for the Baylor track team, and Lanny O'Steen (5-11, 187, Jr.), a possession receiver who was second on the team with 21 receptions last year.

2001 Outlook

"Robert Quiroga has a lot of speed, and we need that, and Lanny provides us with a quality route-runner with experience."

The flanker position will be manned by Marques Roberts (6-1, 218, RFr.), Bobby Darnell (5-11, 188, Jr.), John Martin (5-11, 182, RFr.) and Andra Fuller (5-11, 182, Sr.)

"Marques is a power receiver who has the ability to make the passing game look like basketball on grass. He has a lot of potential."

OFFENSIVE LINE

After having just one senior offensive lineman in each of the last two years, the Bears have begun to grow up at this all-important position.

A trio of seniors, tackles Jon Erickson (6-5, 300, Sr.) and Greg Jerman (6-5, 292, Sr.) and center Joe Jackson (6-3, 277, Sr.), have a combined 66 career starts among them.

"We have a group that has played a lot of snaps in the last few years, so we finally have some experience and maturity up front."

Left guard Cedric Fields (6-2, 295, So.) leads a group of young players, which includes Ryan McDaniel (6-5, 288, RFr.), Chris Sipes (6-4, 306, RFr.) and Brad Schlueter (6-5, 283, RFr.), who had strong springs and should push for more playing time in 2001.

Baylor also signed a pair of physical junior college linemen, Charles Bungert (6-8, 350, Sr.) and Antoine Murphy (6-4, 325, Jr.), to provide competition to the position.

2001 Outlook

"There was a need to provide some other options to the mix."

TIGHT ENDS

Baylor's tight end position is in good hands with a pair of seniors, Andrew Obriotti (6-3, 238, Sr.) and Anthony Dozier (6-5, 261, Sr.). Obriotti started 10 games a year ago and caught 10 passes, while Dozier made three starts in multiple tight end sets and finished with five receptions. The coaching staff has confidence in both.

"They have proven that they can make plays at this level."

Providing depth at tight end is Shane Williams (6-3, 240, So.).

"Shane has a lot of athleticism and has very good hands."

DEFENSE

"We're positioned for our defense to make a considerable jump this season. Our guys are very hungry and energetic to be a good defense in the Big 12. The athleticism, talent and attitude has grown and with it our maturity has improved. This group of guys have come out of spring practice with a lot of confidence and a unity that can be built upon in a big way."

"We've got to improve in terms of accountability and responsibility, and that goes from the head coach to the staff right on through the players. I look for this to be a very improved defense."

DEFENSIVE LINE

Baylor returns all four starters on the defensive line. Tackles Ryan Gillenwater (6-0, 281, Sr.) and Kevin Stevenson (6-2, 274, Jr.) combined for more than 100 tackles last year. Gillenwater missed most of the spring with a shoulder injury, allowing Travis Hicks (6-3, 303, Jr.) to move up the depth chart at nose tackle.

In an effort to help bolster the tackle position, a pair of converted offensive players moved over during the spring. Ethan Kelley (6-2, 321, Jr.), a high school defensive lineman who started 21 games on Baylor's offensive line the last two seasons, moved over to nose tackle with positive results. Former tight end Luke Groth (6-5, 254, RFr.) also moved to tackle, where he'll join Eric Sims (6-5, 291, So.) and Demetrio Phillips (6-4, 285, Sr.) in providing depth at the position.

Charles Mann (6-3, 240, So.) and Aaron Lard (6-2, 258, RFr.) return as starters at defensive end, where they are expected to get a challenge from junior college imports A.C. Collier (6-3, 235, Jr.) and Shaun Jackson (6-3, 238, Jr.). A trio of talented young players give hope for the future here, as Joe Simmons (6-4, 232, So.), Khari Long (6-5, 240, RFr.) and Billy Crawford (6-2, 229, RFr.) turned heads during spring practice.

LINEBACKERS

While young at the linebacker position, the Bears feel they have the talent to be successful here with a trio of sophomores.

Freshman All-American John Garrett (6-1, 235, So.) started five games at weak-side linebacker last year but moved to the middle during the spring and displayed ball-hawking instincts that are critical at the position.

"John is a very accomplished football player. Has the potential to be one of the better linebackers in this league."

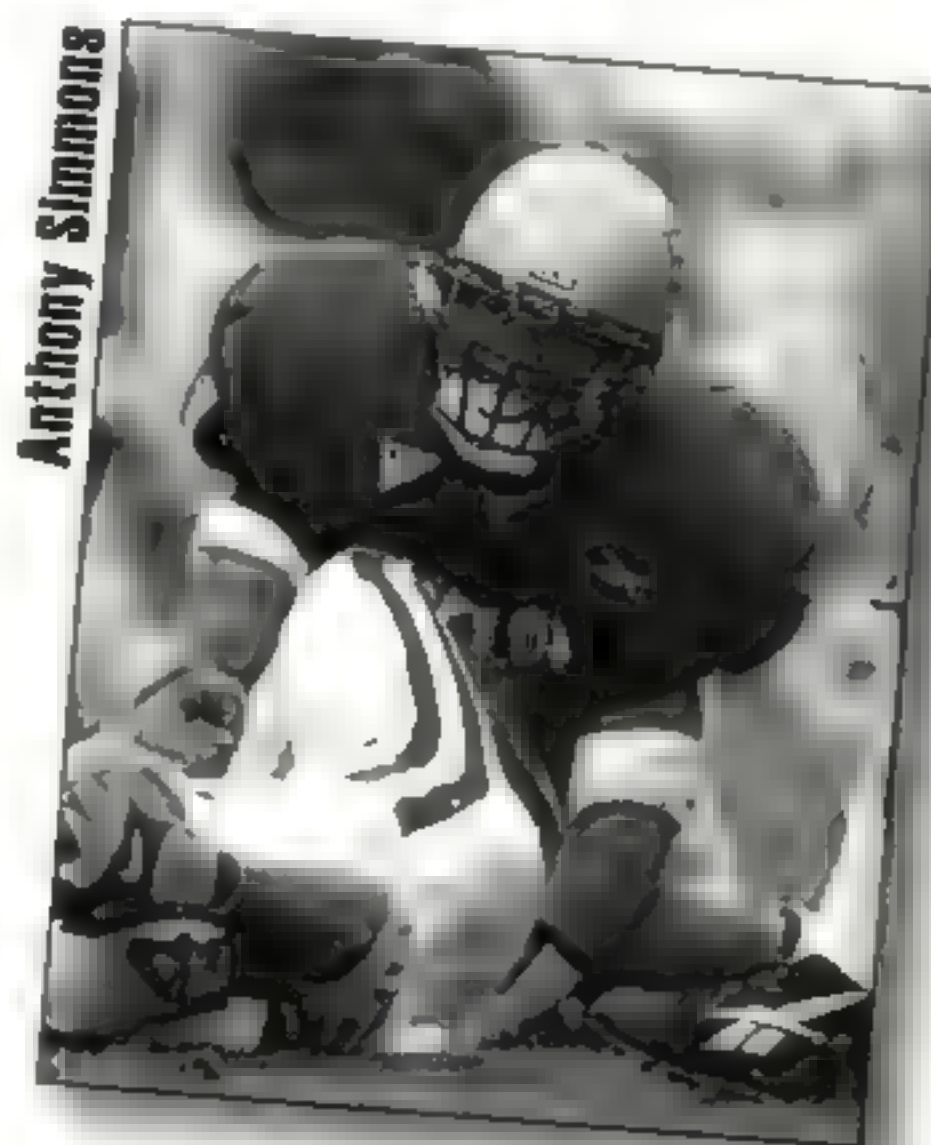

The bookends on either side of Garrett are Stephen Sepulveda (6-2, 218, So.) on the strong side and Anthony Simmons (5-11, 201, So.) on the weak side.

"Stephen matured tremendously during the spring. He's a smart, athletic guy who plays very hard. Anthony can make plays. His has a lot of speed and loves to play the game."

Depth at the linebacker position will come from former starter Kelvin Chaisson (6-1, 243, Jr.), Michael Tolbert (6-0, 238, RFr.) and Jack Wallace (6-3, 205, RFr.)

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Despite the departure of starting cornerbacks Daniel Wilturner and Baltimore Ravens second-round pick Gary Baxter, Baylor like the composition of its secondary.

"We have a lot of guys in the secondary who are similar in that they are competitive, hard-nosed players."

Veteran safety Samir Al-Amin (6-1, 219, Sr.), who moves to free safety this season after starting at strong safety in 2000, is being counted on to provide leadership in the secondary after making 68 tackles and a pair of interceptions as a junior. He'll be backed up by Matt Amendola (5-11, 194, So.), who made six starts at the position last year.

Strong safety appears to be a battle between Kyle Staudt (6-3, 212, Sr.) and converted linebacker Derrick Cash (5-11, 206, So.), who may be the fastest player on the squad.

"Both of those guys have really come into their own and we look for them to provide good things at that position."

Converted wideout Randy Davis (5-9, 173, Jr.) made a smooth transition and won the left cornerback spot during spring practice.

"Randy is very fast and had a productive spring."

The right cornerback position will be manned by Bobby Hart (5-11, 183, So.), who started a pair of games as a dime back last year as a true freshman.

SPECIAL TEAMS

All of Baylor's specialists return in 2001, and the Bear coaching staff is placing a premium on who is on the field with them.

"It's very important that we get the right people on special teams and play our best people whenever possible."

PLACEKICKING/PUNTING

Placekicker Daniel Andino (6-0, 230, Jr.) handles the short field goals and extra points while former junior college All-American Adam Stiles (6-5, 236, Sr.) will have kickoff and long field goal duties. Stiles was third-team All-Big 12 last year after averaging 40.1 yards per punt. He'll get a challenge from Ryan Chapdelaine (6-1, 205, Sr.).

DEEP SNAPPER/HOLDER

Charles Hall (6-1, 202, So.) returns for his third season as Baylor's deep snapper on both punts and placements, while backup quarterback Jarod Quinn (5-11, 205, Jr.) is back for his second season as the Bears' holder.

"Both Charles and Jarod do a phenomenal job on our kick operation."

Non-Scholarship Program

Baylor has re-energized its non-scholarship program in recent years, improving the number of participants from approximately 35 just two years ago to more than 70 today. In that period, seven walk-on student-athletes have earned athletic scholarships. The Bears also have a specific scholarship, the William M. Harman III Memorial Scholarship, that is designated for a former non-scholarship student-athlete.

Head Coach Kevin Steele

As a teenager growing up in South Carolina, Kevin Steele did what a lot of young people do - he began to dream. The seeds of his dream were sown by his father, Pete, who spent years as a high school football coach. However, Kevin's dream focused on another level. Steele wanted to become a college football coach.

A couple decades and lots of hard work later, that goal became a reality as he became Baylor University's 23rd head football coach on December 18, 1998.

Now entering his third season at Baylor, Steele has not only realized his dream, but also taken on the immense project of rebuilding a once-successful program.

In the business of construction, several factors go into building a quality product. A builder must use excellent materials, skilled craftsmen and top-notch equipment.

In embarking on the construction of the Baylor football program, Steele has steadily gathered the necessary tools to turn out a finished product. He has recruited talented players and made them better athletes through an enhanced strength and conditioning program. As a result, the players have bought into Steele's positive attitude about the direction of Baylor football and team morale has never been better. Steele has also assembled an experienced and diverse coaching staff dedicated to the student-athletes' success both on and off the field.

Realizing that excellent facilities are essential to the program's growth in the areas of performance and recruiting, Steele pushed for improvements to Baylor's existing facilities. An expansion of the locker room and weight room at Floyd Casey Stadium will be completed for the start of the 2001 season, and the grass practice fields have been lengthened and resurfaced.

With a solid foundation of players, coaches and facilities in place, Steele is ready to build on that foundation.

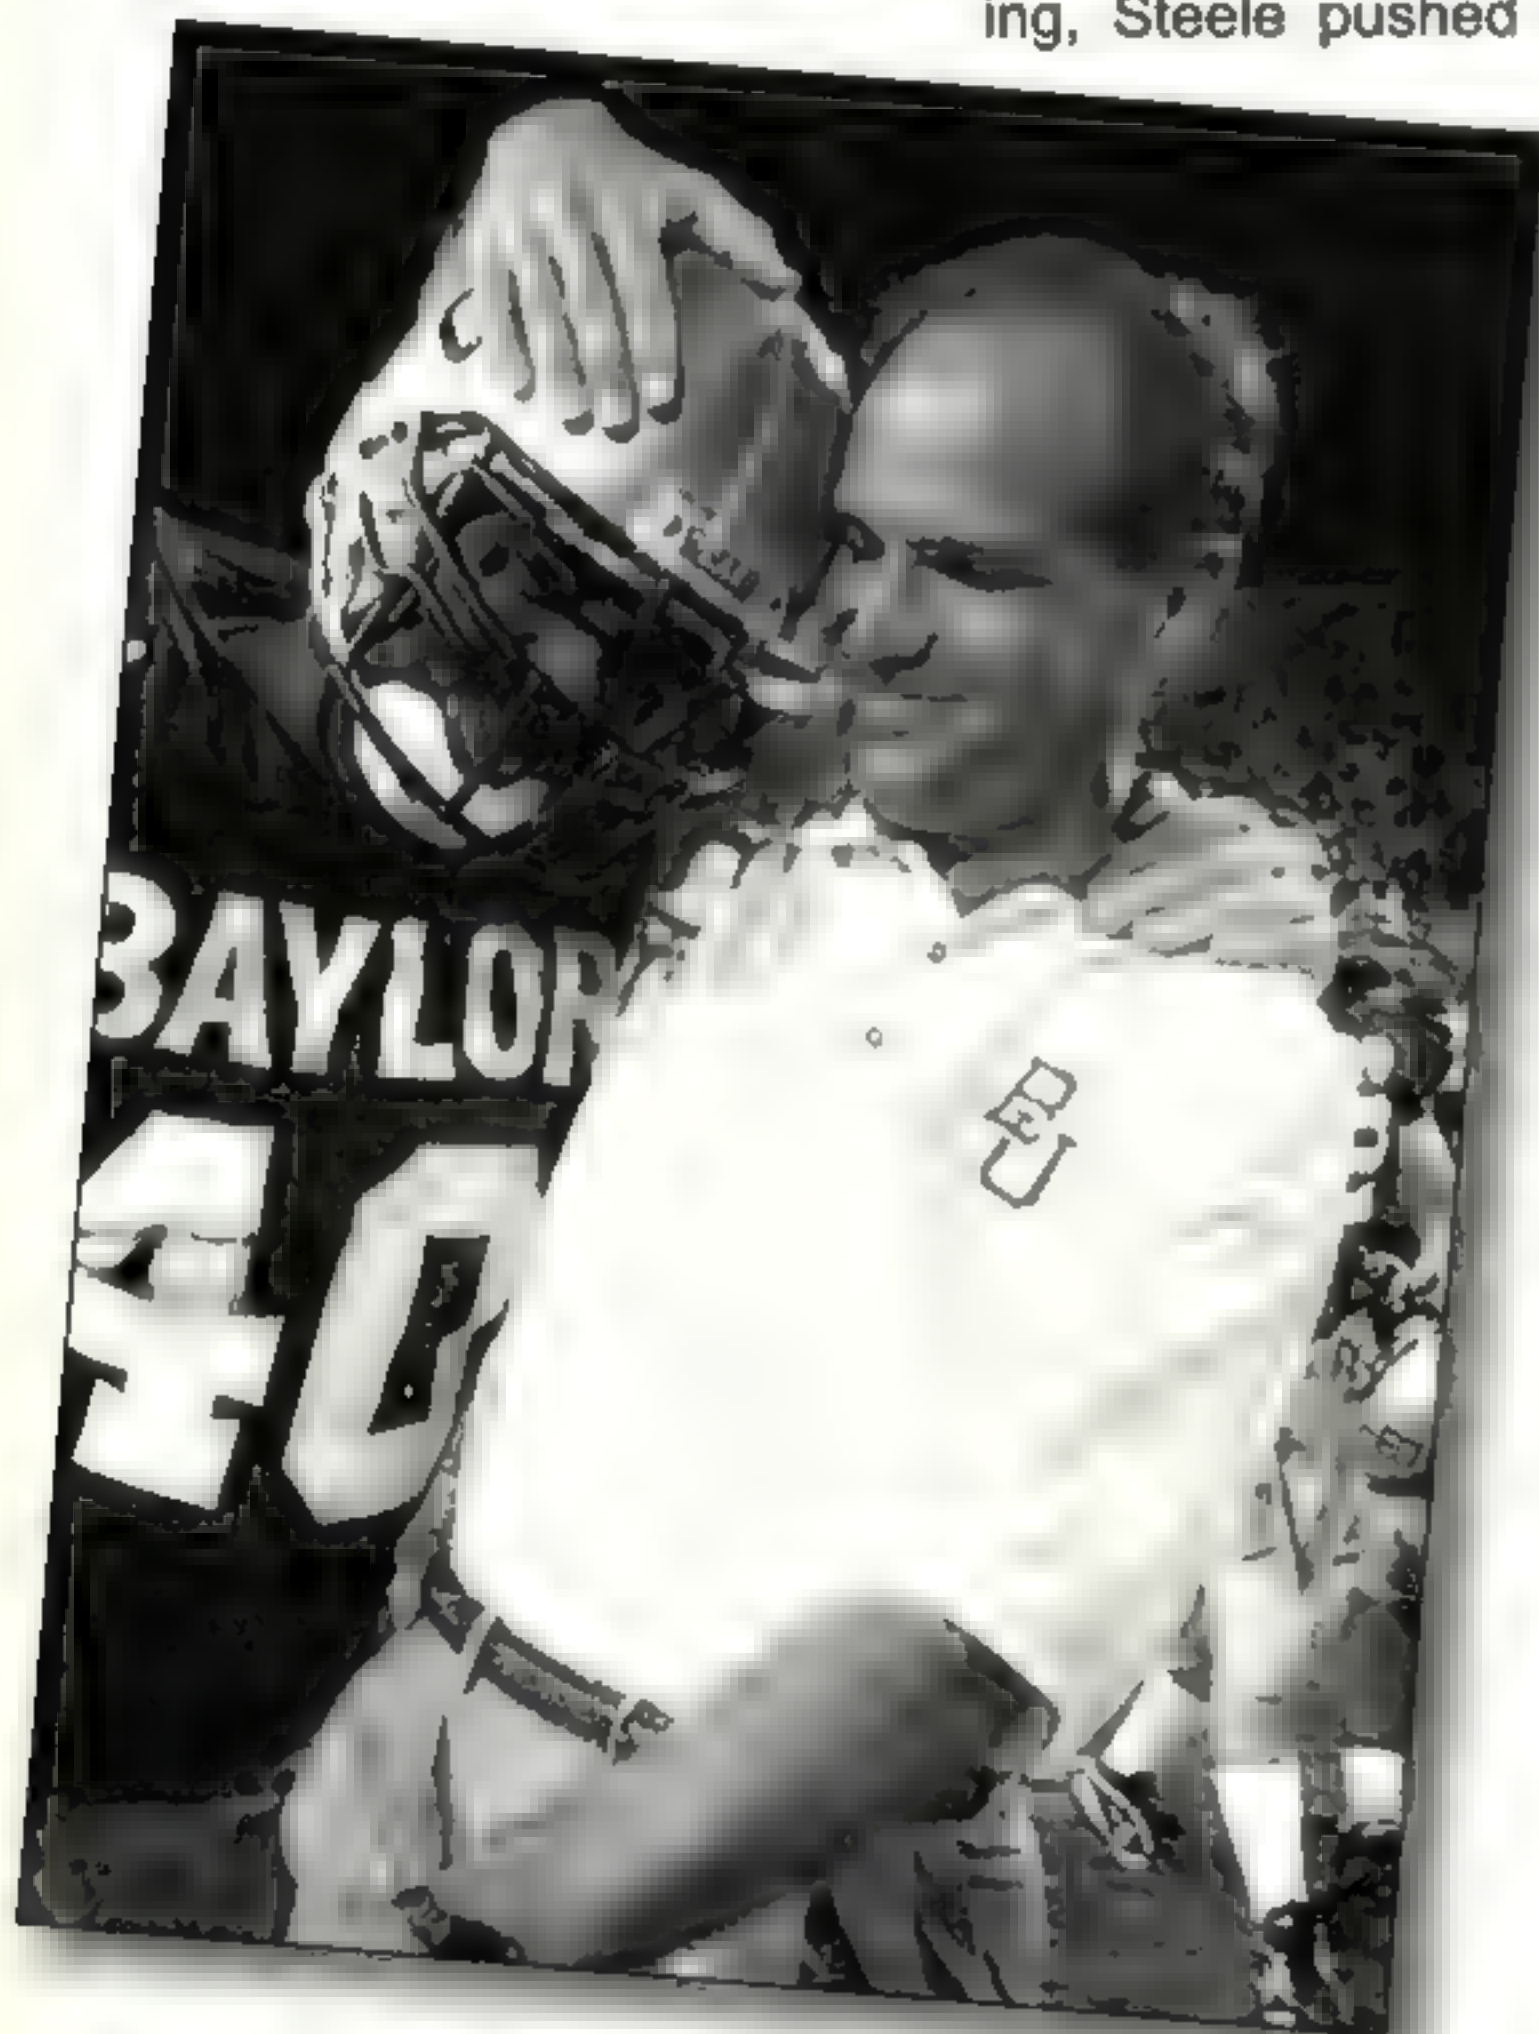

In his quest to become a head coach and, in turn, the builder of Baylor's football future, Steele learned from the best.

After Steele played linebacker at Tennessee from 1976-79, coach Johnny Majors kept him on the staff as a graduate assistant. He held that position until 1981 when he received a promotion and spent the next year tutoring the Volunteers outside linebackers.

Steele then moved to New Mexico State, where he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach in 1983. From 1984-86 he was a member of Pat Jones' Oklahoma State staff where he coached linebackers and tight ends.

Following the stint in Stillwater, Steele returned to Tennessee in 1987 to handle defensive backs, and spent the next two years there before heading to Nebraska to coach under the legendary Tom Osborne. During Steele's six years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers went 60-11, appeared in six bowl games, won four conference championships and captured the 1994 national championship with a 13-0 record.

One of Steele's key recruits for the Huskers was All-

Head Coach Kevin Steele

America quarterback Tommie Frazier, who currently serves as Baylor's running backs coach.

In 1995, Steele made the jump to the NFL's expansion Carolina Panthers where, as the team's linebackers coach, he quickly earned the reputation as one of the league's top young assistants and gained what he described as "a doctorate in X's and O's."

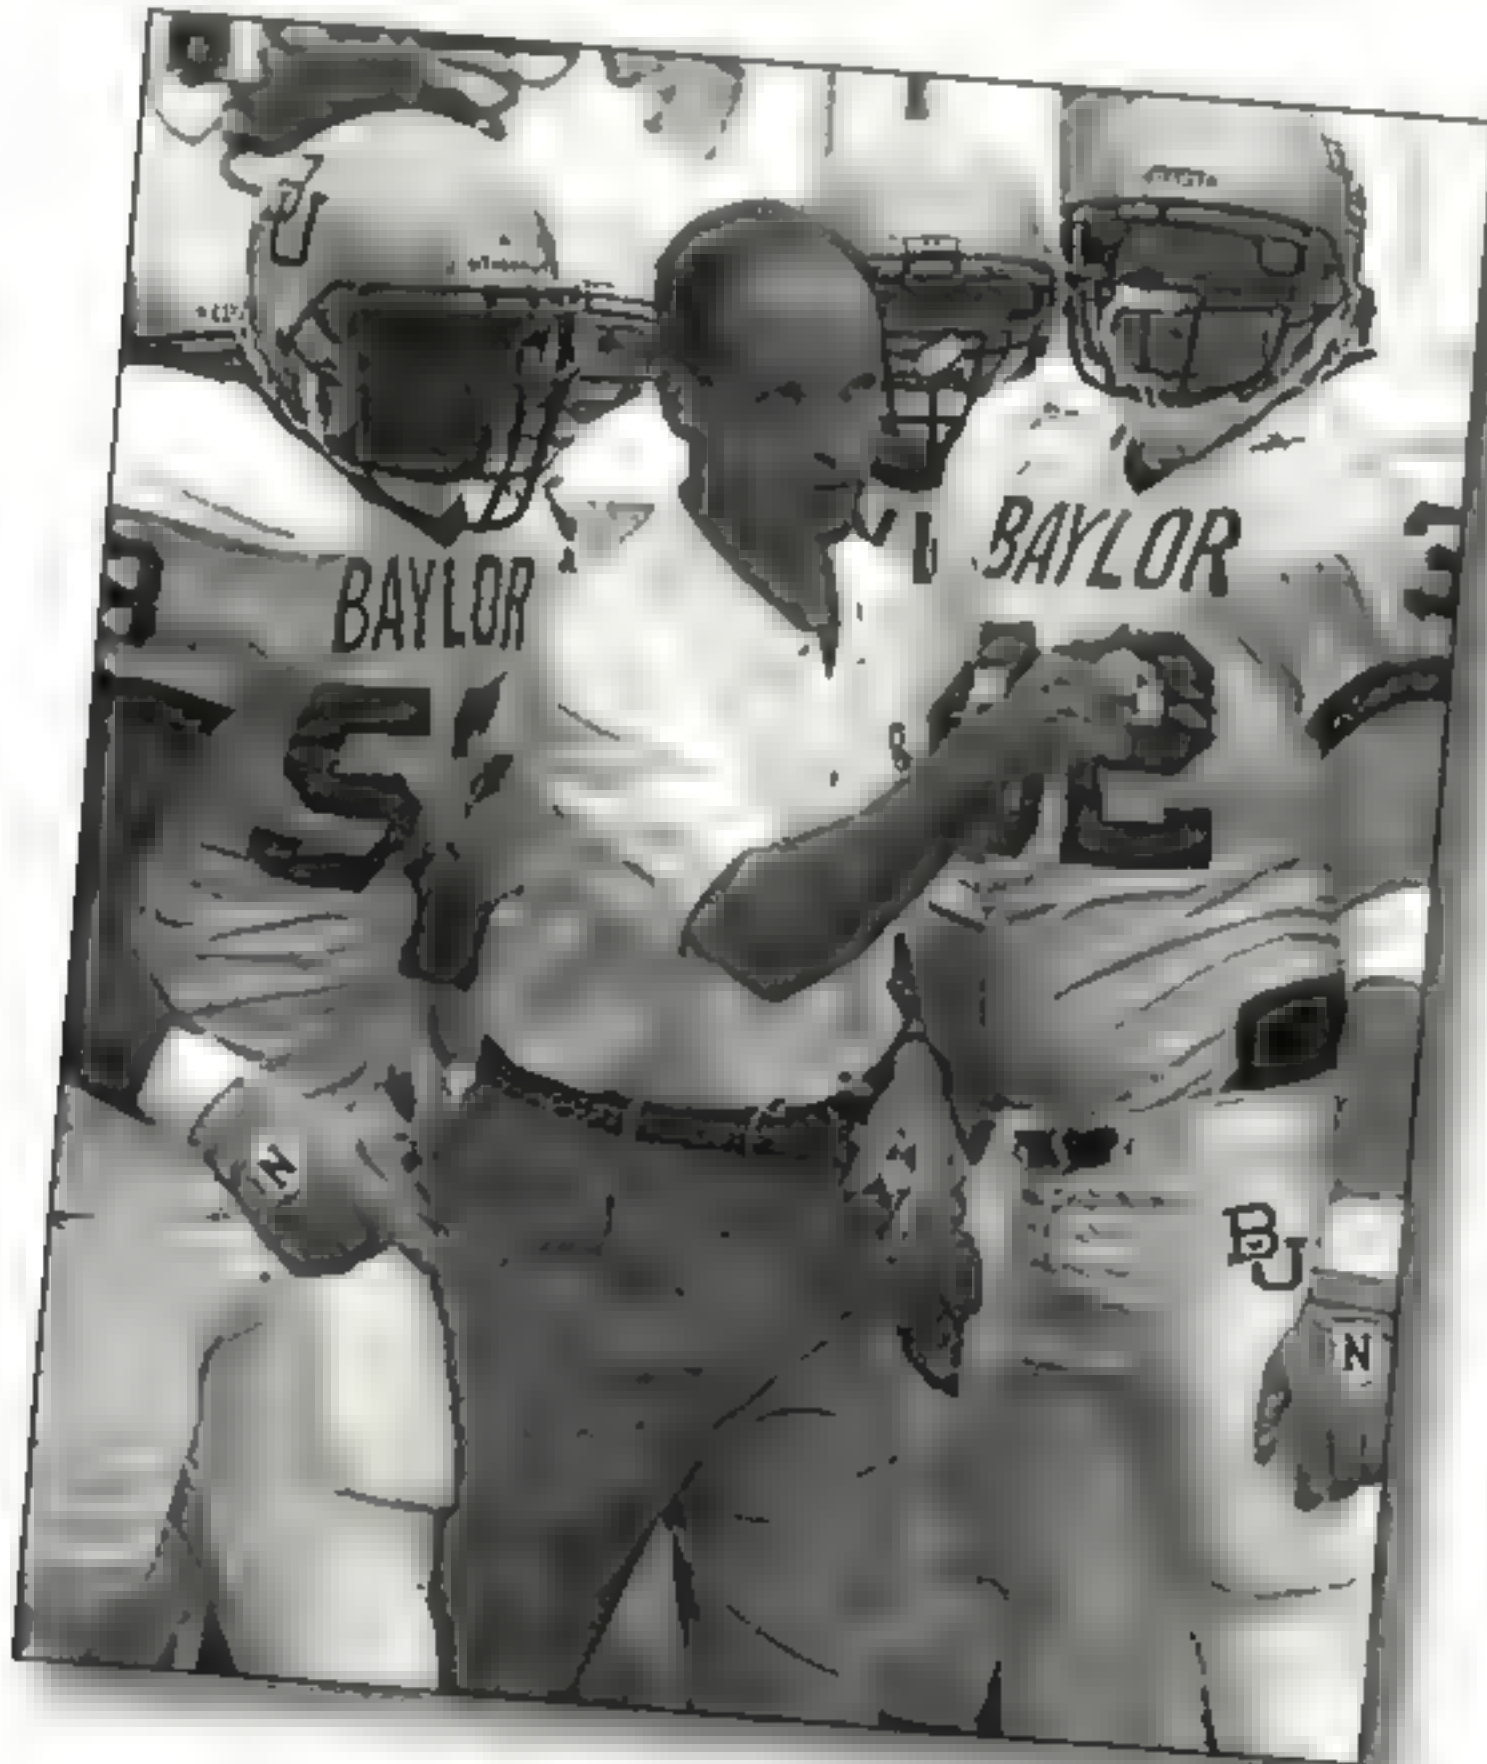

Carolina also offered Steele another opportunity to be associated with success. The Panthers made NFL history by reaching the NFC Championship Game in just their second season of existence.

At each stop along his career path, Steele has diligently prepared himself for the day he would become a college football head coach, increasing his knowledge of the game and how to run a program. A bulk of that knowledge came from role models Majors, Jones, Capers and Osborne.

During his stint in the NFL, Steele learned the finest details of football strategy and the keys to evaluating talent. The lessons he learned along the way have paved the way for Steele's success today.

In the two years since he became Baylor's head coach, Steele has given fans plenty about which to be excited. After a 1-10 debut season, the Bears went 2-9 in Steele's second year and the team continues to show signs of growth and improvement. His whirlwind speaking tours receive rave reviews from Bear fans, while the Baylor players have responded positively to his highly organized and demanding off-season workout program.

Steele's offensive and defensive philosophies are based

QUOTES ABOUT KEVIN STEELE:

"I was privileged to have Kevin on my staff for several years. Kevin is a person of high principles. He relates well to players and truly cares for them and for the people who work with him. His values are such that he will represent Baylor University very well. He has an excellent knowledge of football and is one of the very best recruiters I have ever known. He will do a tremendous job for Baylor, and I am pleased to call him a friend and an associate."

— Dr. Tom Osborne

Head Football Coach (retired)

University of Nebraska

"Kevin Steele is one of the best young coaches to come along in the last decade. He combines the merits of a leader, a coach and a father. Like the handful of a successful coaches, he's been able to put his priorities - faith, family and fortune - in order. If you want to hitch your cart to a meteor, there are only a few names out there, and Kevin Steele is one of them."

— Dr. Jerry Punch

ESPN

"I consider Kevin to be one of the most outstanding football coaches in the game today. He's one of the classiest, quality people I know. Kevin has strong convictions and his priorities are in order.

Kevin is an outstanding leader with tremendous character and loyalty. He has a plan for Baylor and he has the patience, courage, conviction and maturity to stick to his plan and carry it out to its completion."

— Dom Capers

Head Coach

NFL's Houston Texans

on solid execution and doing what players can do best, emphasizing his belief the game should be fun for players and fans.

An excellent and well-known recruiter, Steele maintained his NCAA recruiting certification even while coaching in the NFL. He flatly labels Texas high school football and its coaches the country's best and plans to continue to base his recruiting efforts in the Lone Star State while sprinkling in a handful of players from around the country.

Players who sign with Baylor find a coaching staff dedicated to their complete development as young men. Steele has proven he is a coach who knows there is much more to life than football. He stresses the importance of using his position to make a positive impact on his players, helping to lead them to the right choices at critical points in their lives. Baylor University has a mission which mirrors his own faith, and Steele believes Baylor is the perfect place to achieve the goals he has set forth.

Steele hails from a football coaching family. His father, Pete, is a retired high school coach. His uncle, Tommy White, coached college football at Oklahoma State. His brother, Dale, is a veteran coach currently on the Bear staff and another brother, Jeff, is an assistant athletic director at Kansas State.

Steele was born March 17, 1958 and grew up in Dillon, S.C. He graduated from Dillon High School in 1976 and the University of Tennessee in 1981. He and his wife, Linda, have a 14-year-old son, Gordon, and 12-year-old daughter, Caroline.

NAMED BAYLOR'S HEAD COACH

December 18, 1998

Scott Smith

ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS/TE

Former Baylor letterman Scott Smith is in his third season as the Bears' assistant head coach and his first with the title of special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Smith served as Baylor's secondary coach in 1999 and 2000.

Smith first came to Baylor in 1977 as a quarterback, going 3-0 as the starter that season before taking a redshirt year the following season. He returned to spend three years at strong safety.

Smith graduated from Highland Park High School where lettered in baseball and football, and served as vice-president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. His leadership abilities flourished through athletics, and he was chosen as the captain of the varsity football and baseball squads. His performance at quarterback earned him all-district, all-metro, and All-Greater Dallas.

At Baylor, Smith was a three-time recipient of the coveted "Fighting Bear" award (1979, 1980 and 1981). He played on Baylor squads that participated in the 1979 Peach Bowl and the 1981 Cotton Bowl. The Bears won the SWC championship in 1980.

Smith spent the spring of 1982 coaching at Howard Payne University before moving on to coach the North Texas defensive backs during the 1982 season. In 1983, Smith returned to his high school alma mater, where he coached the defensive secondary for three seasons.

In 1985, Smith was named the head football coach at Garland High School, where he led a turnaround that resulted in GHS advancing to the bi-district finals of the state playoffs in 1987. As a result, Smith was named District 9-5A and Dallas/Ft. Worth coach of the year.

Smith made the leap back into the college ranks in 1988 at SMU. After a two-year stint coaching receivers and then running backs, Smith returned to Baylor to coach the secondary in 1990. Baylor's secondary was ranked 16th in the nation in 1990 and 23rd in 1991. The Bears played in the 1991 Copper Bowl and the 1992 John Hancock Bowl with Smith as an assistant.

Smith next spent a year coaching linebackers at Arkansas before returning to Texas high school football. He was athletic director and head football coach at Duncanville, where his team won its first-ever football playoff game in 1994. Duncanville was also named the top 5A athletic program in the Dallas area for the 1995-96 school year.

Smith returned to Highland Park in 1996 as athletic director and head football coach, where he went on to earn a pair of district co-coach of the year awards and led HPHS to a three-year record of 35-7. Highland Park made it to the state semifinal game in 1996, was area champion in 1997 and regional finalist in 1998. In 1998, Highland Park was named the top 4A athletic program in the Dallas area and was the first recipient of the Lone Star Cup All-Sports Award for having the top athletic program in the state.

Smith is married to the former Kelly Hudspeth, a Baylor graduate and former Baylor cheerleader. They have two sons: Shea (14) and Braden (12).

Haley

Brick Haley

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LB5

Andrea "Brick" Haley enters his third season as Baylor's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Haley came to Baylor from Clemson, where he worked with the Tigers' outside linebackers in 1998. The previous season, Haley held a similar position at the University of Houston.

Haley graduated from Emma Sansom High School in Gadsden, Ala., in 1984. Staying in state for college, Haley went on to play for Alabama A&M, where he earned considerable honors as a linebacker for the Bulldogs. Haley served as team captain in 1988 and 1989 and received the Inspiration Award (1987), Most Valuable Player (1989), and Player of the Year Award (1988-89). He also earned a spot on the Division II All-America teams in 1988 and 1989.

After remaining at Alabama A&M as a student assistant coach, Haley eventually took a job at Enterprise High School in Enterprise, Ala. In 1990, Haley became a graduate assistant coach at the University of Arkansas, where he was responsible for the Razorback defensive line.

Haley then coached the defensive line at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn. In 1992, he served as the defensive line coach and assistant head coach.

Haley moved to Troy State University in 1994, where he worked as the defensive line coach before being named defensive coordinator in 1996. During that time, Troy State allowed only 115 rushing yards per game, while the defense racked up 39 sacks.

A skilled recruiter, Haley has recruited and coached numerous future National Football League players. The list of Haley proteges includes: Jeff Gooch, Tampa Bay Bucs; Pratt Lyons, Tennessee Oilers; Reggie Lowe, Seattle Seahawks; Donnell Gilyard, New York Giants; Michael Swift, Carolina Panthers; and Kurt Pointer with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Haley is married to Tina DeLaine Haley and they have one son, A.J. (1).

Greg Meyer

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DBs

Once a part of one of the greatest turn-arounds in college football history, Baylor offensive coordinator Greg Meyer is in his third season with the Bears. Meyer also oversees Baylor's quarterbacks.

Meyer was an instrumental part of Northwestern University's rise to national prominence in the mid 1990s, serving as the Wildcats' offensive coordinator for seven years. While winning its second-consecutive Big Ten title in 1996, Northwestern's offense scored 336 points and 41 touchdowns, both single-season school records.

Meyer was part of a Wildcat staff which led the team to Big 10 championships in both 1995 and 1996. Meyer's explosive offenses were showcased in the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl.

All-America and Heisman Trophy finalist Darnell Autry, first-team All-Big Ten quarterback Steve Schnur, Big Ten most valuable player Lee Gissendaner and All-America receiver and Chicago Bears third-round draft pick D'Wayne Bates are just a few of the Wildcats who enjoyed tremendous success under Meyer's tutelage.

Meyer's history of success is not limited to Northwestern. He began his coaching career in 1974 as an assistant football coach at Pomona High School in Arvada, Colo. In 1980, Meyer moved to Arizona State University, where he was an offensive assistant working with receivers and tight ends for five years. During that time, he coached with current Baylor assistant Lonnie Hansen and was part of ASU's 1983 Fiesta Bowl team.

Meyer went to Wichita State in 1985 to coach quarterbacks and tight ends for two years. At WSU, he reunited with Hansen and also worked with current Baylor receiver coach Dale Steele.

Meyer first became an offensive coordinator at Ball State, where he coached quarterbacks and receivers from 1987-89. There he utilized the talents of running back Bernie Parmalee, who went on to play with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Meyer's Ball State offense also broke nearly every passing record in school history.

Meyer moved on to serve as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Toledo for two seasons, 1990-91, and helped lead the Rockets to a share of the Mid-American Conference title in 1990.

Meyer graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver, Colo., where he played quarterback in football and shortstop in baseball. He went on to graduate from the Northern Colorado in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in science. He lettered two years in baseball and was part of a UNC baseball team that played in the 1974 College World Series in Omaha, Neb., and finished fifth in the nation.

He and his wife, Daryl, have two daughters, Marisa (15) and Makenzie (11).

Fertsch

Doug Fertsch

OFFENSIVE LINE

Former Baylor letterman Doug Fertsch, a veteran of 25 years of coaching from the collegiate and Texas high school levels, is in his third year as the Bears' offensive line coach.

Fertsch is a native Texan who graduated from Wharton High School, where he participated in football, track and baseball. He was an offensive lineman for the Bears under Coach Grant Teaff from 1973-75. He was an offensive center and guard on the Bear's celebrated 1974 team which won the SWC championship team.

Fertsch worked as a graduate assistant at Baylor in the spring 1976 while working on his master's degree. He received his master's degree from Baylor in 1977 and received his mid-management degree from Sam Houston State University in 1989.

Fertsch was an assistant football coach from 1976-78 at East Bernard and Luling High schools. He was also assistant head coach and offensive coach at Klein High School for former Baylor coach George Kirk from 1978-81.

In 1981, Fertsch was named athletic coordinator and head football coach at Westbury High School in Houston. Fertsch rebuilt a 5A program that increased in participation and victories.

Fertsch returned to the college ranks in 1982 by joining another former Baylor coach, Bill Yung, as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at UTEP.

In 1983, Fertsch went to Klein Oak to become athletic director and head football coach. In 1984, their first year of 5A varsity competition, Klein Oak won the district championship and advanced to the state playoffs, an accomplishment they would repeat in 1986 and 1989. For his efforts, Fertsch was named the all-Greater Houston coach of the year (1984), district coach of the year (1984 and 1989) and Touchdown Club of Houston Coach of the Year finalist in 1989. His overall high school head coaching record is 50-32-1.

Fertsch performed various functions for the Texas High School Coaches Association, serving as chairman and on the 5A committee for the all-star football game. He was elected to the board of directors in 1989.

In 1990, he once again returned to the collegiate football as the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach while coaching the offensive line at Sam Houston State University. He helped guide the Bearkats to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs while winning the Southland Conference and posting a 9-3 record, finishing 12th in the nation.

Two years later, Fertsch was named offensive line coach and offensive coordinator coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he produced an offense that won three Big West Conference championships.

A tireless teacher, 10 of Fertsch's former players have continued their careers in the NFL.

Doug and his wife, Tricia, have two daughters, Jessica Marie (18) and Mary Allison (10). He is the son-in-law to Eddie Joseph, executive president of the THSCA.

RUNNING BACKS

Former All-American and Heisman Trophy runner-up Tommie Frazier is in his third season as Baylor's running backs coach.

Frazier attended the University of Nebraska, where he played quarterback for the Huskers and later received a bachelor's degree in communications. As a student-athlete at Nebraska, Frazier became one of college football's most decorated performers. He posted a record of 33-3 as a starter, including national championships in 1994 and 1995. He nearly led the Cornhuskers to three-straight titles, losing to Florida State in the Orange Bowl in 1993 as a sophomore.

During his time with the Huskers, Frazier received a number of awards and set numerous records. In 1995, he was unanimously voted first-team All-America, won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting behind Ohio State's Eddie George.

Frazier continues to earn honors for his athletic exploits. He was recently named "Male Athlete of the Century" at the University of Nebraska and voted as one of the top 10 players of the century by Sport magazine.

In addition, Frazier holds Nebraska records for total offensive yards (5,476), rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (36), passing touchdowns by a quarterback (43) and total touchdowns (79).

Frazier participated in football, basketball and track at Manatee High School in Bradenton, Fla., where he lettered in these four sports all four years. While in Bradenton, Frazier was recruited to Nebraska by current Baylor head coach Kevin Steele.

Frazier came to Baylor as a graduate assistant in January 1999, but was promoted to a full-time position at the end of spring drills the following March.

Before coming to Baylor, Frazier was a broadcaster for the University of Nebraska football in 1996 and worked one year (1996-97) in the public relations office of Nebraska Governor Ben Nelson. Frazier then held the position as the director of market development/public relations for Nebraska Technologies and Telecommunications (NT&T) in Omaha for one and a half years (1997-99).

Frazier, the fifth of six children, is married to the former Andrea Stephens.

Lonnie Hansen

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

A 23-year veteran of the coaching profession, Lonnie Hansen is in his third season at Baylor and his first as defensive tackles coach. He spent the 1999 and 2000 Bear campaigns as offensive line/tight ends coach.

Hansen came to the Bears from Friends University in Wichita, Kan., where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

Prior to that, Hansen spent 19 years in the collegiate trenches, coaching offensive linemen around the country. Hansen broke into the coaching ranks at Arizona State in 1978 and spent six seasons there coaching the offensive line. During this period, he worked for four years with current Baylor offensive coordinator Greg Meyer. The two coached together on ASU's 1983 Fiesta Bowl squad.

Hansen was at Wichita State for three years following his stay at Arizona, where he was first exposed to recruiting the Lone Star State and worked with fellow Baylor assistants Meyer and Dale Steele. Hansen left Wichita State and worked two years at Western Kentucky University and five years at Northeast Louisiana University, participating in the NCAA playoffs six times in those seven seasons. While in Louisiana, Hansen had nine of his offensive linemen named all-conference, five named All-America and one Academic All-America.

Hansen then moved on to Southern Mississippi, where he coached the offensive line for three years as the Golden Eagles experienced three-consecutive winning seasons and the 1996 Conference USA championship. During his stay at USM, he sent three players into the NFL.

Hansen graduated from Ottawa University in Kansas with a bachelor's degree in political science and public administration. A native of Iowa City, Iowa, he graduated from City High School, participating in football, wrestling and baseball.

Hansen is married to Rebecca, and they have two sons, Robert Andrew (12) and Luke (8).

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Long-time Baylor assistant Robert James is in his 19th season with the Bears. James oversees Baylor's defensive ends, the position he coached when he first joined the program in July 1983.

As a defensive ends coach at Baylor, James has coached four players who have earned all-conference honors. During his Baylor career, he has spent most of his time on the defensive side of the ball, including some time coaching outside linebackers.

James came to Baylor in 1983 after leading Gainesville High School to three consecutive state playoff appearances. Prior to that, he held head coaching positions at Lamesa and San Antonio MacArthur. Overall, James put together a record of 103-37-4 as a high school head coach.

James lettered three years in football and two in track at Snyder High School. He graduated from Snyder in 1957 after earning all-district honors for Coach John Conley, who went on to become the athletic director at Texas Tech. James then went to McMurry in Abilene, where he earned three letters playing for Grant Teaff. Before graduating in 1961, James earned all-Texas honors as an offensive and defensive tackle.

James started his coaching career at Abilene's Jefferson Junior High in 1961. Following that, he was an assistant at Winters from 1962-63 and Temple in 1964.

He took his first head coaching job at Lamesa in 1965 and remained there until 1974. In 1972 James guided the Golden Tornadoes to a district title. The following year, his squad reached the Class AAA state semifinals.

James spent the 1975-77 seasons at San Antonio MacArthur and led the Brahmas to the regional finals in 1975. That same year, James served on the board of directors of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

He entered the college ranks in 1978 at New Mexico, where he spent two seasons coaching the offensive and defensive lines before taking over the reins at Gainesville in 1980. He made three playoff appearances there before Teaff offered him a position at Baylor prior to the 1983 season.

James, who earned a master's in education from Trinity in 1976, is married to the former Linda Kincaid, and the couple has four grown children, two grandsons and one granddaughter. His brother, Douglas, was the longtime coach at Amarillo Palo Duro.

Texas native Paul Jette is in his first season at Baylor, arriving just days prior to the start of the Bears' 2001 spring practice to coach defensive backs.

With nearly 25 years of college football coaching experience, Jette brings a wealth of knowledge and an impressive resume with him to Waco.

Jette comes to Baylor from East Carolina, where he spent seven seasons as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He has been defensive coordinator at four division I-A schools, including Oklahoma State (1984), Miami, Fla (1985) and Texas (1986-88). Jette has also coached in 12 bowl games.

Born in Kermit, Texas, and raised in Devine, Jette played at the University of Texas, where he was a three-year starter at defensive back on bowl teams under coach Darrell Royal.

Following graduation from Texas in 1977, Jette spent two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Longhorns. Jette's first full-time coaching position came at Oklahoma State, where he spent six seasons coaching linebackers (1979-82) and defensive backs (1983-84). In 1985, Jette joined Jimmy Johnson at Miami as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Jette returned to his alma mater in 1986 as defensive coordinator and spent three seasons in that position. In 1990, he began a two-year stint as secondary coach for Barry Alvarez at Wisconsin before returning again to the Lone Star State as TCU's secondary coach (1992-93).

Jette, 46, and his wife Vicki have five children - Allison, 20, Katharyn, 17, Quinn, 12, David, 10 and Will, 10.

Dale Steele

RECEIVERS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

With 26 years of coaching experience, Baylor wide receivers coach Dale Steele begins his third season with the Bears. Steele also serves as Baylor's recruiting coordinator.

Steele came to Baylor from Northern Nash High School in Rocky Mount, N.C., to join his brother, Kevin, the Bear's head football coach. Steele was the head football coach and athletic director at Northern Nash for four years (1995-98).

Before arriving at Northern Nash, Steele served on the staff at East Carolina as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator for six seasons. In 1994, he was named assistant head coach of the Pirates. During his tenure at ECU, the Pirates went to two bowl games - the 1992 Peach Bowl and the 1994 Liberty Bowl.

While at ECU, Steele coached a nationally recognized group of receivers credited with helping set over 100 offensive school records in the 1991 season. The Pirates finished the season 11-1 and fourth in the nation in passing offense.

The son of a high school coach, Steele participated in wrestling and football at Autauga County High School in Prattville, Ala., where he lettered three years in both sports.

A 1976 graduate of South Carolina with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Steele played offensive guard for the Gamecocks. After graduating from South Carolina, Steele coached for one season at A.C. Flora High School in Columbia, S.C.

Steele began college coaching at Ball State in 1977 as a graduate assistant, working with the offensive line, while earning his master's degree in physical education. He moved on to Wisconsin in 1978 as the tight ends coach and head coach of the Badger JV squad.

Steele spent two seasons at Tulane (1981-82), where he worked with the tight ends, kickers and served as recruiting coordinator. In 1980, the Green Wave appeared in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Arkansas. It was during his tenure in Louisiana that Steele first began recruiting the state of Texas, something he has now done for a decade at three different universities.

Steele's first association with a current Big 12 school was at Kansas State, where he worked with the tight ends and special teams in 1987 and with the wide receivers in 1988. Prior to this, Steele spent three seasons at Wichita State, where he worked with current Baylor assistants Lonnie Hansen and Greg Meyer. While at Wichita State, Steele spent one season coaching the outside linebackers and two seasons coaching the tight ends.

Steele and his wife, Pam, have two children, Meghan (17) and Kelsey (11).

Robert Henry, a 20-year coaching veteran who has served as defensive coordinator at two I-A schools, is in his first season at Baylor as an administrative assistant in charge of player development. In his new role, Henry will assist in the off-field development of players. Henry will also assist with the players strength and conditioning program and recruiting administration.

After graduating from Ole Miss in 1977, where he was a two-time letterwinner, Henry began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Laurel (Miss.) High School (1977-79).

He moved into college coaching in 1980 as a graduate assistant at Southern Miss. The following year, he became a full-time staff member with the Golden Eagles, coaching the defensive line on a unit that led the nation in scoring defense. Henry moved on to SMU for five seasons (1982-86) as defensive line coach before taking the same position at Tennessee for one year (1987). At Tennessee, he served on the same staff as current Baylor head coach Kevin Steele.

Henry became defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at his alma mater, Ole Miss, in 1988, a position he held for four years. He also spent three of those seasons (1989-91) as the Rebels' assistant head coach.

Henry has also coached linebackers at Louisiana-Monroe (1994) and UAB (1995-96). He also served as the Blazers' defensive coordinator.

Before coming to Baylor, Caruthers served as a consultant coach for the University of North Carolina, working with all men's and women's sports. Prior to that, he spent seven years at Alabama. During Caruthers' tenure at UA, the Tide football team garnered four SEC divisional titles, a conference championship, and the 1992 national championship. Caruthers was named SEC strength and conditioning coach of the year in 1995 by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was national strength and conditioning coach of the year in 1992.

He joined the staff at Alabama with then-head coach Gene Stallings after working with Stallings' Arizona Cardinals staff from 1986 to 1989. He served as strength and conditioning coach for the New England Patriots from 1982 to 1984.

Caruthers got his coaching start at Auburn as a graduate assistant in track for Mel Rosen. He was at SMU in 1980 and was working with the Mustangs' 1981 team, which won the SWC title.

A 1977 graduate of North Carolina State with a degree in sociology and philosophy, Caruthers began college at East Carolina, and played offensive tackle for the Pirate football team which won the 1972 Southern Conference championship. While at N.C. State, he was a two-time All-American in the shot put and participated in the 1980 Olympic Trials.

Caruthers has studied abroad in Russia and Germany, and has written several articles published in various strength and conditioning publications.

Caruthers and his wife, Kim, have two sons, Chase (14) and Lane (12).

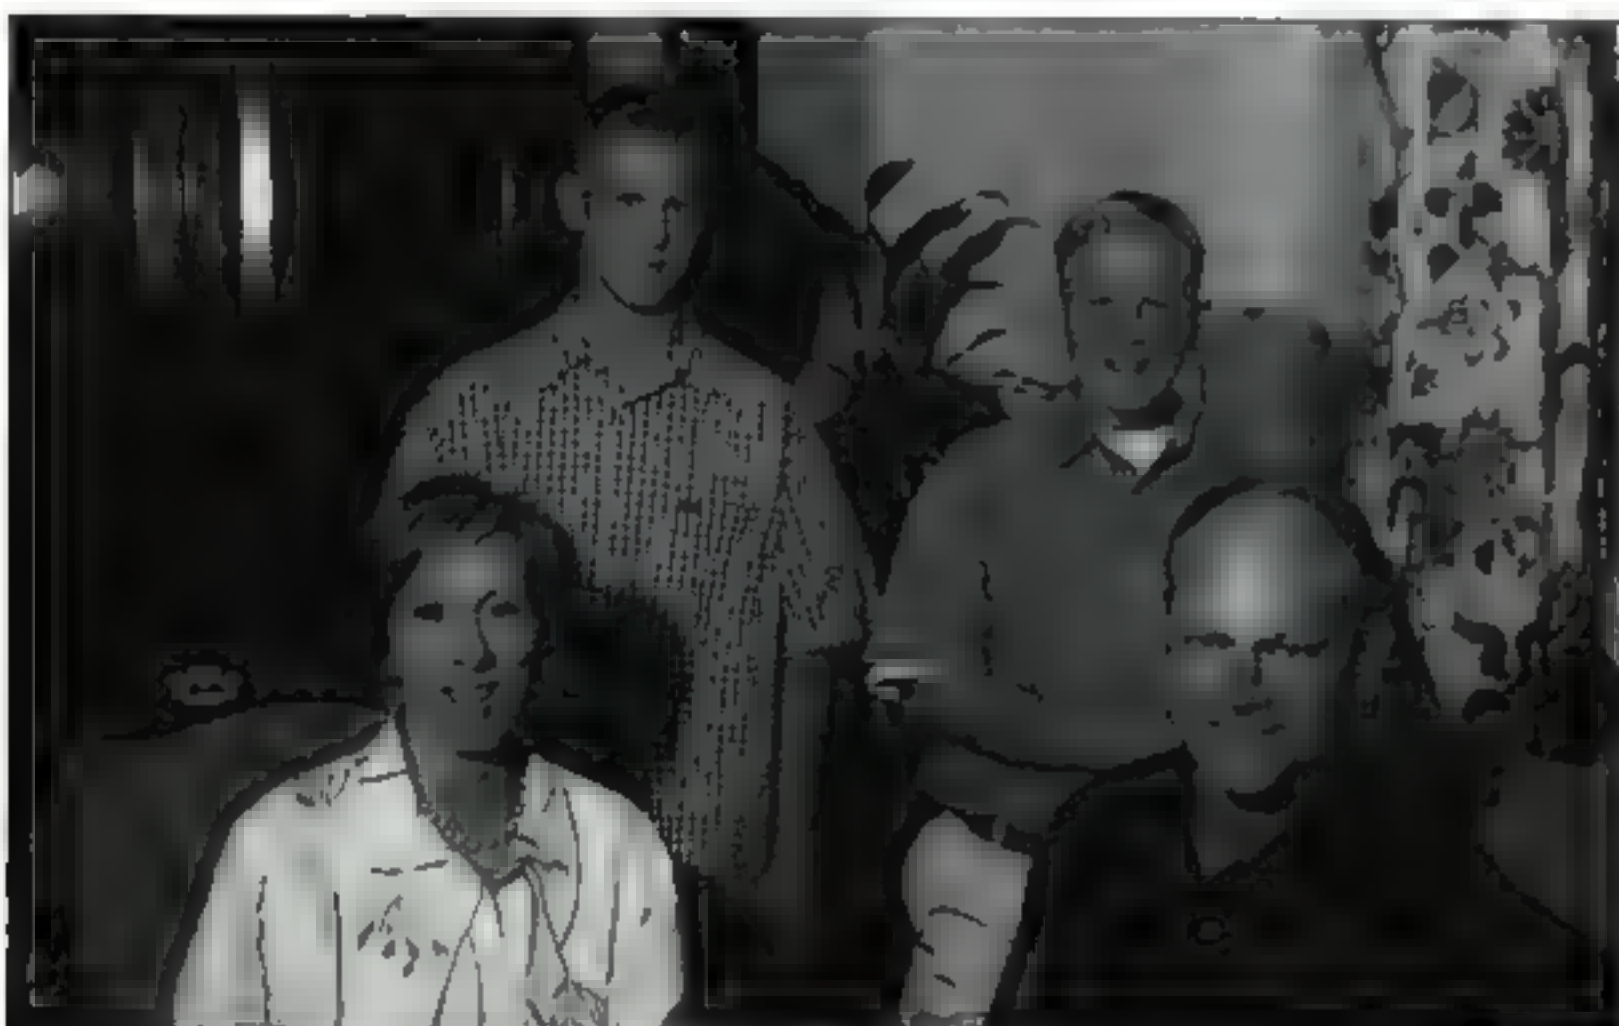

David Chandler, a veteran athletic trainer with an extensive background in the field of injury rehabilitation, is in his second stint with the Baylor athletic training staff. He returned to Baylor in 1996 after spending three years on the staff of the Champion Physical Therapy and Sports Health Clinic in Austin.

Chandler first joined the Baylor staff in 1985 after serving four years as a student trainer. He worked with football and men's basketball in addition to other sports until 1993 when he went into private practice. His current duties include working with the football and track teams as well as supervising the rehabilitation programs for all athletes.

In addition to his work at Baylor, Chandler frequently lectures at Southwest Athletic Trainers Association workshops. In 2000, Chandler was honored with the Outstanding Staff Award by Baylor University.

The 39-year-old Chandler was a football and golf letterman at Lancaster High and graduated in 1980. That same year he came to Baylor as a student trainer. Chandler graduated from Baylor with a B.S. in Education in 1985. He is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Director of Sports Medicine

Mike Sims, who is considered one of the country's leading authorities on safety standards for sports equipment, is in his 21st year as a Baylor Athletic Department staff member.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for such equipment as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks. Sims has lectured at numerous training conventions and once won the Sam Ketchum Award for outstanding speaking ability at the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association (SWATA) Meeting. He has held a number of offices with both SWATA and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). He is a past president of SWATA (1991-92) and the current chair of the NATA Ethics Committee.

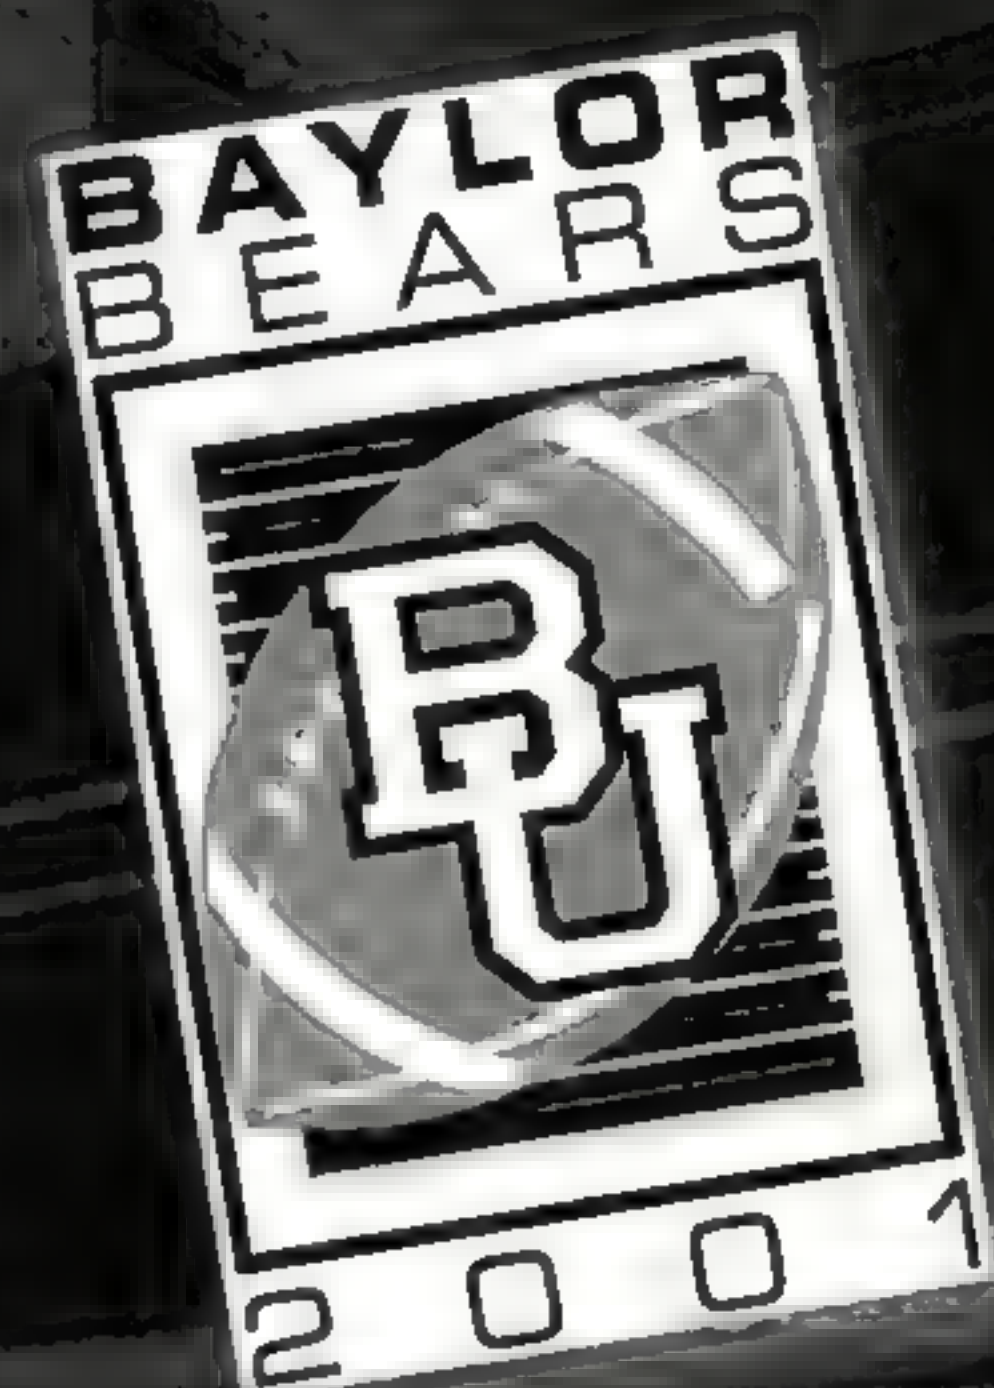

Sims, 44, was born and raised in Cedar Hill. He served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill, graduating in 1975. He spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a B.S. in 1980. He then earned his master's degree in 1982.

Sims, who is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that capacity before becoming Baylor's head trainer in October 1984. He was then promoted to director of sports medicine in 1993.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983. The Sims have two children: Jessica (11) and Keith (9). Sims is heavily involved in amateur radio and is a volunteer with the Office of Emergency Management. He is also involved in storm spotting for the national weather service.

Athletic Director

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Now in his sixth year as director of athletics is Tom Stanton, a former Bear basketball standout and business leader whose enthusiasm, vision and leadership skills have helped Baylor hold a strong position in America's premier conference.

Under Stanton's guidance, the Baylor athletics department has experienced unprecedented growth in capital improvements. Baylor has spent more than $30 million on new and renovated construction under his leadership.

Current athletic building projects include the completion of the Bear Ridge Golf Course and the Bill and Roberta Bailey Golf Center, the construction of new football locker and weight rooms, and new locker and meeting facilities at the Hart-Patterson Track and Field Complex.

Recently completed projects include the Floyd Casey Stadium press box with luxury suites; the state-of-the-art Julie and Jim Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex, including Baylor Ballpark (baseball), Gettman Stadium (softball), Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field, Baylor Tennis Center and the new Dutch Schroeder Plaza; as well as new Ferrell Center offices for men's and women's basketball.

While putting Baylor on par with the nation's finest from a facilities standpoint, Stanton has also gone to great lengths to make the Bears competitive from a coaching perspective. He has hired such nationally renowned individuals as football coach Kevin Steele, men's basketball coach Dave Bliss, women's basketball coach Kim Mulkey-Robertson and softball coach Glenn Moore.

Stanton has also been instrumental in helping the University establish new attendance records. In 2000-2001, Ferrell Center attendance marks were set in both men's basketball (91,421) and women's basketball (55,419). A school record of 95,367 was established at the Baylor Ballpark in 2001. In 1995, football set an all-time best with a 40,543 average per game at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Like ticket sales, both memberships and donations to the Bear Foundation have risen each year. The Bear Foundation's annual contribution toward athletic scholarships has increased from $500,000 to more than $2 million since Stanton's return to his alma mater.

Most Baylor fans would point to the university's rising fortunes on the fields and courts of competition as Stanton's most important legacy. Under Stanton, Baylor's ranking in the Sears

Director's Cup rankings has jumped from 125th (1996-97) to top 55 finishes each of the last three seasons. In five seasons of play in the Big 12 Conference, Baylor has earned four team championships (baseball, men's golf, men's tennis, soccer).

In addition to his work at Baylor, Stanton has been heavily involved in Waco's Big 12 Task Force, and during the 1997-98 school year, he served as chair of the Big 12 athletic directors and will play a significant role in the conference strategic planning process.

Stanton was named Baylor's director of athletics Feb. 23, 1996 by president Robert B. Sloan Jr. The 50-year-old Stanton came to Baylor in July 1995 as the director of athletic marketing and promotions following a 22-year career with Word Inc., an international Christian communications company.

Stanton held several positions at Word, among them director of telemarketing, vice president for marketing, vice president for operations, senior vice president for operations, executive vice president for finance and operations, and executive vice president for operations, direct marketing and international export.

Word Inc. was acquired by Thomas Nelson Inc. in 1992, and in 1993 Stanton was named president of Nelson/Word Direct and Texas Operations. Stanton was responsible for three major divisions of the company.

Stanton holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business from Baylor. He lettered three years in basketball and two in baseball. He finished his basketball career at Baylor in 1972 with 954 points. He won the team's Hustle Award three consecutive years, and as a junior he was second on the team in scoring behind all-America William Chatmon.

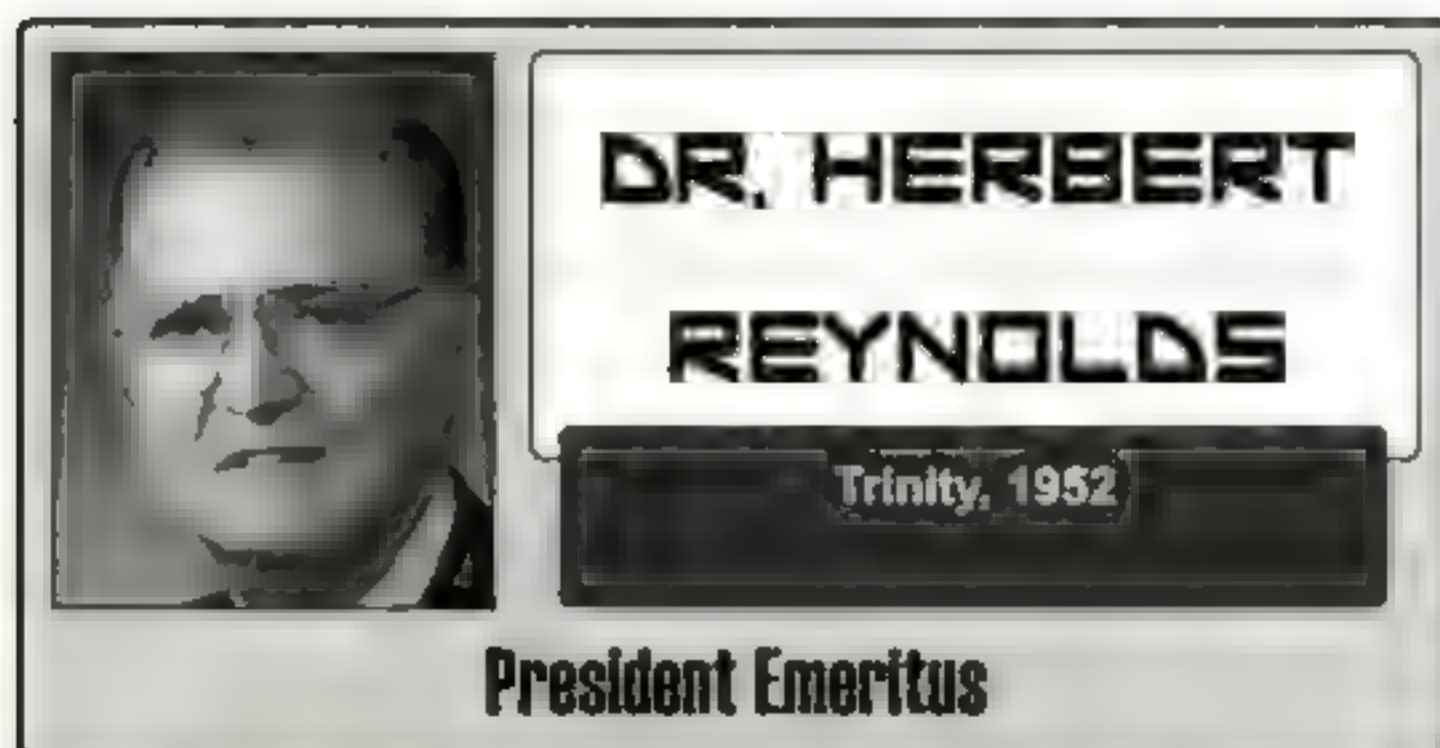

Upon completing his playing career, Stanton served as a graduate assistant coach on the Baylor basketball staff.

Stanton and his wife, Kathleen, also a Baylor graduate, have two sons, Clinton and Ryan.

During the years 1946 to 1952, Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds earned a bachelor of science degree from Trinity University and completed four years active duty in the United States Air Force. After serving as a member of a technical advisory group in Japan, he came to Baylor in 1956 as a Teaching Fellow and over the next five years earned the Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in the experimental neurosciences and clinical psychology.

Reynolds was scheduled to join the faculty of the Air Force Academy in 1961, but was diverted to the Aeromedical Research Laboratory in Alamogordo, N.M., where he became director of research and deputy commander. He led this highly diverse and complex laboratory in unique research activities associated with the United States space program, specifically in NASA's Project Mercury, Gemini and Apollo endeavors. In the midst of producing some 50 publications and maintaining flying status as an aviation psychologist, Dr. Reynolds also served as an adjunct graduate faculty member of both Baylor and the University of New Mexico. During his last year of Air Force duty, he was the establishing commander of the Air Force Human Resources Laboratories.

In November 1968, at age 38, Dr. Reynolds retired from the Air Force, having completed 20 years active duty with five decorations for meritorious service. In March 1969 he joined Baylor as executive vice president, and on June 1, 1981, became the 11th president of Baylor.

During his presidency, more than $180 million in new and renovated facilities were added at Baylor, endowment quadrupled from $82 to $340 million and the total net assets of the University tripled. In 1986, the Exxon Education Foundation named Dr. Reynolds one of America's 100 most effective chief executive officers of the 3,400 presidents of American colleges and universities. In 1990, he led Baylor in a historic and far-reaching charter change to protect academic and religious freedom. Dr. Reynolds retired from the Baylor presidency on May 31, 1995, and served as the University's chancellor until June 1, 2000, when his title was changed to president emeritus.

Dr. Reynolds is past chair of the 850-member National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities and is immediate past chair of the 40-member Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas. He is chair of the State Commission on Judicial Efficiency, an emeritus trustee of the Baylor College of Medicine and a director of Community Bank of Waco. In addition, he is a deacon and former deacon chair of the First Baptist Church of Waco, a 33rd-degree Mason, a member of some 60 honor, professional and civic organizations and a licensed psychologist.

Dr. Reynolds and his wife Joy, have three children: Kevin, Kent, and Rhonda, and seven grandchildren: Jonathan, Melinda, Sam, Nicole, Jake, Trey and Dylan.

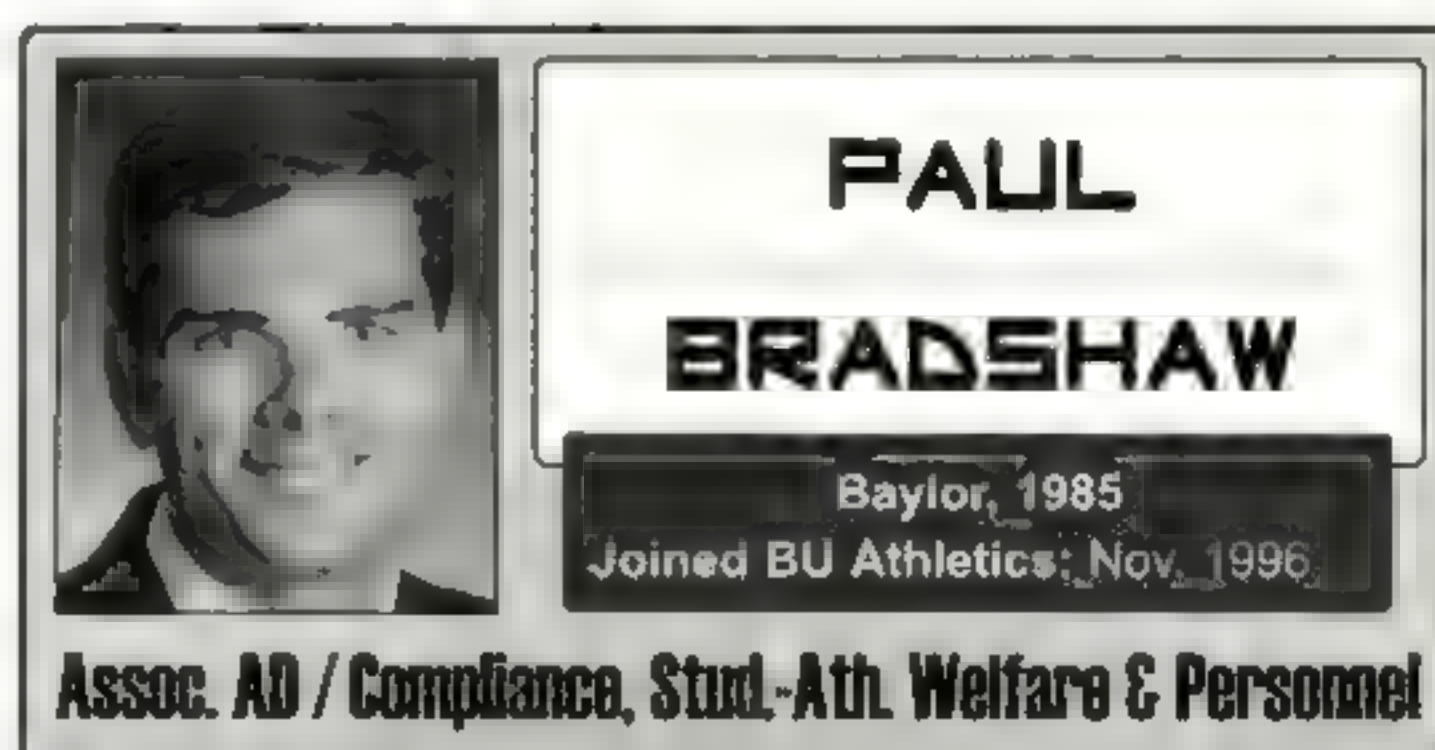

Professor Mike Rogers is in his first year as Baylor's faculty athletic representative to the Big 12 Conference and the NCAA. He has chaired Baylor's professional sports counseling panel for more than a decade and serves on the Waco Big 12 Task Force.

A 1972 honors graduate from Texas Tech University with a bachelor of business administration degree, Rogers was a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies and a varsity scholarship basketball player while in college. He received his J.D. degree in 1974 from the University of Oklahoma, where he was an editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and was admitted to membership in the Order of the Coif.

Rogers was in private practice from 1975 to 1984, during which time he was a founding partner of Gilmore & Bell, a securities transactions law firm with offices in Kansas and Missouri. He is admitted to practice law in Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas.

In 1984, Rogers joined the Baylor Law faculty, where his subjects include family law, securities regulation and alternative dispute resolution. An experienced mediator, Rogers serves on the panel of mediators for the United States District Court Western District of Texas. He also chairs the McLennan County Dispute Resolution Center board.

The son of Bob J. Rogers, Texas A&M's men's basketball head coach from 1957 to 1963, Rogers and his wife, Diane, reside in Waco.

Paul Bradshaw, a Baylor graduate and licensed attorney, is in his sixth year in the Baylor athletic department.

Bradshaw is the department's associate AD for compliance, personnel and student-athlete welfare, as well as the acting senior women's administrator.

After five years as an assistant athletic director, Bradshaw was promoted to his current position in 2000. He now oversees the department's compliance program and is responsible for the supervision of the training staff, strength and conditioning staff, and the department's personnel responsibilities. He also serves as the department's liaison with student-athlete services.

This year, Bradshaw will oversee all of the women's sports programs while the University searches for a new senior women's administrator.

Before returning to Baylor, Bradshaw served as associate commissioner of the Southland Conference from 1994-96. At the Southland, he supervised the conference's compliance program and oversaw competition in men's basketball, baseball, men's golf, and track and field/cross country. He also coordinated several conference championships.

Prior to joining the Southland, Bradshaw served as the compliance coordinator for Southwest Texas State for two years.

The Texarkana, Texas, native graduated from Baylor's Hankamer School of Business in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned his juris doctorate from Baylor School of Law in 1988. In 1992 Bradshaw completed a master's degree in sports administration at the University of Texas.

Bradshaw has worked as an attorney in both Tyler, Texas, and San Antonio, Texas. He is married to the former Kelly Meadors.

CLYDE HART

Baylor, 1956
Joined BU Athletics: May 1963

Associate AD / Head Track & Field Coach

Clyde Hart, who is in his 39th year with Baylor athletics, holds the dual title of associate athletic director for internal affairs and head track and field coach.

A former state-champion high school sprinter in Arkansas, Hart still holds the Baylor record in the 100-yard dash and ran on a SWC champion 440-yard relay team that tied the world record. He was also a member of BU's 880-yard relay team that won college track's Triple Crown, the Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays.

Hart began his coaching career at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he won five straight cross country and track state championships. Before coming to Baylor in 1963, Hart had coached Central runners to virtually every state record in Arkansas.

The Bears' men's team has finished as high as third in the NCAA championships four times (1985 indoor and outdoor; 1990 outdoor; 2000 outdoor). In 1989, 1990 and 1991, the Bears were ranked by Track and Field News as the top collegiate relay team in America, based on statistical rankings of all relays.

Hart has coached 96 athletes to all-America honors 411 times. His relay teams have set American, collegiate, conference and junior world records at a variety of distances.

Hart is well known for his tutoring of 400-meter runners. Included in his list of stellar pupils are eight-time all-American Mark Collins, former SWC record holder Zeke Jefferson, 10-time all-American Johnny Thomas and NCAA champions Willie Caldwell, Raymond Pierre, Michael Johnson, Deon Minor.

Hart coached 2000 NCAA indoor 400-meter champion Brandon Couts. At the 2001 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Bayano Kamani claimed his second 400-meter hurdles national title and teammate Michael Smith finished second.

Hart's 4x400-meter relay teams have won 11 NCAA titles since 1985 and Baylor has reached the NCAA finals 24 of the last 25 years. They have also won the Texas Relays 10 of the last 13 years and the Drake Relays in nine of the last 10 years. In 1998, Baylor won an unprecedented men's and women's 4x400-meter relays at the same NCAA indoor meet.

A 2001 inductee into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, Hart was recognized by the Texas Sports Writers Association as the state's Senior College Spring Coach of the Year in 1985. The NCAA Track Coaches Association named Hart their 1989 national indoor coach of the year, and he is that group's past president. In 1996, Hart swept conference, regional and national coach of the year honors. He was also named the USOC national track coach of the year.

Hart and his wife Maxine, also a Baylor graduate and professor emeritus of BU's Hankamer School of Business, have two grown sons, Greg and Scott, and three grandchildren.

LARRY LITTLE

Louisiana Tech, 1998
Joined BU Athletics: July 2000

Asst. Dir., Media Relations / Publications Coordinator

Larry Little is in his second year as assistant director of athletic media relations/publications coordinator, working as the primary contact for Baylor's volleyball, cross country and track and field programs, and assisting with men's basketball.

In his first year on staff, Baylor received several high marks for publications from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The 2000 Baylor volleyball media guide was judged 11th nationally and fourth in District VI, while the Baylor baseball game program was fourth nationally; the baseball game program was also designated "best cover." The volleyball guide, designed and edited by Little, received the Viggo O. Nelson Award for Excellence in Publications from USA Volleyball, being selected "best in its division."

A 1998 Louisiana Tech journalism honors graduate, Little came to Baylor after spending one year as media relations assistant at Mississippi State. Prior to his stint at MSU, Little served as assistant director of media relations at the University of Virginia, handling, among other sports, the Cavaliers' internationally renowned men's soccer program. Before his time at UVA, Little was a graduate assistant at Baylor, working with volleyball, golf and tennis.

While at Tech, Little served as baseball contact for four years and director of baseball broadcasting for two years. He also assisted with football and men's basketball. For his dedication to the baseball program, Little was awarded an honorary letter in 1998.

Little, who calls Ruston, La., home, is married to the former Chris Bushby, a three-time Academic all-Southeastern Conference softball player at Mississippi State. He is a member of CoSIDA, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association and the Society of Professional Journalists.

HEATH
NIELSEN

Utah State, 1994
Joined BU Athletics: May 2000

Director of Media Relations

Entering his second year at Baylor is director of athletic media relations Heath Nielsen.

In addition to serving as the school's primary media contact for men's basketball, Nielsen is responsible for supervising the day-to-day operation of Baylor's media relations office.

Nielsen came to Baylor from New Mexico State, where he spent two years as assistant AD for media relations. At NMSU, Nielsen was responsible for the media relations operation for a 15-sport Division I athletic program.

Prior to New Mexico State, Nielsen spent four and a half years as assistant director of athletic media relations at Mississippi State. At MSU, Nielsen's duties involved serving as the main media contact for the football, baseball and soccer programs. Nielsen is a 1994 graduate of Utah State with a B.A. degree in journalism and a minor in Spanish. He spent three years as a student assistant in USU's sports information office.

A native of Tucson, Ariz., Nielsen has received numerous awards for his publications, including his 1996 MSU baseball media guide that was judged "Best in the Nation." He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America, and the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Nielsen is married to the former Deena Thurston of Logan, Utah. The couple has two sons, H and Kye.

Student-Athlete Education • Our Mission, Our Goal, Our Focus

The mission of the Baylor Bear Foundation is to provide scholarship funds for more than 300 of Baylor's student-athletes as we seek to help meet the challenge of preparing young people for successful lives.

The current educational costs for student-athletes at Baylor has risen to more than five million dollars annually. The Baylor Bear Foundation would like to thank all those who helped raise more than two million dollars for this cause.

Now we need all Baylor Bears to stand up and be counted among those who support the education of our student-athletes.

Insider Newsletters, priority seating, preferred parking, hospitality rooms and a tax deduction are some of the benefits of membership in the Baylor Bear Foundation.

However, please remember the real reason we need your help is to assist our student-athletes in receiving a quality Christian education.

Preferred Advertisers Club

The Baylor Athletic Department's Preferred Advertisers' Club (PAC Club) represents a large group of business advertisers that have chosen to invest in a variety of individualized advertising packages. Included in the wide range of benefits offered to advertisers are scoreboard recognition, program ads, marquee messages, season tickets, signage and promotional opportunities at Floyd Casey Stadium, The Ferrell Center and Ferrell Field.

Three levels of corporate involvement are available. Diamond

PAC members have made advertising investments in excess of $10,000, while Gold PAC advertisers take advantage of package benefits of $3,500 or more. Green PAC members are involved in commitments over $2,600.

The Baylor Athletic Department appreciates these businesses and their direct involvement and relationships. The individuals represented here are more than advertisers - They are friends. Please thank these friends of Baylor!

Elijah Burkins made a quick impact in his return from an injury as Baylor ended a 16-game road losing streak with a 20-7 victory over North Texas.

Burkins didn't touch the ball until the first play of the second quarter, and then had three straight carries up the middle for the final 31 yards of Baylor's first touchdown drive. He had gains of 18 and 9 yards before scoring from the 4-yard line.

Baylor led for good in the season opener for both teams after

Game Notes

- Soph. WR Reggie Newhouse had career highs in receptions (5) and yards (103).
- Baylor held an opponent under 10 points for the first time since 1995 vs. Rice
- The Bears did not commit a turnover and had just two penalties.
- Of the 55 Bears who saw action, 20 were playing in their first Baylor game. Five true freshmen played.

the TD by Burkins, a senior who received a medical red-shirt after injuring his right ankle in the third game last season.

The Bears had a 17-0 half-time lead after Adam Stiles kicked a 46-yard field goal, and linebacker Kris Micheaux followed just 21 seconds later by returning a fumble 14 yards for a touchdown.

North Texas, which hasn't beaten Baylor in the 11-game series that dates to 1922, began coach Darrell Dickey's third season with another loss after a five-game losing streak to end 1999. The Mean Green had four turnovers.

North Texas didn't score until freshman quarterback Scott Hall took over and led a nine-play, 80-yard drive that ended on Aaron Holly's 2-yard TD run on the opening play of the fourth quarter. Hall completed passes of 22 and 29 yards just before the score.

The last time Baylor had held an opponent scoreless into the fourth quarter was Sept. 30, 1995, in a 9-7 victory over Texas Tech.

Greg Cicero was adequate in his first start as Baylor's quarterback. Cicero completed 17 of 28 passes for 213 yards.

North Texas made it into Baylor territory on just one of its seven first-half possessions.

Thomas Tapeh ran for 178 yards and caught a touchdown pass, and Karon Riley knocked Baylor's quarterback out of the game as Minnesota beat the Bears 34-9 on Saturday.

Tapeh, a 228-pound freshman, scored on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Asad Abdul-Khaliq in the third quarter and had a 1-yard TD run in the fourth as the Gophers (2-1) wore down the Bears (1-1). Tapeh had 31 carries.

Abdul-Khaliq, also a freshman, completed 14 of 20 passes for 172 yards and surrendered one interception.

Renato Fitzpatrick scored Minnesota's final touchdown on a 14-yard run with 3:05 left.

Minnesota took a 13-3 to the dressing room at halftime thanks to a 22-yard scoring pass from Abdul-Khaliq to running back Tellis Redmon and field goals of 22 and 44 yards by Dan Nystrom. The last one came as time ran out on the second quarter clock.

Baylor suffered a big blow in the first quarter when junior quarterback Greg Cicero fractured his left collarbone on a hard knockdown by Riley. The Bears were at the Minnesota 22 after Derrick Cash blocked Preston Gruening's punt. Baylor had to settle for a 25-yard field goal by Daniel Andino for a short-lived 3-0 lead.

Third-string quarterback Guy Tomcheck got the Bears a touchdown with 4:15 to play when he hit true freshman Robert Quiroga with a 15-yard pass.

It was the first meeting between the two schools.

Game Notes

- Freshmen QB Guy Tomcheck and freshman WR Robert Quiroga hooked up for a 15-yard scoring pass, the first career touchdowns for each.
- Derrick Cash's blocked punt in the first quarter was Baylor's third under Kevin Steele.
- Martin Dossett had a career-long 58-yard kickoff return.
- Baylor fell to 2-9-1 all-time against Big Ten opponents.

South Florida 13

Baylor 28

September 23, 2000

Floyd Casey Stadium • Waco, Texas

Guy Tomcheck, making his first start at quarterback, completed 20 of 28 passes for 223 yards and three touchdowns to lead Baylor to a 28-13 win over South Florida.

Tomcheck, replacing the injured Greg Cicero, connected on a pair of 9-yard TD passes and another for 4 yards. Melvin Barnett added a 6-yard touchdown run for insurance with 1:52 to go as the Bears (2-1) doubled their victory total for all of last year and won for only the third time in 20 games.

South Florida's Marquel Blackwell threw for 236 yards, completing 22 of 42 attempts and a touchdown, and ran for another 132 yards on 12 carries.

But the Bulls had four turnovers, including a fumble by Blackwell late in the fourth quarter that sent Baylor on its last scoring drive. South Florida also was penalized for 99 yards, including a personal foul that negated a missed field goal by Baylor and set up the Bears at the South Florida 9. Three plays later, Barnett ran it in to put the game out of reach.

Tomcheck seemed to find his rhythm late in the second quarter, leading the Bears to scores twice in a six-minute span to take a 14-7 lead at the half.

Tomcheck took the Bears 90 yards for the go-ahead score, a 9-yard pass to Lanny O'Steen with 26 seconds to go in the half.

Bill Gramatica had a pair of third-quarter field goals to cut the Bulls' deficit to 14-13.

But after an exchange of fumbles that resulted with a Baylor first down at their own 47 with 11:05 to go, Tomcheck needed only four plays to pick up his third scoring pass, a 9-yarder to Newhouse.

Game Notes

- In his first career start, freshman QB Guy Tomcheck became the first Bear in four years to pass for three TDs.
- Darrell Bush's 58-yard third-quarter run was Baylor's longest in two seasons.
- Reggie Newhouse topped the century mark in receiving yards for the second time in three games.

Ennis Haywood ran for 241 yards and two touchdowns as Iowa State beat Baylor 31-17 to improve to 4-0 for the first time since 1980.

Haywood, who has topped 100 yards in all four victories, had 101 yards and both of his touchdowns by halftime, when the Cyclones already had a 31-3 lead. Iowa State converted three Baylor turnovers into 17 first-half points.

The Cyclones scored on their last three possessions of the first half, including two touchdowns in 39 seconds.

After Joe Woodley plunged in from the 1 to make it 24-3 with 1:37 left, Baylor had the ball back just one play before Guy Tomcheck was intercepted by Dustin Avey. Four plays later, Sage Rosenfels hit J.J. Moses on a crossing pattern, and the receiver completed the 38-yard TD play.

Haywood scored on a 9-yard run to end a 14-play, 61-yard drive earlier in the second quarter. He scored on a 3-yard run in the first quarter, carrying four straight times from the 25 after Baylor fumbled a kickoff return.

Rosenfels was 12-of-23 passing for 167 yards.

Baylor went 80 yards in six plays to start the second half, with Tomcheck hitting Reggie Newhouse for a 54-yard touchdown. After an Iowa State fumble on its next drive, the Bears didn't score when Tomcheck's fourth-and-goal pass from the 3 was incomplete.

Darrell Bush's 1-yard TD in the fourth quarter came right after Baylor converted a fourth-and-7 on Tomcheck's 21-yard pass to Elijah Burkins.

Game Notes

- Iowa State evened the all-time series against Baylor at 2-2.
- With redshirt freshman Guy Tomcheck starting for the second-straight week, Baylor fell to 29-21-2 with a frosh quarterback starting.
- TB Darrell Bush moved into sixth place on Baylor's career rushing yardage list.

Ricky Williams ran for two touchdowns and Kliff Kingsbury threw two TD passes to Derek Dorris as Texas Tech beat Baylor 28-0 in Lubbock.

Baylor used three quarterbacks trying to fill the void left by the early-season injury to Greg Cicero.

The Red Raiders shut down three Baylor threats in the fourth quarter.

Tech drove 96 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown after Antwan Alexander intercepted Michael Odom's pass at the 4.

Mark Farris threw for 311 yards and a touchdown as Texas A&M beat Baylor 24-0 and handed the Bears their second straight shutout.

Texas A&M, bouncing back from a loss a week ago to then-winless Colorado, took a 10-0 first-half lead en route to its 10th-straight win over the Bears. The Aggies broke open the game in the third quarter when Farris tossed a short pass to Joe Weber in the right flat and the running back ran scored to complete an 18-yard scoring play. Farris completed 22 of 40 passes.

Baylor true freshman quarterback Kerry Dixon was making his first start. Dixon was 11-of-27 for 107 yards but threw four interceptions, two off deflections. Three of the turnovers led to Aggie touchdowns.

It was sloppy game on both sides, with the Aggies penalized 14 times for 101 yards while Baylor had 90 yards in penalties to go with the four turnovers. Texas A&M piled up 414 yards, while Baylor was held to 236 yards.

After a scoreless opening period, wide receiver Bethel Johnson, on the first play of the second quarter, put the Aggies ahead when he took a handoff from Farris on an end-around and scooted untouched 15 yards down the right sideline, capping a 97-yard, 12-play drive that was started when Terence Kiel intercepted Dixon's pass at the A&M 3.

With 4:58 to go in the period, the Aggies took over on their 25 and needed only four plays to drive to the Baylor 3. But the Bears' defense stopped three straight runs by fullback Ja'Mar Toombs and the Aggies settled for a 21-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Toombs added A&M's last touchdown, a 1-yard run with 4:56 to go.

Game Notes

- True freshmen QB Kerry Dixon and WLB John Garrett made their first starts
- Baylor had a time of possession advantage for the second time in 2000.
- A&M's 103 yards rushing was its lowest total against Baylor since 1986.

Dan Alexander scored twice as No. 1 Nebraska set a school record with 38 points in the first quarter and went on to a 59-0 victory over Baylor.

Alexander had 14 carries for 104 yards, his fifth 100-yard game of the season, and Correll Buckhalter ran six times for 76 yards and two touchdowns.

The loss spoiled the return of Baylor coach Kevin Steele and assistant Tommie Frazier. Steele coached Nebraska's linebackers in the early 1990s and Frazier was the Huskers' quarterback when they won back-to-back national titles in 1994 and '95.

No. 2 quarterback Jammal Lord made his earliest appearance this year, and the offense didn't skip a beat. Lord led the Huskers on a 12-play, 80-yard drive and capped it with a 2-yard TD run. Nebraska drove 87 yards in seven plays on its next possession, scoring on Buckhalter's 7-yard run with about two minutes left in the half.

The Huskers had a 7-0 lead before their offense even took the field. On the fourth play of the game, Keyuo Craver blocked Adam Stiles' punt and was the first to pounce on it in the end zone.

Nebraska forced Baylor into another three-and-out and got the ball back at the Baylor 45. It took Alexander two plays to score again, running in from 15 yards out. He added a 2-yard TD run on Nebraska's next possession.

QB Eric Crouch scored on an option-keeper from the 14 and Buckhalter had a 36-yard TD run that put Nebraska up 38-0 with 40 seconds left in the second quarter.

Third-team I-back Dahrran Diedrick scored on a 23-yard run in the third quarter for the only score of the second half.

Game Notes

- Two defensive starters, LB Anthony Simmons and DE Aaron Lard, along with substitute DB Eric Giddens, did not make the trip to Nebraska due to disciplinary reasons.

Major Applewhite threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in the No. 22 Longhorns' 48-14 victory over Baylor. His 297 yards on 18-of-42 passing allowed him to surpass James Brown (1994-97) as the Longhorns' career yardage leader.

The Longhorns found themselves down 7-0 early in the first quarter.

Baylor scored its first touchdown in four games, shocking Texas with Martin Dossett's 18-yard scoring pass from Guy Tomcheck on the Bears' first possession.

Baylor's defense set up the score when Applewhite was sacked and fumbled at the Texas 35.

The touchdown was just the third given up at home this season by the Longhorns defense.

Baylor used three quarterbacks as Texas forced five turnovers.

Applewhite struggled early with several bad throws and dropped balls by his receivers but finally got untracked in the second quarter.

After Kris Stockton kicked three of his four field goals for a 9-7 lead, Applewhite hit Montrell Flowers for a 5-yard TD strike in the second quarter.

Greg Brown's interception two series later gave Texas the ball on the Baylor 17. After a completion to B.J. Johnson to the goal line, Applewhite ran over the left side for his first rushing touchdown of the season.

A 14-yard scoring pass to Johnson made it 31-7 at half-time. The freshman receiver finished with nine catches for 162 yards.

Baylor cornerback Eric Giddens stepped in front of a Chris Simms pass in the fourth quarter and went 72 yards for a touchdown to make it 34-14.

Game Notes

- WR Martin Dossett caught his first career TD pass, an 18-yard reception in the first quarter.

J.T. Thatcher returned Baylor's first punt for a touchdown and Curtis Fagan had two of his three TD catches as the Sooners rolled to a 42-0 halftime lead. Heupel also ran for a touchdown.

Baylor broke up the shutout when back-up Nate Hybl's shuffle pass went straight into the belly of Baylor safety Odell James, who took it 18 yards for the score.

After Hatcher's punt return, Heupel set up the Sooners' next score with a 57-yard pass to Andre Woolfolk. Two plays later, Heupel took a quick snap over the right side from the 4 for his sixth rushing touchdown this season.

Heupel then connected with Fagan for touchdown passes of 9 and 43 yards. On the second, Fagan took a short pass over the middle and ran for the corner of the end zone. Cornerback Danielle McLean had the angle but Fagan made an unexpected cut on a soggy field and left him at the 15.

Ahead 28-0 after the first quarter, the Sooners got a 2-yard TD run from Quentin Griffin, his 13th of the season.

Heupel's third scoring pass, a 39-yarder to fullback Seth Littrell, who had slipped out of the backfield and beat the Baylor secondary down the sideline, closed out the half.

Hybl, who had attempted just seven passes this season, atoned for the interception with touchdown passes of 36 and 31 yards to Fagan and Antwone Savage.

Darius Outlaw threw two touchdown passes to Justin Gage and ran for another score as Missouri broke a four-game losing streak with a 47-22 victory over Baylor.

Missouri, which had lost eight consecutive road games, quickly took Baylor's homecoming crowd of 29,873 out of the game.

Outlaw drove the Tigers to a touchdown on their second possession. He dashed 29 yards to set up his 5-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-5 receiver Gage, who outjumped 5-foot-8 cornerback Daniel Wilturner.

Missouri made it 14-0 early in the second period when nose tackle Pat Mingucci recovered quarterback Josh Zachry's fumble at the Baylor 16. Missouri scored in three plays on Zack Abron's 4-yard run. Abron also had an 8-yard scoring run late in the game.

Zachry, a freshman who had played only nine snaps, was making his first start at quarterback. He was Baylor's fourth different starting quarterback this season.

Outlaw, redshirt freshman, scored on a 3-yard run with 3:18 left in half to give the Tigers a 21-0 bulge at halftime.

He put Missouri's fourth touchdown on the board in the third quarter. After hitting Gage with a 43-yard pass, Outlaw found him alone in the corner of the end zone for a 3-yard toss.

The Bears took the second half kickoff and marched 68 yards for a score on Melvin Barnett's 1-yard run. Zachry hit Reggie Newhouse with a 24-scoring toss and Robert Quiroga with a 42-yarder in the fourth period.

Game Notes

- Redshirt freshman QB Josh Zachry made his first career start, becoming the fourth different QB to start for Baylor during the 2000 season.
- Baylor celebrated the 20th anniversary of its 1980 Southwest Conference championship team with a halftime ceremony.

Baylor 22

Oklahoma State 50

November 18, 2000

Lewis Field • Stillwater, Oklahoma

Quarterback Aso Pogi ran for four touchdowns as Oklahoma State broke a seven-game losing streak by beating Baylor 50-22 in the Bears' season finale.

Pogi completed 14 of 18 passes and scored on runs of 6 and 5 yards, and twice went over from the 1 for the Cowboys (3-7, 1-7). The Bears (2-9, 0-8) couldn't overcome a series of early turnovers or an Oklahoma State defense that allowed only 66 yards rushing.

Game Notes

- WR Reggie Newhouse recorded his third 100-yard receiving game of the season, catching six passes for 110 yards and a TD.

Reggie White had 78 yards of Oklahoma State's 240 yards rushing.

Oklahoma State's defense kept the Cowboys in position to score throughout the first half.

Bears freshman quarterback Josh Zachry was sacked in the first seconds and fumbled for a 19-yard loss that put the Cowboys on Baylor's 1-yard line. Pogi followed with an easy touchdown dive.

Baylor's first four possessions ended in turnovers and set up Oklahoma State scoring drives each time. The Bears didn't reach Cowboys territory until midway through the second quarter.

Zachry, the fifth different quarterback this season for the Bears, hit Reggie Newhouse with a 9-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter and threw a 20-yard scoring pass to Robert Quiroga midway through the fourth. Zachry was 17-for-35 for 227 yards, but was intercepted three times.

Celebrating the Student-Athlete ... Competitive Excellence ... Scholarship ... Sportsmanship ... Competitive Equity ...

These are the tenets and goals of the Big 12 Conference as it seeks to maintain a leadership role in academics, student life, governance, competition, sportsmanship, and compliance areas within NCAA and international agencies' framework.

Dedicated to achieving the highest goals in the integration of academic and athletic endeavors, Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech combined forces on February 25, 1994, and formed the Big 12 Conference—a league covering seven states and encompassing approximately 40 million people (2000 U.S. census).

In particular, youngsters' welfare and the highest level of athletics' competition for the 4,000-plus student-athletes in 21 sports are key goals for Big 12 members and sports administrators. The Conference recognizes the accomplishments of our nation's future leaders as well as their academic and civic achievements.

Competing in these structures and other key areas helps to enhance both the excitement and excellence of competition within the Conference.

Along with competitive excellence, scholarship has been and continues to be a point of emphasis with the Big 12. There are 19 academic honor team teams (first and second units), and the semiannual Commissioner's Honor Roll salutes student-athletes who have achieved 3.0 averages (four-point grading scale) in the semester previous to the announcement.

Each member institution also has a chance to nominate a male or female student-athlete for one of the prestigious Big 12 Conference postgraduate scholarships at the end of the academic year. More than 40 aspiring scholars have received over $150,000 in financial aid during the first four years of the program.

Sportsmanship has been a item high on the Big 12 agenda since Commissioner Kevin Weiberg became the league's third chief executive in Dec., 1998. The Conference developed and has maintained a Sportsmanship Statement which applies to all student-athletes, coaches and administrators throughout the league.

Providing a "level playing field" for participants in all Big 12 sports also figures into the competitive equity equation. This does not deny the potential for national team champions in any sport but seeks to provide an avenue in which up-and-coming student-athletes can display their top individual talents within the framework of Conference and NCAA sports' guidelines.

These principles of fair play, sportsmanship, rules' compliance, and national respect for each student-athlete and team within the Big 12 framework can give both fans and foes a greater respect for the types of people competing and coaching in the Big 12 Conference.

Big 12 schools and the Conference office seek to provide national-class facilities for all levels of league championships, postseason tournaments and NCAA venues. They utilize Big 12 campus sites as well as buildings such as Kansas City's Kemper Arena, Arrowhead Stadium and Municipal Auditorium, San Antonio's Alamodome, St. Louis' TWA/American Dome, Irving's Texas Stadium, Oklahoma City's Southwestern Bell Bricktown Ballpark, and The Ballpark at Arlington, among others.

Not only has the Big 12 fostered a spirit of conviviality and excitement with newfound rivalries, but the Conference organization has given rise to several related, cooperative ventures—Big 12 cities, libraries, campus security organizations, Chambers of Commerce, tourism/visitors' bureaus, information exchanges, sports medicine associations, and campus public information offices, among others.

The solid athletics' traditions at the 12 schools, student-athletes/alumni have claimed more than 800 NCAA crowns and 165 national team championships. Commissioner Weiberg, acting in accord with the Big 12 Board of Directors, also has contracted most major championship sites and dates through the 2004-05 academic year. The league office also has negotiated critical media (television/radio/print) contracts and ongoing bowl agreements.

In all, the Big 12 Conference serves as a conduit for student-athletes to compete at their best levels on a level playing field with the highest ideals of sportsmanship. The various governance groups within the league seek to keep these principles in the forefront as the Big 12 achieves continued national prominence.

Life skills for student-athletes and involvement in the Special Olympics have been integral parts of the Big 12 Conference mission since its inception.

Dr. Prentice Gautt, a trendsetter in college athletics, life skills, student services, and community action, has been the driving force in both of these key areas since he joined the Big 12 staff as Associate Commissioner in March, 1995.

He is the liaison between the Student-Athletes Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the league's Board of Directors as this group of talented youngsters has provided feedback for Big 12 administrators, been a forum for inter-school discussion of issues and even offered suggestions for future

NCAA legislation. The SAAC has been proactive in assisting Dr. Gautt in guidelines for Big 12 academic honor teams, the Commissioner's Honor Roll and other areas of recognition for academic accomplishments.

Recent SAAC meetings also have included visits to children at area medical facilities as well as input for service projects for student-athletes throughout the league.

Besides such life skills' areas as eligibility concerns, time spent between studies, events and practice sessions, placement in the business world, or graduate school opportunities, the program emphasizes the "Total Person" concept in several areas. "Stay in School," anti-violence messages, anti-drug/addictive behavior, "YES," and other programs in concert with the NCAA also have received emphasis from Dr. Gautt and the hundreds of Big 12 student-athletes and administrators throughout the year.

Both life skills and Special Olympics receive ample coverage in Big 12 publications through the corporate-sponsored Community Champions Awards featured weekly on the Big 12 Showcase telecasts. They also are given pregame and halftime time scoreboard recognition slots at all conference schools, scholarship programs, and a series of free clinics in such sports as youth football, soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, and baseball, among others. A conference-wide printed and electronically-distributed newsletter for life skills has been produced since 1997 and categorizes many of the personal success stories in the league.

Special Olympics, the Big 12's charity of choice since May, 1996, has held a special place in the hearts of many in the conference for years before current association.

The Big 12 works closely with the statewide Special Olympics' organizations in Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Texas to coordinate projects, provide information, and invite Olympians to attend events such as media or fan appreciation days for various Big 12 sports.

For four decades current Big 12 members have provided facilities with a combined capacity of just over one million fans for Special Olympics' competition in the always-popular sports of track and field, softball, swimming and diving, weightlifting, and wrestling. The national program, which receives chief funding from the Kennedy Foundation and the extended family of late President John F. Kennedy, has earned the title "Most Credible Charity in America" in a survey by Chronicle of Philanthropy and "Top Charity" among Time Magazine subscribers.

2001 Big 12 Football Championship: Texas Stadium

The 2001 Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship game will be held on Saturday, December 1 at Texas Stadium in Irving, Texas.

The game will feature the winner of the Big 12's North and South divisions, and will again be televised nationally by ABC Sports. The winner of the contest receives the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

Texas Stadium is home to the National Football League's Dallas Cowboys.

TEXAS STADIUM QUICK FACTS

The glittering showcase of Dallas Cowboys football is Texas Stadium, a state-of-the-art facility which opened on October 24, 1971. Located in the Dallas suburb of Irving, Texas Stadium has a seating capacity of 65,675 and features two DiamondVision color replay screens, 381 luxury suites, three sports bars, 52 concession stands, 40 specialty stands, 86 restrooms, 115 drinking fountains and 130 acres of parking. Texas Stadium's most unique feature is the partial roof which covers fans from inclement weather, but leaves allows the game to remain outdoors. The stadium also boasts the luxurious Stadium Club, one of Dallas' premier locations for private parties, banquets and convention gatherings.

College FB Hall of Fame

BARTON "BOTCHEY" KOCH

Botchey Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

JIM RAY SMITH

Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and '54. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1987.

LAWRENCE ELKINS

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bldgers pro-style attack. Elkins was a two-time consensus All-American (1963-64). In '63 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame 1993.

BILL GLASS

Bill Glass was a consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He was voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass became one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

MORLEY JENNINGS

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 82-60-6 from 1926-40. Nine of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-5-1. Among the great players he coached were Botchey Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE SINGLETARY

Mike Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro 10 times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

GRANT TEAFF

2001 Hall of Fame inductee Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach from 1972-92, compiling a 128-105-6 record and leading the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings.

Baylor Hall of Fame

Baylor's Hall of Fame was organized in 1960 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. All athletes are required to wait 10 years after they complete their eligibility before they qualify for the honor.

Birmingham, Alabama

Although edged in the final statistics, coach Bob Woodruff's Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school's history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second annual Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor's 212, fell behind 20-0 at halftime to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors. Bear defender George Sims recorded the game's first turnover when he intercepted a Deacon pass in their first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Wake Forest eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Pierce 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter, who had attempted only seven passes during the regular season, passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American quarterback Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two of the completions going to Riley. James Parker also hauled in a Burk pass for 23 Baylor yards.

James Parker led the Baylor rushing attack with 43 yards on eight carries.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 16-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over Baylor in Miami's Orange Bowl contest.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers' effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-1-1 Bears. Bear fullback Dick Parma scored the game's first touchdown from a yard out and the legendary C. O. Brocato added the PAT as Baylor led 7-0 in the first quarter.

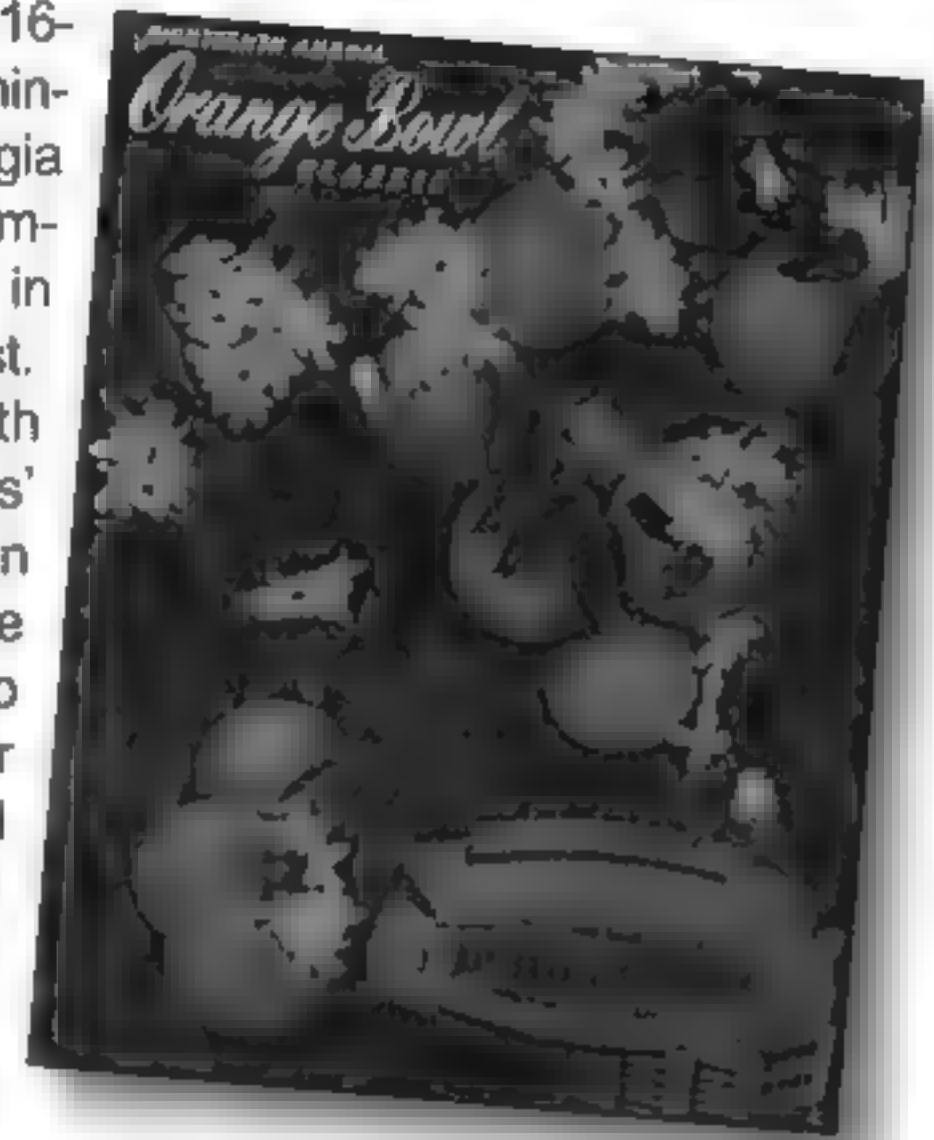

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody's four-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team's leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd's Tech squad used Rodgers and Martin's last quarter heroics to take their comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor's second of the 1951 season, the first coming at the hands of TCU 20-7. Larry Isbell, who threw for 1,430 yards during the regular season, attempted 18 passes against Tech, completing eight for 93 yards. Parma was the contest's top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

All-American end Stanley Williams, who caught 37 regular season passes for six touchdowns, and Harold Riley each caught three Isbell passes. And defensive back Robert Reid, who established a school interception record with 11 regular season swipes, intercepted one pass from Tech quarterback Darrell Crawford.

Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times they touched the football on their way to a 33-13 thrashing of Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Bear all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the Bear 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading yard gainer with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game and Bob James added a 43-yard scoring jaunt to give Auburn a 21-7 halftime edge.

Tiger quarterback Bobby Freeman gave his squad a 27-7 lead on a six-yard romp.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee all-American halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for the 10-2 Bears of coach Sam Boyd. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontel in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, who completed better than 60 percent of his passes and punted for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6. After the Volunteers held Baylor on their first possession of the fourth quarter, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

Baylor halfback Del Shofner, running behind an offensive line headed by all-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 yards rushing in 14 carries and also intercepted an Volunteer pass. For his play, Shofner, who scored ten touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing for Baylor while Saage added 39 yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Morcontell. Peters added 54 yards in kickoff runbacks.

Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

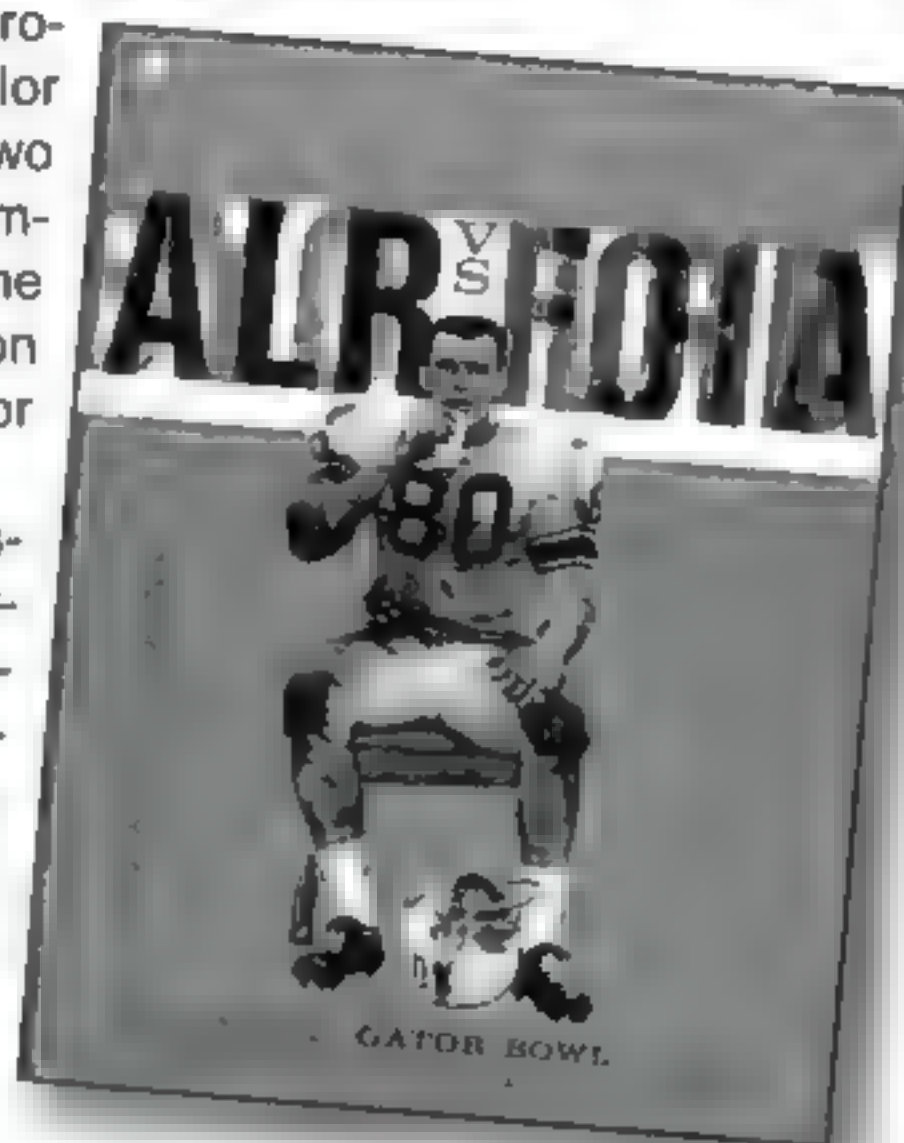

On the Bears' first possession of the second quarter, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to all-American halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three for the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half. Coach Ray Graves' squad extended their lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for the quick six points. Florida traveled 20 yards for their two scores while Baylor went 139 yards for the same results. Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Ply threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, ending a 71-yard, nine-play drive. With 1:01 remaining, Ply, who threw for four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed passes. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three yards for the score. However, the two-point try from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

Ply established a new Gator Bowl record with 13 completions and teamed with Goodwin (seven receptions) for five.

Eight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the Polo Grounds.

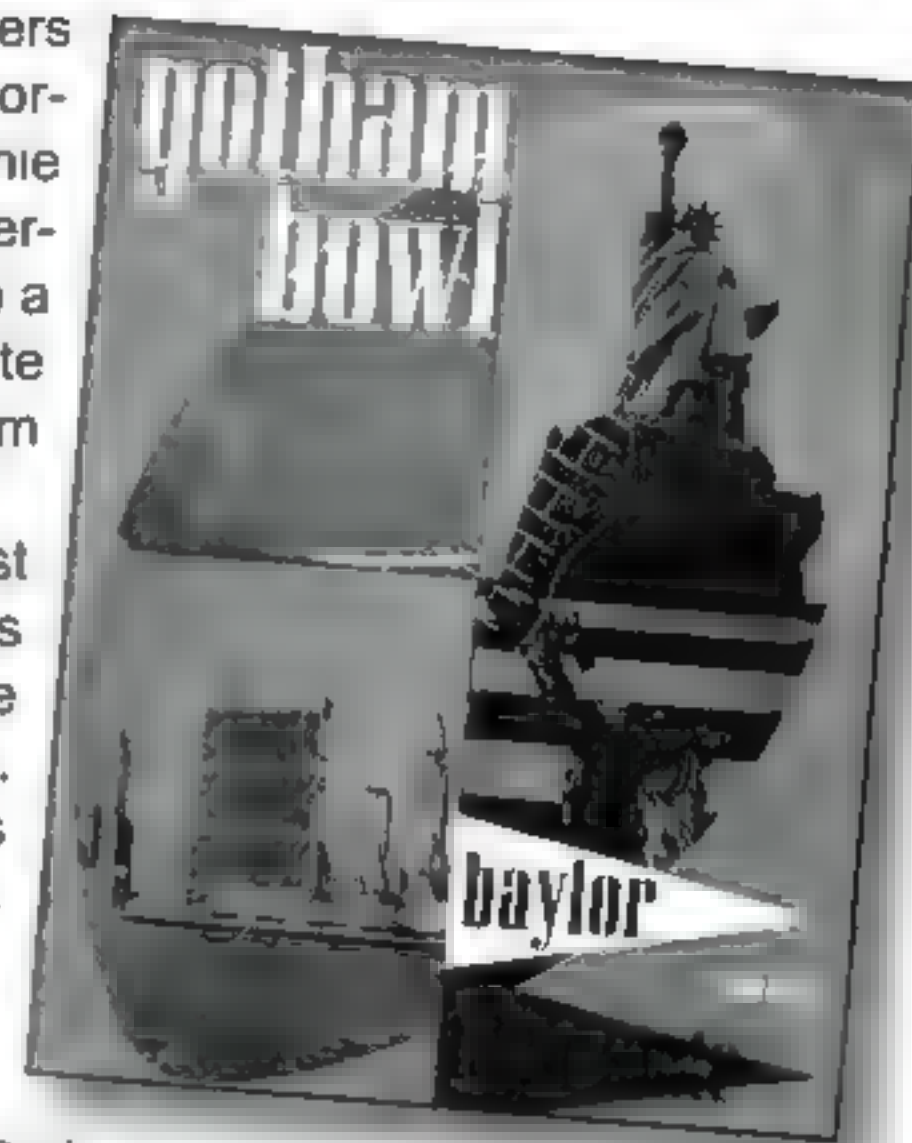

Baylor recovered their first of five Utah State fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 total yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 15 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak covering two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions. Utah State, who entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: all-American tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

Many observers felt the game's highlight came at halftime when the New York City Sanitation Department Band performed in a driving snowstorm. As a souvenir of their trip to New York City, members of both teams were given shoe shine kits.

The 5th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-American quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over LSU.

Trull, voted the contest's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the game's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 80 plays to LSU's 39 and racking up 394 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, who ended the season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored their first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in ten plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, who lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by all-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in Penn State's 41-20 decision over Baylor.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead on Steve Beaird's four-yard blast with 44 seconds remaining in the opening quarter. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission. After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard blast, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 19 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hicks tried an onside kick only to watch Lion Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's Most Outstanding Defensive Player. DB Tom Turnipseede added 11 tackles for the Bears.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

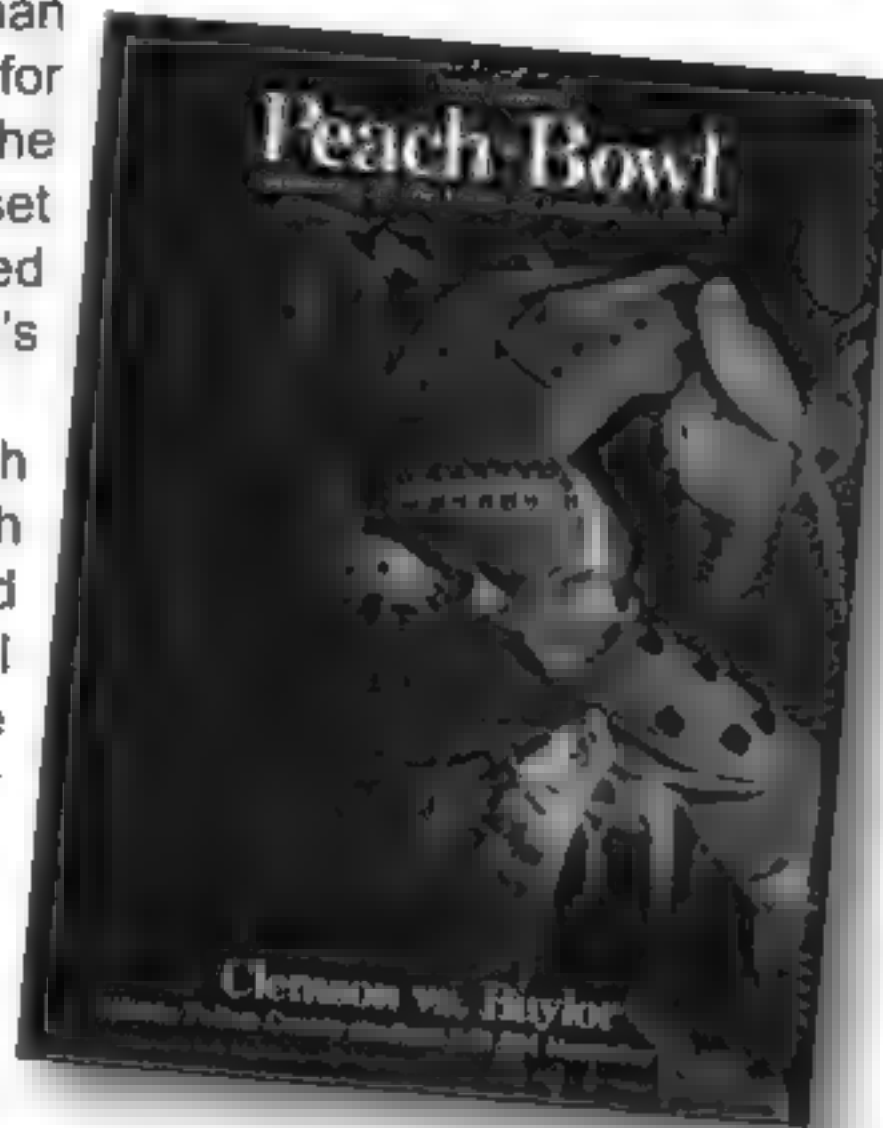

The win vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place on the Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all members of the top ten.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. They forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final ten points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards.

Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

Paul "Bear" Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl on their way to a 30-2 rout.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth in the nation during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, who closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety made the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC champion runner Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by the Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

Oklahoma State	24	Houston, Texas

Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 21 seconds left in the half.

Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked out by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve quarterback Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:14 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 showing on the OSU 45.

1985 LIBERTY

Baylor	21	December 27, 1985
LSU	7	Memphis, Tennessee

Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

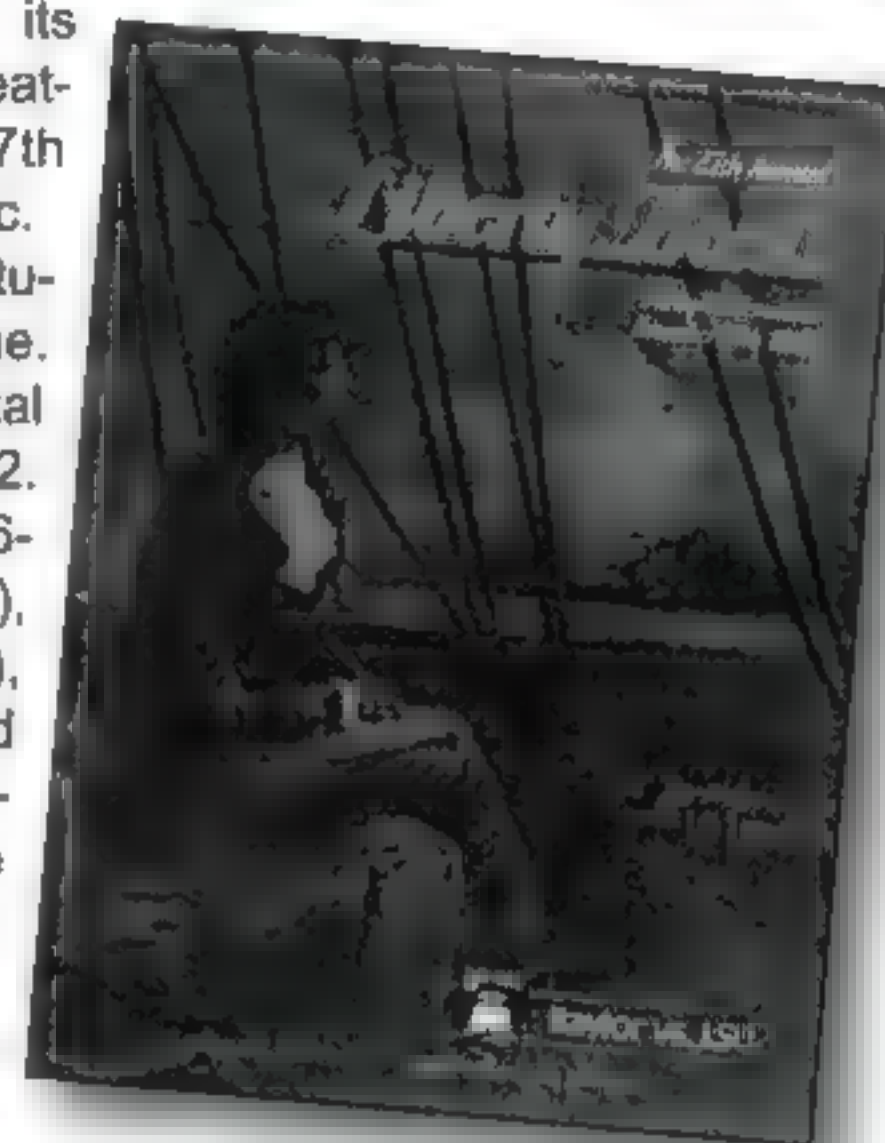

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-92), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 yards total offense on nine snaps.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and turned out to be LSU's only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 29-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

Baylor's defense, led by MVP Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffaloes to only 194 total net yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sports-writers after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defensive squad. They managed only one field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offsideline penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight play was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch.

QB Cody Carlson hit flanker Darrell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot from Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III in Tucson, AZ.

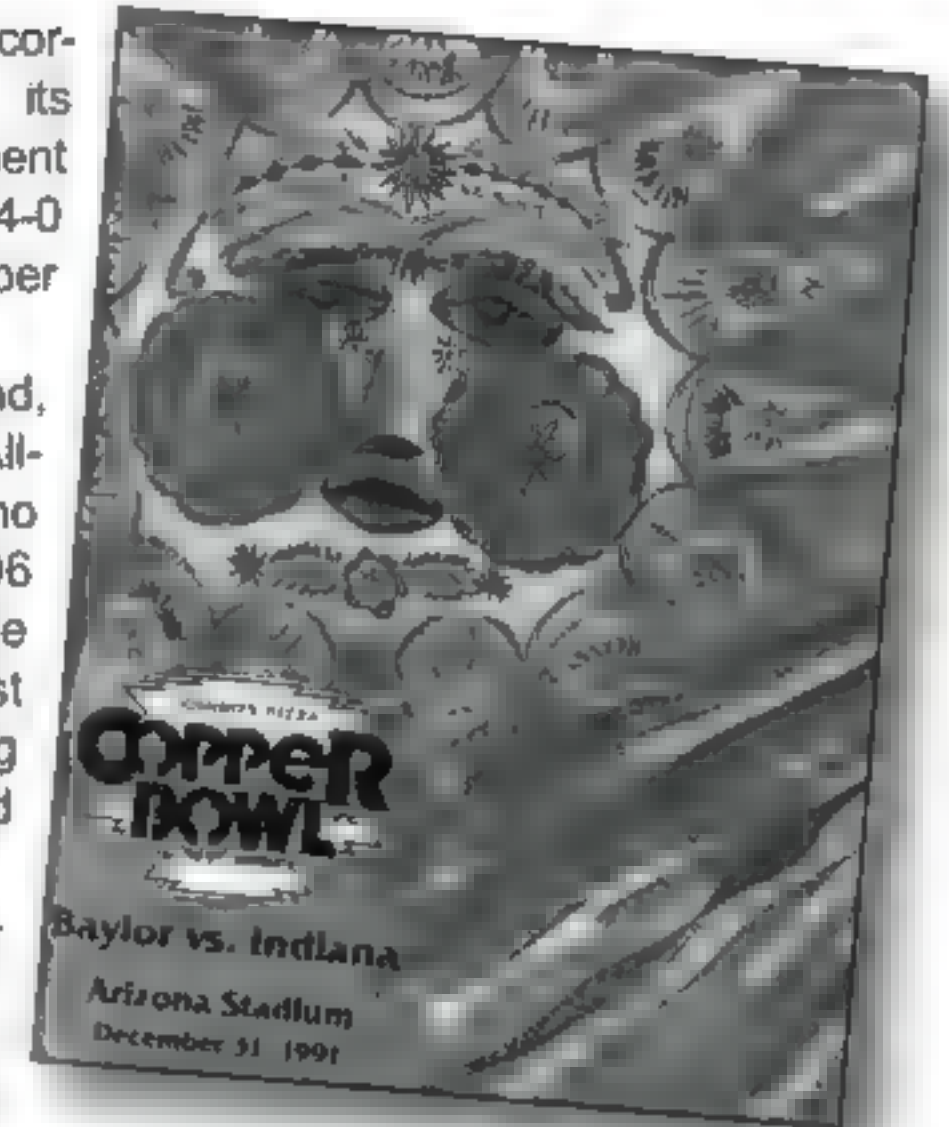

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished the game with 106 yards and the Most Valuable Player Award. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the endzone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set a pattern for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup while down by only 10 at the half. But the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at the half. The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with Baylor having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the endzone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never quite made connections on a handoff.

With another opportunity gone, Baylor could do little the rest of the game. The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end.

Their final scoring march went 60 yards on 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category, but not to the extent which the final score would indicate. They rushed for 147 yards, compared to Baylor's 138. They passed for 176 yards while BU had 131. The time of possession chart favored Indiana 32:55 to 27:05. The real story for Baylor seemed to be lost opportunities and mental lapses which Indiana did a fine job of exploiting.

The Grant Teaff era of Baylor football concluded in grand style as Baylor used big plays both offensively and defensively to hold off Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, outgained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had touchdown passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and held UA to field goals twice.

UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after the Bear defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malauulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. As the first half was coming to a close Baylor struck paydirt with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 remaining.

UA came back very quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal. It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when QB J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. It was a simple out-route on which Bonner broke a tackle and sprinted down the sideline for the score. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a battle of defenses. The highlight of the day came when Arizona moved the ball down to the Baylor eight only to be stopped on the one after four attempts. Baylor managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety. The BU defense held twice again late, stopping drives on their own 22 and 28. The final stand came with time running out and Malauulu passing into the endzone. Maston was brilliant as he led all tacklers with 11, five unassisted.

December 31, 1994

San Antonio, Texas

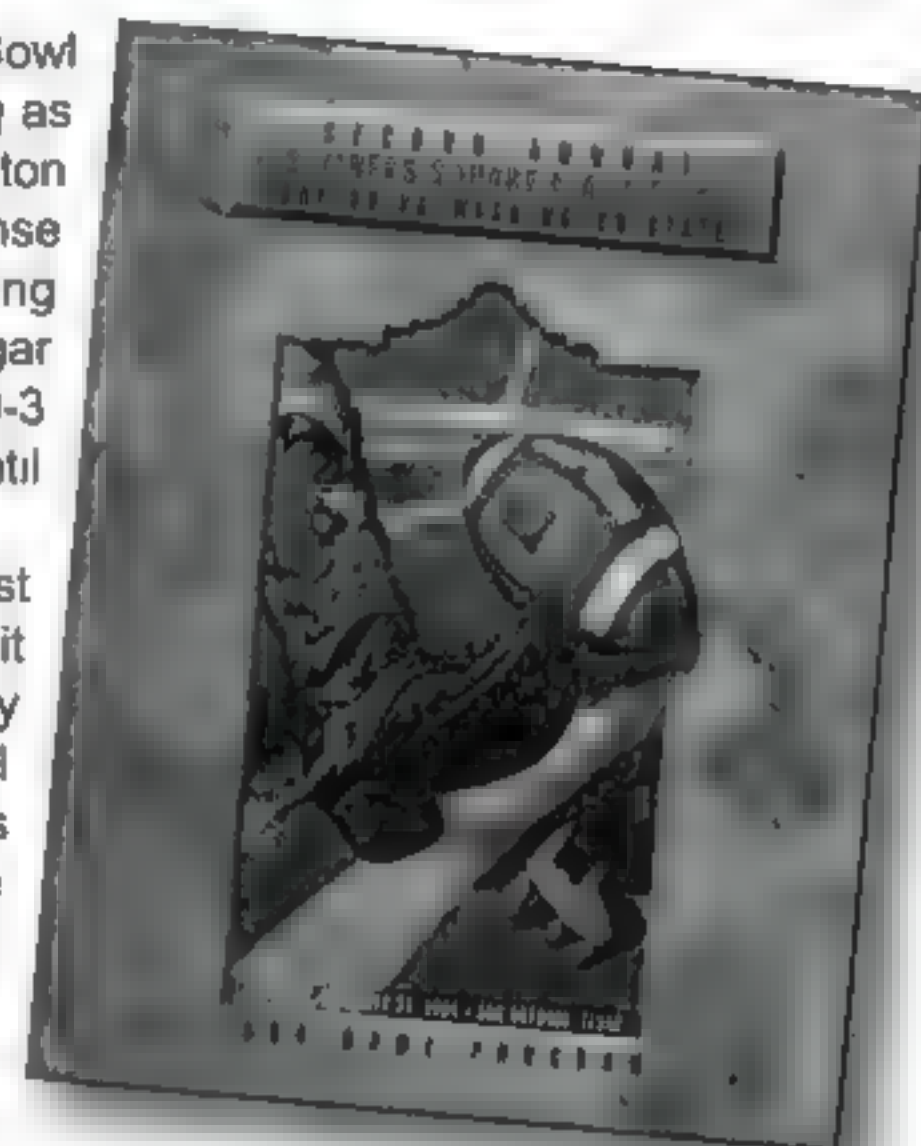

Washington State 10

The second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a tight 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until 30 remained to play.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only touchdown. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding Washington State on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed the Cougars to retain possession.

Both defenses buckled down to dominate the rest of the way. WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and it played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the Cougar 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke field goal which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. WSU ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0. The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikia Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. With 3:57 left the Bears got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 seconds left Watson's pass into the endzone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

Grant TEAFF

College Football Hall of Fame

INDUCTEE

Grant Teaff, who posted a school-record 128 wins during his 21-year tenure as Baylor's head coach (1972-92), has been selected to join the College Football Hall of Fame.

Teaff's legacy of producing successful

Bears on and off the field is being continued by current Baylor coach Kevin Steele, as evidenced by the latest NCAA graduation rates (below).
